

WEDNESDAY BASEBALL BREAKS OLD LAW

American League Will Appeal Court Decision to Supreme Bench.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Sunday professional baseball is unlawful in Pennsylvania under a decision of the Dauphin county court today which defined it as "a worldly employment" in violation of the old Pennsylvania law of 1794.

The court denied the Philadelphia American League Baseball club the right, privilege or authority to maintain or conduct any games of baseball in the city of Philadelphia on Sunday. The club's counsel indicated it would appeal to the state supreme court.

The decision held that the act of 1794 includes baseball within its terms although such a game was unknown at the time of its passage.

The case reached the court through a proceeding by Attorney General Woodruff against the club as the result of a game played between the Athletics and the Chicago White Sox August 22. The state charged that the club violated its charter rights and that it be required, under writ of quo warranto, to show authority for playing Sunday games.

Among the contentions of the club were: That quo warranto is not the proper procedure, that the act lacks definiteness, that baseball was unknown at the time of its passage and that the club is not doing or performing a worldly employment or business.

Flowers and Walker Bout Aim of Noted Matchmaker

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—(AP)—An attempt to bring the postponed middleweight championship fight between Tiger Flowers and Mickey Walker to New York has been undertaken by Tex Rickard through his Madison Square Garden matchmaker, Jess McMahon. McMahon will confer tomorrow with Walt Miller, manager of the defending titleholder, Flowers, and Jack Kearns, Walker's pilot. Miller already has agreed to the match, which originally was slated for Chicago under the promotion of Jim Mullins.

Walker says he has relinquished hopes of regaining the welterweight title he lost last year to Peter Latzo of Scranton, Pa. The

New Jersey fighter believes that the rigorous training he requires to make the 147 pounds was partly responsible for his defeat.

Newspaper workers were called to identify the photographs, but the exhibits got no farther than a permit to enter the records under a prosecution stipulation that the pictures were taken at some time prior to the loss of the original slips in the Los Angeles grand jury room.

The prosecution maintains that the evangelist made out the original lists, and, while presenting its side of the case, produced a chirography expert to swear that the writing on them corresponds to that in notes of a sermon left behind by Mrs. McPherson when she disappeared at the beach in May.
