

THIELSON TO HEAD LOCAL BOY SCOUTS

Organization Meeting Scheduled for Monday in Chamber of Commerce

Fred Thielson was chosen president of the local Boy Scouts organization at a meeting of the executive committee at the Chamber of Commerce last night. Charles Wiper was elected first vice president; George King, second vice president; and Frank Noer, secretary.

All members of the general council are requested to be present at the organization meeting next Monday night in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium. A short scout demonstration will be the feature of the program.

The demonstration which Troop 6 was to have staged at Jefferson tomorrow night has been postponed until Friday, Nov. 12.

Other officers of Cascade Area Council which were elected last night are: Additional members of the executive committee, George Arbuckle, Curtis Cross, Allen Carson, Colin H. Dyer, George Viek, Eric Butler, C. P. Bishop, Dan Jarman, E. L. Weider, I. M. Dough-ton, and Charles Hudkins.

The following were elected additional members on Cascade council: T. A. Livesley, Dan Burns, Phil Elker, Oliver Meyers, C. E. Albin, August Huckestein, George Hug, Father Keenan, O. P. Coahow, N. C. Kafoury, L. P. Campbell, W. I. Needham, O. L. McDonald, Ed Schunke, F. N. Derby, S. E. Purvine, Bob Boardman, L. Lunsford, and E. F. Hallik. Allen Carson was chosen chairman of the Court of Honor.

WITNESS REFUTES ALIBI OF HALL-MILLS DEFENSE

Dixon's testimony was corroborated by his wife, who said she shook hands with Willie and found his hand "cold and clammy." Charlotte Mills, daughter of the slain choirster, testified that she was taken by a newspaper woman to the home of Billis Parker, Burlington county detective, in Mount Holly. There, she said, Parker tried to get her to say that her father, James Mills, had been out of the house on the murder night. When defense counsel objected to this testimony, Special Prosecutor Simpson shouted he would offer proof that Henry Stevens had worked with Parker in an attempt to fasten the murders on Mills.

"I have a letter that will prove it," Senator Simpson said.

Edward Garrigan, New Brunswick policeman, one of the first persons to see the bodies as they lay under a crab apple tree, testified that a visiting card of Dr. Hall's which was offered in evidence, was seen by him propped against the slain minister's left foot. Senator Simpson said he would offer proof by two experts to show the card bore the fingerprints of Willie Steven's left index finger.

The jury, without a woman member, was selected within an hour and a half. The foreman is a teamster. There are six farmers, two clerks, a superintendent, a mason and blacksmith sitting with him.

QUEEN APPLAUDS HORSES

ROYAL PARTY GUESTS OF STATE AT EXPOSITION

PORTLAND, Nov. 3.—(AP)—A tired queen, and weary but happy throngs, exchanged long delayed greetings as darkness fell on the city tonight.

The entire daylight program arranged for her majesty, Marie, queen of Rumania, who reached the city late in the afternoon, was carried out after dusk, except for the long automobile trip up Terwilliger Boulevard to Hill Vista. This part of the parade through Portland was abandoned when the queen told Samuel Hill that she could go no farther. She was too tired.

The royal party were guests of the state tonight at the Pacific International Horse Show where the queen applauded generously as the aristocrats of horsemanship competed for the honors.

BOY COMMITS SUICIDE

QUARREL WITH SCHOOL GIRL FRIEND LEADS TO ACT

MARSHFIELD, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Kenneth Noah, 18, shot and instantly killed himself at the home of his mother at Allegany, near here, today after, officials say, he had quarreled with his sweetheart, a 14 year old high school girl. Friends declare he was insistent in his proclamations of love to the girl, but that she admitted nothing more than friendship.

This morning it is said, Noah quarreled with the girl and her friend, and threatened to shoot them. The girls, frightened, ran from the house. Some time later the youth's body was found in his room.

Ashes near his body indicated that he had burned a note which he had evidently written to his mother, leaving only an envelope addressed to her.

ARMENIA FEELS QUAKE

ORPHANS ESCAPE INJURY AS WALLS TUMBLE

LENINAKAN, Armenia, Nov. 3. (AP)—Earth shocks coming on the heels of the recent heavy quakes in Armenia, yesterday and today, damaged the American orphanage at Severesky, a suburb of Leninakan.

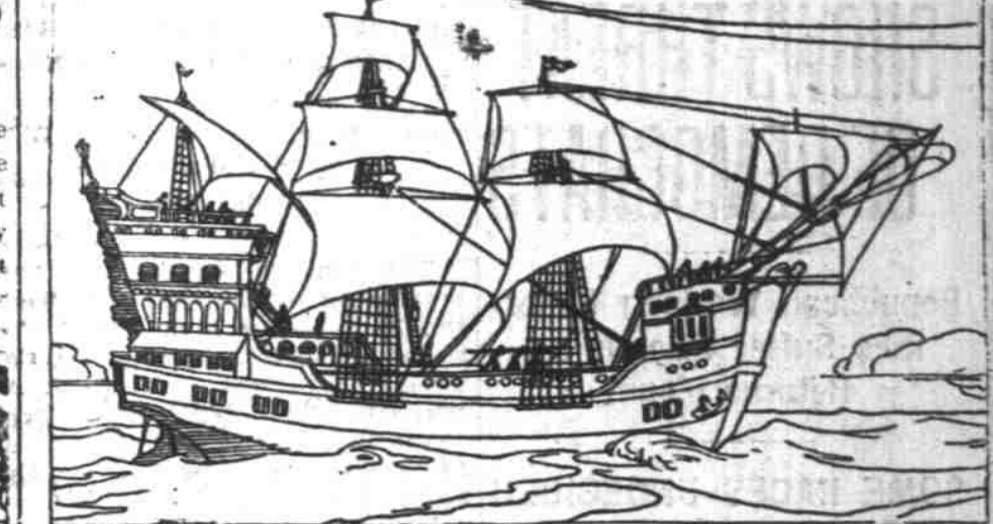

The children narrowly escaped injury from the walls which tumbled around them.

One of the workers, Dorothy Stratton of South Norwalk, Conn., led a group of blind and deaf and dumb children to safety.
