AUDED BUNCH

Pioneer Couple Are Honored by 250 Friends on 61st Anniversary of Marriage

The most festive home in Salem on Tuesday, November 2, was that of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker on Lincoln Hill, decked to receive 250 friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baker on the anniversary of their sixty-first wedding anniversary.

The living rooms were adorned with gorgeous baskets of gold, lavender, pink, and white pom-pom chrysanthemums, and other lovely flowers, all of which came as gifts from many friends.

Mrs. Baker, the honor guest, in black taffeta, and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, the hostess, in a frock of rosewood richly embroidered in pastel shades, in company with Mr. Baker, and three Salem matrons who attended the original wedding, received the guests. The three who have the distinction of having attended the wedding 61 years ago are: Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mrs. Mary Haas, and Mrs. A. M. Gilbert.

The hostess of the day was assisted throughout the rooms by Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, Miss Mabel Creighton, Mrs. F. W. Durbin, Mrs. E. E. Sisson, Mrs. John Caughill, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. W. A. Jones, Miss Alta Jones and Mrs. W. H. Dancy.

The dining room was as lovely as an enchanted garden with great bouquets of delphinium, chrysanthemums, and pink roses. The tea table was spread with canary yellow organdy, which was glistening and semi-transparent over the linen. The centerpiece was an elaborate arrangement of blue delphinium, golden chrysanthemums, and pink roses used brilliantly in a low bowl. Blue lighted candles gleamed in silver holders. Flowers similar to those of the table centerpiece were used on the side-board. A pleasing motif was introduced in the refreshments—the tea being monogrammed with the numeral "61".

Six prominent matrons were invited to preside at the tea table during calling hours. During the first hour Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. L. F. Griffith accepted the honor. From 3 to 4 their places were taken by Mrs. Henry W. Meyers and Mrs. Reuben P. Boise, and during the latter hour Mrs. Frank Snedecor and Mrs. R. E. Leo Steiner dispensed the hospitalities.

Mrs. J. A. Baker, who was Emma Frances Lamb before her marriage, is eighty-two years of age, while Mr. Baker is five years past his senior.

The wedding was solemnized in Salem at the home of Mrs. Strong, a house that stood on what is now a prominent business corner. In the sixty-one years since that time Mr. and Mrs. Baker have continued to make their home in Salem where they have gained countless friends. They are the parents of two sons, Edwin L. Baker and Claire Baker, both of Salem.

Mr. J. A. Baker crossed the plains to Oregon in '49. His is the distinction of being the oldest living Willamette University student. Mr. Baker was sheriff in this community for two terms.

MRS. BASSETT ALWAYS TIRED

Now in Good Health by Using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lansing, Mich.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound whenever I needed it. When I first used it I was so bad I could hardly walk across the room without crying. I was tired all the time. I think my trouble was coming on me for six months before I realized it. I read of your wonderful medicine in the paper, and my husband bought me a bottle, and after the first few doses I felt better, so kept on taking it until I was well and strong. I take it at times when I feel tired and it helps me. I will always have a good word for your medicine and tell anyone what good it has done me. I recommended it to my neighbor for her girl, who is sixteen years old, and it was just what she needed. She is feeling fine now, and goes to school every day."

—Mrs. E. F. Bassett, 215 South Hayward Avenue, Lansing, Michigan.
