

ADAMS' CAMPAIGN EXPENSES ARE $25

Several Accounts Filed in Secretary of State's Office Yesterday

W. P. Adams of Portland, independent, expended $25.78 in making his campaign, according to his expense account filed in the office of the secretary of state here yesterday.

Other candidates who filed expense accounts in the state department yesterday follow:

George M. Brown, republican candidate for justice of the state supreme court, $152.50; Herbert J. Elliott, republican-democratic candidate for state senator for the 9th senatorial district, $2; Al Price, democratic candidate for representative for the 16th district, $72.30, and D. C. Lewis, republican candidate for representative in the legislature for the 18th district, $7.50.

Respected Citizen Dies Here Following Accident

Ralph M. Cammack, son of Nathaniel and Jane Cammack, was born near Salem, Iowa, Dec. 2, 1866. He died at Salem, Oregon, Oct. 31, 1926, at the age of 59 years, 10 months and 29 days.

He is survived by his wife and children, who mourn his loss; also by seven brothers and four sisters, and a host of friends in various places.

He spent his boyhood days near Salem, Iowa, gaining his early education at Whittier academy. His later schooling was at the Iowa State Agricultural college. After leaving college he farmed in central Iowa for several years.

On June 6, 1902, he was united in marriage to Mary R. Stroud, daughter of William and Ruby Stroud. Shortly after the marriage they came to Oregon and made their home in Rosefield. In this home came three sons and three daughters, namely, Helen, Laura, Forrest William, Albert R. and Paul Stroud, and Esther Roby.

After coming to Oregon he taught the Rosefield school for a time, then devoted his attentions to his fruit ranch.

During his college days he found Christ as his Saviour, and as he continually walked in the light of the Word of God he experienced the work of sanctification. He was birthright and a faithful member of the Friends church, in which he labored to promote the cause of Christ. He was ready to fill his place, whether it meant to drop his work and with a concerned heart, in love for souls, go and speak to them about their spiritual welfare, or whether it meant sacrifice of time, money and strength. He faithfully filled his place as the spiritual director of his own household.

He was a devoted husband and a loving father—one who ardently loved home and never stayed away more than necessary. He was a man of strong convictions, standing firmly for what he believed to be right, yet with love for everyone. Among his last words were these: "I love everybody."

As a citizen of the community and as a business man he was honored and respected by all. He labored hard and never spared himself. He was always ready to help those who needed his assistance.

A valiant man has fallen! A great vacancy is left in his family, community and church, yet the memory of his righteous life is an incentive to press forward. That we too may "overcome by the Blood of the Lamb, and the word of our testimony," and enter into the eternal rest and peace of heaven as he has done.

SKINNY MEN This Beats Record

He Gained 28 Pounds in 8 Weeks—Good Solid Healthy Flesh, Too

In every town in America you can see skinny, scrawny men and women with deep hollows in cheeks, neck and chest who are more to be pitied than blamed.

Doctors, Chemists, Scientists all agree that Cod Liver Oil is full of flesh building, health promoting, strength increasing vitamins. They also agree and the whole world agrees with them that it is about the most evil smelling and nasty tasting, nauseating stuff that human beings come in contact with—its specific name is stomach.

But now all that is changed—Cod Liver Oil comes in tablet form, sugar coated and as easy to take as candy. J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry and druggists everywhere sell McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets with the distinct understanding that if any thin, lean underweight man or woman takes them for 30 days and does not gain at least 5 pounds, the purchase price will be returned.

GUN VICTIM SUCCUMBS DEATH TOLL TWO, FOLLOWING SHOOTING AFFRAY

ST. HELENS, Or., Nov. 4.—(AP)—Robert Casey died at the St. Helens hospital at 1 o'clock this morning, bringing the death toll of a mysterious gun battle in a lonely cabin in the Yankton district yesterday, to two. Fred Richards was almost instantly killed. Casey is alleged to have shot Richards and Frank Rice, and to have then turned the weapon on himself.

Despite the story of Rice to Sheriff Wellington and District Attorney Poote that Casey shot the other two men and then himself as the result of a quarrel over a woman, the officials are still investigating with the possible view that the trouble started over some liquor. The sheriff found 50 gallons of moonshine and 3500 gallons of mash at the place. Rice, who is shot through the chest, claims to have a wife at Castle Rock, Wash.

SHIP RESCUE PLANNED OIL TANKER LYING ON SIDE IN SHALLOW WATER

SAN PEDRO, Cal., Nov. 4.—(AP)—Efforts to float the Associated Oil tanker Solana which went aground in the fog last night midway between Point Arguete and Point Sal, 140 miles north of here, were being made at high tide tonight but with little chance of success. With a tide of only four and a half feet tonight, shipping men expect greater success in floating the tanker on tomorrow morning's six foot tide.

Only the oil in the forward tanks of the Solana was pumped out today, an attempt being made to save as much of the 67,000 barrels cargo as possible. The vessel is reported lying on her side with only 10 feet of water under her. The point at which she grounded is about 10 miles north of the position where seven destroyers went ashore several years ago.

KEYES STARTS MOVE TO FIND NEW EVIDENCE

ment is voted, Keys pointed out, Ormiston can be placed on trial along with the other defendants provided he has been taken into custody.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Wiseman, chief accuser of the pastor and co-defendant, was understood to have decided that before the trial begins in the higher court, she will go before that court, plead guilty and ask for leniency.

Mrs. Wiseman confessed that she perpetrated the Carmel hoax of the evangelist's disappearance case, but maintained that she was employed by Mrs. McPherson to manufacture the false evidence. In case she carries out her plans, she would appear at the trial only in the character of the state's star witness.

With the trial of Mrs. McPherson and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, on charges of conspiracy to defeat justice, preparing false evidence and subornation of perjury less than 60 days away, Keys launched a new move today to unearth new evidence to support his charge that the evangelist's kidnapping story was false in every respect, and that she left here in Ormiston's company instead of in the hands of abductors.

QUITS AS TRIAL LOOMS JUDGE ENGLISH RESIGNS; CHARGES MAY BE DROPPED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(AP)—George W. English, federal judge for the eastern district of Illinois, resigned today, six days before he was to have appeared before the senate for trial on charges of usurpation of power and other high misdemeanors.

Immediately afterwards, members of the house appointed to prosecute the case, agreed to recommend that the impeachment proceedings against him be dropped. They will appear before the senate, called to meet as a court next Wednesday, and ask that nothing be done until their recommendation can be placed before the full membership of the house in December. At that time steps to bring the drawn out battle to an official end are expected to be taken.

Famous Printer Sends Volumes to University

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 4.—(Special).—John Henry Nash, noted San Francisco printer, has presented the university with 17 volumes of his works, comprising the Nash collection in the library. The books were given through the school of journalism.

In addition to a rare collection of his own work, Mr. Nash has in his private library many old and precious volumes, part of which were brought to the university for exhibition during the Oregon State Newspapermen's conference last year. Mr. Nash was elected honorary lecturer of the faculty of the school of journalism last year and will give a course in advanced typography at the university in the spring.

Co-Eds Are Not Bohemian Says Mission Secretary

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 4.—(Special).—Charges that college girls of today are Bohemian in their contacts with society, in their social relationships; that they are not interested in home life, and that they believe in trial marriages are unfair, believes Mrs. Charles W. Williams, district secretary of the Pacific coast board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church, who addressed a group of girls on "Equipping in College for Future Service."

"The world, in speaking of young people, uses such all-inclusive, general language," she said. "One often hears the statement that youth over-evaluates itself. I youth over-evaluates itself as that it will under-rate its capacities to meet problems of later life. Society will be disappointed if young people fail to meet those tasks."

Campana for Good Meat Is Continuous Activity

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(AP)—The "good meat" campaign of the department of agriculture, began years ago, is one of the departmental activities of which officials never tire.

New ways constantly are being found to impress upon the public the necessity for surrounding the preparations of meat products with every sanitary safeguard.

A spotless model meat shop prepared under the department's direction, is a part of the Sesqui-centennial Exposition at Philadelphia. One of the placards says: "Meat bearing the federal inspection marks is the only food carrying the assurance of the United States government, through immediate supervision, that it is prepared under strictly sanitary conditions from animals good for food."

WOMAN RIDER INJURED MABLE STRICKLAND FALLS FROM MOUNT IN RODEO

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—(AP)—Mable Strickland, champion horsewoman, was seriously injured at the opening here tonight of the "world's series rodeo," when she lost her hold and fell under her mount. Physicians said her injuries may prove fatal.

Klamath county will build $20,000 jail.

TRU BAKE

Just Taste That Tru-Bake Flavor

and Note that Tru-Bake Shape

Two main reasons why Tru-Bakes ARE the ideal accompaniment of cocktails, soups, salads, breakfast foods:

The FLAVOR is the result of carefully blended flours, baked to a rich hickory brown and salted precisely right.

The shape fits the bite. Tru-Bakes nip off clean without shattering or scattering crumbs. A real contribution to daintier eating.

TONES that's the big thing

IT ALL comes down to tone, whether you are a distance fan or not. Even the "dyed-in-the-wool" DXer is not satisfied with distance if the reception is not good.

Tone quality is one of the big features of Splitdorf receivers. In all of our testing of many receivers, we never heard one that could equal the Splitdorf in tonal qualities when tuned for soft music or for tremendous volume on either nearby or distant stations.

The receiver shown is the SPLITDORF Model EV-580, costing $80—equipped for power tubes, has three vernier controls and Super-power Switch. The speaker is the SPLITDORF Model D which retails at $22.50. There are other Splitdorf models priced from $60 to $215.
