

STATE VOTE COUNT PRACTICALLY OVER

Steiner Has Lead of 7,513 Over Haney by Latest Figures Compiled

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—(AP).—With only 16 incomplete precincts out of 1843 in the state, the latest reports compiled by the Associated Press tonight give Frederick Steiner, republican, a lead of 7,513 votes over his democratic rival, Bert E. Haney, for a seat in the United States senate.

Returns from 1827 of the 1843 precincts in Oregon give Steiner 88,363, Haney 80,850, R. N. Stanfield, independent, 56,502, and W. F. Adams, independent, 3185.

L. L. Patterson, republican nominee for governor, defeated Walter M. Pierce, incumbent, democrat, by a margin of 26,717 votes, tonight's results indicate, with returns from 1818 precincts complete.

The returns give Patterson 118,426, Pierce 91,708, H. H. Stallard, independent, 13,732.

For state officers returns from 1827 precincts give:

Superintendent of public instruction: Charles A. Howard, republican, 127,641; R. R. Turner, democrat, 75,909.

Labor commissioner: C. H. Gram, republican, 146,978; G. A. Von Schantz, democrat, 47,073.

Public service commissioner: L. E. Bean, republican, 123,538; C. T. Spooner, democrat, 65,483.

LLOYD AS COLLEGE BOY BRINGS LAUGHS

"The Freshman" Is Hilarious Comedy Film Now Playing at Oregon

Harold Lloyd, the arch conspirator against sensitive spines and ticklish ribs, presents his highest contribution to the art of screen fun in "The Freshman," which was shown yesterday at the Oregon theatre to delighted audiences. It will also be presented today and Monday.

A story of college life, with himself the motivating factor "The Freshman" is probably the funniest thing Lloyd has done, which goes for "Grandma's Boy," "Safety Last," "Gip" and "Hot Water." Certainly it is his biggest production.

"The Freshman" is hilarious comedy, at times throwing the audience into hysterics with laughter, and every now and then causing them to wipe away an unexpected tear or two sprung from a fount of sympathy. The story is that of a freshman seeking the laurels of popular athletics, and taking his tips on college life from essays and motion pictures. He is made the college joke, but, nevertheless, the misguided youngster has real pluck and spirit. Although the butt of many a joke, Peggy, his landlady's daughter, remains constant. Eventually he learns the truth regarding his status in collegiate circles, but when he takes Peggy's sound advice to be himself and stop imitating others, he achieves his ideal.

A college dance provides 20 straight minutes of roars and a football game supplies the picture with a climax that is the funniest and at the same time the most exciting thing ever screened.

TRY THIS FOR A COLD - IT'S FINE!

"Pape's Cold Compound" ends severe colds or grippe in few hours

You can end a severe cold or grippe in a few hours by taking Pape's Cold Compound. It acts promptly upon clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharges or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only thirty-five cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.—Adv.

DOUG AS PIRATE TAKES AUDIENCE

Picture Entirely in Natural Colors and Is Fairbanks Best Play

The main reason for the tremendous pleasure which Douglas Fairbanks' pictures have given in the past is that Doug appeals strongly to that part of a man's mind that never grows up. In each of his stories he has been just what every small boy dreams of being, and these dreams never quite fade away as the small boys reach manhood.

His latest picture "The Black Pirate" which opened at the Elsinore theatre yesterday, catches this spirit to a degree never reached by him before. Pirates!—here's a word that takes you back to your boyhood days. Barred treasure! who wouldn't like to chuck all the petty things of life's daily grind to go in search of it? Small wonder, then, that Doug's new picture will act as a magnet for all the small boys from 7 to 70, that it will thrill them and send them away with a feeling that for two hours they have been living the kind of life they've always wanted to live.

There is much that is beautiful, much that is brave and thrilling and spectacular in "The Black Pirate." The picture is entirely in natural colors and you can easily imagine how lovely are the scenes showing the moon rippling over the water, the pirates thronging the decks and clambering up into the rigging and burying their treasure in the golden sands of the tropical island. As for bravery and thrills, the very thought of a man contending single-handed against two hundred cut-throats suggests them.

Bliss Dove is the heroine, and is the only woman in the picture except Tompe Pigott, who plays a minor role. Miss Dove seems well worth battling for in a spectacular adventure.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 82

While Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, knew that constipation was the curse of advancing age, he did not believe that "purge" or "physic" every little while was necessary.

To him, it seemed cruel that so many constipated old people had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to "regulate" the bowels of old folks. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but each dose helps to strengthen the bowel muscles, shortly establishing natural "regularity." It never gripes, sickens, or upsets the system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take.

If past fifty, buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself.—Adv.

FACULTY MEMBERS WRITE TWO BOOKS

Volumes to Appear in Spring Dealing With Newspaper Problems

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene.—(Special).—Two books by members of the university faculty, Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, and W. F. G. Thatcher, professor of advertising in the school of journalism, were announced for publication today by Alfred A. Knopf company.

Books are to be written by several other members of the university faculty, according to Paul B. Thomas, representative of Knopf company.

Dean Allen's book, "Printing and the Journalist," and Professor Thatcher's, "Advertising and the Newspaper," will be issued as part of the Borzol journalism handbooks. These volumes will probably appear in the spring.

Dealing with the art of printing from the standpoint of the newspaper, Dean Allen's work is written for "the young man, educated academically, who is beginning his professional career as a newspaper reporter." Prof. Thatcher's book is intended for the use of students, of young advertising men and women in the advertising departments of newspapers, and for the managers of small newspapers, who, through reading it, may supplement their own experience by suggestions as to the way the other men are doing it.

Acknowledgement is made by Dean Allen of help received from Albert Bede, editor of the Cottage Grove Sentinel, David Foulkes, mechanical superintendent of the Portland Oregonian, various printers in the office of the Oregon Journal and the San Francisco Chronicle, and Robert G. Hall, superintendent of the University of Oregon Press, and Paul E. Kelly, editor of the Eugene Guard.

"To many kindly men, who have been generous of their time and thought in helping in the undertaking," Professor Thatcher is indebted, he writes in the preface, and especially to "Jo" Davidson, of the Portland Oregonian, H. A. Bedau of the Oregon Journal, Robert C. Hall and Walter P. Burn, of the bureau of advertising, San Francisco branch, of the American Newspaper Publishers association.

VAUDEVILLE ACTS AT CAPITOL TODAY

"The Prince of Broadway" Will Be Film in Conjunction With Show

Sun's Eastern vaudeville, with five good acts, together with a feature picture, "The Prince of Broadway," will be the program offered at the Capitol theatre today.

The prize fight in "The Prince of Broadway," Chadwick's latest production starring George Walsh, is a real, honest-to-goodness battle, hard fought and supervised by the most popular men in the fight ring. Among the ring luminaries in the film are James J. Jeffries, Ad Wolgast, Bob Roper, Gene Delmont and Frank Genaro. The scenes are taken at the ranch home of the former world's heavyweight champion.

BOTANY EXHIBITS GIVEN UNIVERSITY

Collection Almost Complete Record of Flora in the Northwest

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene.—(Special).—A collection of books and pamphlets relating to botany, pictures, botanical specimens and manuscript of valuable research, amounting to approximately 1000 pieces, has been given to the botany department by the late Martin W. Gorman, who was until his death curator of the forestry building of Portland since its construction for the Lewis and Clark fair, in 1905, it was announced today.

This collection, together with those already on hand, gives the university an almost complete record of flora in the northwest.

Mr. Gorman was a close friend of L. H. Henderson, research fellow in botany and curator of the botany museum, and Albert R. Sweetser, head of the department.

Part of the books will be placed in the university library and part of the plants will be exchanged with other museums for others not already in stock. Most of the collection will be added to the botany library and herbarium.

This collection has been moved directly from the forestry building in Portland to the university.
