

Society

BY AUDRED BUNCH

Social Calendar

Miss Nye Will Become Bride on Sunday Afternoon

The marriage of Miss Lois Nye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Nye, to Leonard Satchwell of Portland, will be an attractive event of 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Nye will be attended by her sister, Miss Doris Nye, as maid of honor, while Stanley Satchwell will attend his brother as best man.

The ceremony will take place at the Nye home on Saginaw street.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Schwab of Centralia, and their children, Patricia Ann and Charles Allen, will arrive for the Satchwell-Nye wedding. Patricia Ann, who is a niece of the bride-elect, will be flower girl at the ceremony, while Charles Allen, Miss Nye's small nephew, will be ring bearer.

House Guest From Astoria

Mrs. H. B. Thielson is entertaining as her house guest Mrs. Erenham Van Dusen of Astoria. Mrs. Van Dusen will probably spend several weeks in Salem.

Little Light Bearers Will Hold Thanksgiving Party

The Little Light Bearers of the First Methodist church will hold a Thanksgiving party at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the church. Decorations will be in keeping with the festival.

Mrs. H. M. Durkheimer will receive the guests at the door. Mrs. J. B. Cray and Mrs. H. J. Ostlund will be in charge of the games, while the refreshment committee includes Mrs. C. M. Fuller, Mrs. P. W. Geisler, Mrs. Harold MacMillan and Mrs. Tripp.

A tableau, "Seven Little Raindrops," will be given by Mary Jo Geiser, Jean Hlickerson, Beverley Swart, Ruth Fargo, Vera Van Cleve, Esther Reddel, Marjorie Knox and Moore Cray.

A short play will be given in costume by a second group of children. In "Why Do You Smile," the play, Betty Abrams will be Little America and Lois Burton will be Child Life. The parts of different countries will be taken by Betty Fargo, as Africa; Luella De Harpor, as China; Annabelle Hooghyde, as Korea; Clarice Lane, as Japan; and Evangeline Millard and Iris Frederickson, as India.

Jeanette Maxwell will sing as a solo, "Jesus Bids Us Shine."

Jason Lee Central Circle

The central circle of the Jason Lee Methodist Aid society will meet Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. P. L. Frazier, 795 North Capitol street.

Film at First Congregational Church

"By Their Fruits" is the title of the moving picture to be used at the First Congregational church Sunday evening. This is the film story of a young business man, who thought he could build a business on other than straightforward dealing. It is a story of downfall and regeneration based on the words of Christ: "By Their Fruits Ye Shall Know Them."

Mrs. Barkus Entertains Leslie W. H. M. S.

Twenty-two members and friends of the Woman's Missionary society of Leslie Methodist church were entertained on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. T. Barkus. An interesting program was enjoyed. At the tea hour Mrs. Humphreys assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

Special guests for the meeting included Mrs. L. C. Marshall and little daughter, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Lowry, Mrs. Hatch and Mrs. Humphreys. Mrs. Humphreys and Mrs. Hatch both joined the society.

Members in the group included Rev. and Mrs. J. Willard De Yoe, Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mrs. Mulligan, Mrs. Hans Boxrud, Mrs. Bos Otjen and daughter, Mrs. E. A. Rhoten, Mrs. A. C. Bohmstedt, Mrs. John Bertelson, Mrs. Harry Lucas, Mrs. Charles Lucas, Mrs. F. W. Seles, Mrs. Harry Pearcy, Mrs. McShane and Mrs. Springer.

Young People's Class Is Organized

Officers were elected and a delicious banquet enjoyed by 45 members of the Young People's class of the First Christian church Wednesday evening. Mrs. Frank Zinn is teacher of the class.

Officers were chosen as follows: President, Howard Swartz; vice president, Vivian Oestreich; secretary, Marguerite Whitaker, and treasurer, Leo Gronke.

The banquet tables were beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, yellow lighted candles and attractive favors.

Special guests for the evening were Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Whitaker. Mr. Whitaker, Miss Vivian Whistler and Earl Brunk all gave appropriate talks during the evening. Miss Whistler led the music.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

State dinner of Business and Professional Women's clubs. Hotel Benton in Corvallis. Reservations, telephone Miss Purdy, 1555-W.

Salem Woman's club. Lecture by Prof. Edwin T. Hodge. Club house, 2:30 o'clock.

Kappa Alpha Theta meeting. Miss Edith Bragg, hostess. Bazaar and cooked food sale. Ladies Aid, society of MHI Street Methodist church, S. P. ticket office, 184 North Liberty street.

Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. No-hostess luncheon. Marion hotel, 12 o'clock.

Little Light Bearers. First Methodist church, 2:30 o'clock.

"By Their Fruits." Film at First Congregational church, 7:30 o'clock.

Wedding of Miss Lois Nye and Leonard Satchwell, 4 o'clock.

Byron D. Arnold in organ concert. Knight Memorial church, corner 19th and Ferry streets, 3:30 o'clock. Public invited.

Rebekah lodge homecoming. Fraternal temple, 6:30 o'clock.

Address on the European situation by Major C. A. Robertson. First Methodist church, 8 o'clock. Public invited.

Annual bazaar. Thursday Bridge Luncheon club. Bligh store, corner State and High streets. Noon.

Chicken dinner. Knight Memorial church, corner 19th and Ferry streets, 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock.

Writers' section of the Salem Arts' league. Prof. and Mrs. Morton E. Peck, 1458 Court street, hosts.

Annual bazaar. Thursday Bridge Luncheon club. Bligh store, corner State and High streets.

Central circle of Jason Lee Methodist Aid society. Mrs. F. L. Frazier, 795 North Capitol street, hostess, 2:30 o'clock.

Leslie W.F.M.S. Mrs. Hans Boxrud, 1220 North Summer street, hostess, 2:30 o'clock.

Bridge luncheon club bazaar. Bligh store, corner State and High streets.

Thursday Chapter G of the PEO Sisterhood. Mrs. C. B. McCullough, 651 South Church street, hostess.

ned by the young folk of the church.

Former European Military Attache Will Speak at Church

Major C. A. Robertson, concerning whom so many favorable comments are circulating, has been obtained to speak at a meeting on Monday evening, November 15, at the First Methodist church. All who have heard Major Robertson, as well as those who have long been awaiting an opportunity to hear his fascinating interpretation of European affairs, are cordially invited to be in the audience Monday evening. No admission will be charged.

It is interesting to know that Major Robertson speaks several foreign languages, including Russian, with fluency.

Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae

Alumnae of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority will be the guests this afternoon of Miss Edith Bragg at 1344 Ferry street.

House Guests From Arlington

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers had as their house guests over the past week-end Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Holden (Beulah Myers) and sons Robert and Walter, of Arlington, Oregon.

Special guests for the meeting included Mrs. L. C. Marshall and little daughter, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Lowry, Mrs. Hatch and Mrs. Humphreys. Mrs. Humphreys and Mrs. Hatch both joined the society.

Officers were elected and a delicious banquet enjoyed by 45 members of the Young People's class of the First Christian church Wednesday evening. Mrs. Frank Zinn is teacher of the class.

Officers were chosen as follows: President, Howard Swartz; vice president, Vivian Oestreich; secretary, Marguerite Whitaker, and treasurer, Leo Gronke.

The banquet tables were beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, yellow lighted candles and attractive favors.

Special guests for the evening were Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Whitaker. Mr. Whitaker, Miss Vivian Whistler and Earl Brunk all gave appropriate talks during the evening. Miss Whistler led the music.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

An active season, with many delightful social features is planned.

Members of Music Section Entertained at Zinn Home

The regular meeting of the music section of the Salem Arts' league was held Monday evening, November 8, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zinn, 2030 South Church street. The evening was spent in the study of various compositions, with papers read and selections given. The following program was given:

Piano solo, "Sonata Pathetique" Beethoven

Miss Louise Townsend. Paper on Hadyn, read by Mrs. Mudd.

Mendelssohn Mrs. Williams. Duet, "I Would That My Love" Mendelssohn

Prof. Seitz, Mr. Williams. Accompanied by Mrs. Williams. Paper Schumann

Read by Mrs. Lau. Piano solo, "Slumber Song" Schumann

Mrs. Zinn. Remarks and Songs of Robert Burns, given by Mrs. G. Ehsen.

Solo, (a) "Dreams" Wagner (b) "Heartbreak" Wagner

Prof. Seitz. Paper on Brahms, read by Mrs. Kells.

Solo, "Cradle Song" Brahms Mrs. Kells

Accompanied by Mrs. Smith. Solo, "Sapphic Ode" Brahms

Mrs. Lau. Accompanied by Prof. Seitz. Paper on MacDowell, read by Mrs. Harms.

Solo, "Frau Nightingale Sings Sweet" MacDowell

Mrs. Harms. Accompanied by Mrs. Zinn. A Synopsis of Greig, given by Miss Hall.

Piano solo, "Wedding Day at Troldhaugen" Greig

Played by Miss Evangeline Hall. Erotik Greig

A synopsis of Chaminade was given by Mrs. Smith.

Solo, "The Soldiers Betrothed"

Chaminade Mrs. Smith. Accompanied by Prof. Seitz. Paper on Hungarian Music and Korbay, read by Mrs. Seitz.

Songs of Korbay— (a) "Far and High Crane's Give Cry" (b) "Had a Horse" (c) "Long Ago When I Was Free"

Prof. R. W. Hans Seitz. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Zinn, at the conclusion of the program.

Hostesses for the next meeting, which will be held on Monday evening, November 22, at 8 o'clock, will be Mrs. Kells and Mrs. Loyal Warner. The meeting will be held at the Kells home on the corner of Leslie and Summer streets. The study of Mozart and his works will be taken up.

American Legion Auxiliary Initiates New Members

Ten new members recently initiated into the American Legion auxiliary include Mrs. W. J. Brazeau, Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. Gay Young, Mrs. D. W. Wickert, Mrs. A. C. Bishop, Mrs. Haddon Bond, Mrs. G. M. Flannery, Mrs. Jack Brady, Mrs. Southwick and Mrs. Lyle Dansmore.

Mrs. Gordon McCracken Will Be Guest at Twelve O'clock Luncheon

Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will sponsor a 12 o'clock no-hostess luncheon today at the Marion hotel honoring the state regent, Mrs. Gordon McCracken of Ashland, who will make her official inspection of the local chapter today.

Mrs. Roy H. Mills has charge of the reservations for the luncheon.

State Organizer Will Inspect P. E. O. Chapters Next Week

Mrs. Bodine, state organizer of the PEO, will be in Salem Thursday and Friday of next week to inspect chapters G and AB. On Thursday Mrs. Bodine will be the guest of Chapter G, and on Friday of Chapter AB.

At the regular meeting of Chapter AB on Monday a delightful group of dialect readings given by Mrs. John Reed was a feature. The members were entertained at Miss Lena Belle Tartar's studio as the guests of Miss May Rauch.

Mrs. Ray Smith had charge of the program.

Professor Hodge Will Speak Today at Meeting of Salem Woman's Club

"Evidences as to the Origin of Early Man in North America" is the topic which Prof. Edwin T. Hodge, instructor in geology at the University of Oregon, will consider at the meeting of the Salem Woman's club this afternoon at the club house.

Pupils of Dr. R. W. Hans Seitz will contribute the special music. A business meeting will precede the program.

State B. and P. W. Dinner in Corvallis

The state dinner of Business and Professional Women's clubs of Oregon is to take place in Corvallis Saturday evening, delegates to come from over the state for the banquet at 7 o'clock at Hotel Benton. Miss Margaret Fleming of Portland, state president, will be the guest of honor, and other state officers and presidents of the various state clubs are making plans to visit Corvallis that evening.

Delegates from Portland, Salem, Eugene, Albany and other nearby points will confer and discuss state business at the executive meeting to follow the banquet. Presidents of the clubs are included as members of the executive board, composed of 25 Oregon's leading club women.

Miss Effie Smith, president of the local club, is to preside at the banquet and a number of the local members will attend and welcome the visitors. Plans for the state convention to convene in Corvallis next spring will be discussed at this gathering.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Mrs. Moorhead Is Guest From Sisters

Mrs. G. R. Moorhead, who recently left Salem to make her home in Sisters, Or., is spending the week-end in Salem as the guest of relatives and friends. Mrs. Moorhead made the trip over the McKenzie Pass by automobile, which is somewhat unusual at this season of the year. Mrs. Moorhead is spending the greater part of her time as the guest of her son, Dan, and his family.

Last night Mrs. Moorhead was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barkus. Additional guests

Chaminade

Mrs. Smith. Accompanied by Prof. Seitz. Paper on Hungarian Music and Korbay, read by Mrs. Seitz.

Songs of Korbay— (a) "Far and High Crane's Give Cry" (b) "Had a Horse" (c) "Long Ago When I Was Free"

Prof. R. W. Hans Seitz. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Zinn, at the conclusion of the program.

Hostesses for the next meeting, which will be held on Monday evening, November 22, at 8 o'clock, will be Mrs. Kells and Mrs. Loyal Warner. The meeting will be held at the Kells home on the corner of Leslie and Summer streets. The study of Mozart and his works will be taken up.

American Legion Auxiliary Initiates New Members

Ten new members recently initiated into the American Legion auxiliary include Mrs. W. J. Brazeau, Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. Gay Young, Mrs. D. W. Wickert, Mrs. A. C. Bishop, Mrs. Haddon Bond, Mrs. G. M. Flannery, Mrs. Jack Brady, Mrs. Southwick and Mrs. Lyle Dansmore.

Mrs. Gordon McCracken Will Be Guest at Twelve O'clock Luncheon

Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will sponsor a 12 o'clock no-hostess luncheon today at the Marion hotel honoring the state regent, Mrs. Gordon McCracken of Ashland, who will make her official inspection of the local chapter today.

Mrs. Roy H. Mills has charge of the reservations for the luncheon.

State Organizer Will Inspect P. E. O. Chapters Next Week

Mrs. Bodine, state organizer of the PEO, will be in Salem Thursday and Friday of next week to inspect chapters G and AB. On Thursday Mrs. Bodine will be the guest of Chapter G, and on Friday of Chapter AB.

At the regular meeting of Chapter AB on Monday a delightful group of dialect readings given by Mrs. John Reed was a feature. The members were entertained at Miss Lena Belle Tartar's studio as the guests of Miss May Rauch.

Mrs. Ray Smith had charge of the program.

Professor Hodge Will Speak Today at Meeting of Salem Woman's Club

"Evidences as to the Origin of Early Man in North America" is the topic which Prof. Edwin T. Hodge, instructor in geology at the University of Oregon, will consider at the meeting of the Salem Woman's club this afternoon at the club house.

Pupils of Dr. R. W. Hans Seitz will contribute the special music. A business meeting will precede the program.

State B. and P. W. Dinner in Corvallis

The state dinner of Business and Professional Women's clubs of Oregon is to take place in Corvallis Saturday evening, delegates to come from over the state for the banquet at 7 o'clock at Hotel Benton. Miss Margaret Fleming of Portland, state president, will be the guest of honor, and other state officers and presidents of the various state clubs are making plans to visit Corvallis that evening.

Delegates from Portland, Salem, Eugene, Albany and other nearby points will confer and discuss state business at the executive meeting to follow the banquet. Presidents of the clubs are included as members of the executive board, composed of 25 Oregon's leading club women.

Miss Effie Smith, president of the local club, is to preside at the banquet and a number of the local members will attend and welcome the visitors. Plans for the state convention to convene in Corvallis next spring will be discussed at this gathering.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Mrs. Moorhead Is Guest From Sisters

Mrs. G. R. Moorhead, who recently left Salem to make her home in Sisters, Or., is spending the week-end in Salem as the guest of relatives and friends. Mrs. Moorhead made the trip over the McKenzie Pass by automobile, which is somewhat unusual at this season of the year. Mrs. Moorhead is spending the greater part of her time as the guest of her son, Dan, and his family.

Last night Mrs. Moorhead was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barkus. Additional guests

Chaminade

Mrs. Smith. Accompanied by Prof. Seitz. Paper on Hungarian Music and Korbay, read by Mrs. Seitz.

Songs of Korbay— (a) "Far and High Crane's Give Cry" (b) "Had a Horse" (c) "Long Ago When I Was Free"

Prof. R. W. Hans Seitz. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Zinn, at the conclusion of the program.

Hostesses for the next meeting, which will be held on Monday evening, November 22, at 8 o'clock, will be Mrs. Kells and Mrs. Loyal Warner. The meeting will be held at the Kells home on the corner of Leslie and Summer streets. The study of Mozart and his works will be taken up.

American Legion Auxiliary Initiates New Members

Ten new members recently initiated into the American Legion auxiliary include Mrs. W. J. Brazeau, Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. Gay Young, Mrs. D. W. Wickert, Mrs. A. C. Bishop, Mrs. Haddon Bond, Mrs. G. M. Flannery, Mrs. Jack Brady, Mrs. Southwick and Mrs. Lyle Dansmore.

Mrs. Gordon McCracken Will Be Guest at Twelve O'clock Luncheon

Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will sponsor a 12 o'clock no-hostess luncheon today at the Marion hotel honoring the state regent, Mrs. Gordon McCracken of Ashland, who will make her official inspection of the local chapter today.

Mrs. Roy H. Mills has charge of the reservations for the luncheon.

State Organizer Will Inspect P. E. O. Chapters Next Week

Mrs. Bodine, state organizer of the PEO, will be in Salem Thursday and Friday of next week to inspect chapters G and AB. On Thursday Mrs. Bodine will be the guest of Chapter G, and on Friday of Chapter AB.

At the regular meeting of Chapter AB on Monday a delightful group of dialect readings given by Mrs. John Reed was a feature. The members were entertained at Miss Lena Belle Tartar's studio as the guests of Miss May Rauch.

Mrs. Ray Smith had charge of the program.

Professor Hodge Will Speak Today at Meeting of Salem Woman's Club

"Evidences as to the Origin of Early Man in North America" is the topic which Prof. Edwin T. Hodge, instructor in geology at the University of Oregon, will consider at the meeting of the Salem Woman's club this afternoon at the club house.

Pupils of Dr. R. W. Hans Seitz will contribute the special music. A business meeting will precede the program.

State B. and P. W. Dinner in Corvallis

The state dinner of Business and Professional Women's clubs of Oregon is to take place in Corvallis Saturday evening, delegates to come from over the state for the banquet at 7 o'clock at Hotel Benton. Miss Margaret Fleming of Portland, state president, will be the guest of honor, and other state officers and presidents of the various state clubs are making plans to visit Corvallis that evening.

Delegates from Portland, Salem, Eugene, Albany and other nearby points will confer and discuss state business at the executive meeting to follow the banquet. Presidents of the clubs are included as members of the executive board, composed of 25 Oregon's leading club women.

Miss Effie Smith, president of the local club, is to preside at the banquet and a number of the local members will attend and welcome the visitors. Plans for the state convention to convene in Corvallis next spring will be discussed at this gathering.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Mrs. Moorhead Is Guest From Sisters

Mrs. G. R. Moorhead, who recently left Salem to make her home in Sisters, Or., is spending the week-end in Salem as the guest of relatives and friends. Mrs. Moorhead made the trip over the McKenzie Pass by automobile, which is somewhat unusual at this season of the year. Mrs. Moorhead is spending the greater part of her time as the guest of her son, Dan, and his family.

Last night Mrs. Moorhead was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barkus. Additional guests

Chaminade

Mrs. Smith. Accompanied by Prof. Seitz. Paper on Hungarian Music and Korbay, read by Mrs. Seitz.

Songs of Korbay— (a) "Far and High Crane's Give Cry" (b) "Had a Horse" (c) "Long Ago When I Was Free"

Prof. R. W. Hans Seitz. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Zinn, at the conclusion of the program.

Hostesses for the next meeting, which will be held on Monday evening, November 22, at 8 o'clock, will be Mrs. Kells and Mrs. Loyal Warner. The meeting will be held at the Kells home on the corner of Leslie and Summer streets. The study of Mozart and his works will be taken up.

American Legion Auxiliary Initiates New Members

Ten new members recently initiated into the American Legion auxiliary include Mrs. W. J. Brazeau, Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. Gay Young, Mrs. D. W. Wickert, Mrs. A. C. Bishop, Mrs. Haddon Bond, Mrs. G. M. Flannery, Mrs. Jack Brady, Mrs. Southwick and Mrs. Lyle Dansmore.

Mrs. Gordon McCracken Will Be Guest at Twelve O'clock Luncheon

Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will sponsor a 12 o'clock no-hostess luncheon today at the Marion hotel honoring the state regent, Mrs. Gordon McCracken of Ashland, who will make her official inspection of the local chapter today.

Mrs. Roy H. Mills has charge of the reservations for the luncheon.

State Organizer Will Inspect P. E. O. Chapters Next Week

Mrs. Bodine, state organizer of the PEO, will be in Salem Thursday and Friday of next week to inspect chapters G and AB. On Thursday Mrs. Bodine will be the guest of Chapter G, and on Friday of Chapter AB.

At the regular meeting of Chapter AB on Monday a delightful group of dialect readings given by Mrs. John Reed was a feature. The members were entertained at Miss Lena Belle Tartar's studio as the guests of Miss May Rauch.

Mrs. Ray Smith had charge of the program.

Professor Hodge Will Speak Today at Meeting of Salem Woman's Club

"Evidences as to the Origin of Early Man in North America" is the topic which Prof. Edwin T. Hodge, instructor in geology at the University of Oregon, will consider at the meeting of the Salem Woman's club this afternoon at the club house.

Pupils of Dr. R. W. Hans Seitz will contribute the special music. A business meeting will precede the program.

State B. and P. W. Dinner in Corvallis

The state dinner of Business and Professional Women's clubs of Oregon is to take place in Corvallis Saturday evening, delegates to come from over the state for the banquet at 7 o'clock at Hotel Benton. Miss Margaret Fleming of Portland, state president, will be the guest of honor, and other state officers and presidents of the various state clubs are making plans to visit Corvallis that evening.

Delegates from Portland, Salem, Eugene, Albany and other nearby points will confer and discuss state business at the executive meeting to follow the banquet. Presidents of the clubs are included as members of the executive board, composed of 25 Oregon's leading club women.

Miss Effie Smith, president of the local club, is to preside at the banquet and a number of the local members will attend and welcome the visitors. Plans for the state convention to convene in Corvallis next spring will be discussed at this gathering.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Mrs. Moorhead Is Guest From Sisters

Mrs. G. R. Moorhead, who recently left Salem to make her home in Sisters, Or., is spending the week-end in Salem as the guest of relatives and friends. Mrs. Moorhead made the trip over the McKenzie Pass by automobile, which is somewhat unusual at this season of the year. Mrs. Moorhead is spending the greater part of her time as the guest of her son, Dan, and his family.