Read of Other Women Who Found Health

Brooklyn, New York.—Mrs. G. Hegmann of 35 Central Ave., was in a run-down condition and could not do her housework. She could not sleep at night. Her story is not an unusual one. Thousands of women find themselves in a similar condition at some time in their lives. "I found your advertisement in my letter box," wrote Mrs. Hegmann, "and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got relief." Mrs. Hegmann also took Lydia E. Pinkham's Herb Medicine and Lydia E. Pinkham's Pills for Constipation, with good results. She says, "I am recommending your medicines to all I know who have symptoms the same as mine, and to others whom I think it will help. You may use my statement as a testimonial, and I will answer any letters sent to me by women who would like information regarding your medicines."

There are women in your state—perhaps in your town—who have written letters similar to this one telling how much Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped them.

Twenty New Names Are Added to Salem Woman's Club Roster

Business of a varied nature occupied members of the Salem Woman's club at their first November meeting held on Saturday at the club house.

Mrs. W. E. Crews requested that the Americanization committee take upon itself the special responsibility of sponsoring Dr. F. G. Franklin's authoritative class on "World Affairs."

Mrs. Frank Spears announced the "tag day" sale which Salem will sponsor in the interest of the Fine Arts Memorial building for the state as a whole. Salem's pledged quota is $1,000.

Mrs. H. Duncan Chambers was appointed to succeed Mrs. A. M. Chapman, head of the American citizenship department, who has gone to Vancouver to make her home.

Book week, according to an announcement made at Saturday's meeting, will not be held until the first of December. At this time Miss Maude Covington will arrange an exhibit and give a talk. Mrs. V. E. Kuhn was in charge of the club house decorations which were particularly attractive.

The speaker of the afternoon, Dr. Edwin T. Hodge, of the University of Oregon, who spoke on the geologic evidences for evolution, was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hamilton during his stay in Salem.

The following 20 new members have been admitted to the club since the beginning of Mrs. C. F. Hamilton's administration: Mrs. Frank Power, Mrs. Clara E. Mc Lure, Mrs. Edward Minton, Mrs. F. A. Mr. and Mrs. Southwick Are Honored With Surprise on 35th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Burnum Southwick were delightfully surprised on last Thursday evening at their home on the Orchard Heights road, the occasion being their 35th wedding anniversary. The honor guests had gone to the home of their brother, A. R. Southwick, to spend the evening, thus affording friends and neighbors an opportunity to invade the home and conceal themselves, after disposing of their automobiles at the home of a neighbor.

An enjoyable evening was spent, with a mock wedding a feature. The mock ceremony was read by Fred Gibson. Oliver Wait gave his sister away, while Susie De Lap was the bridesmaid and Joe De Lap was best man. Irene Knower and Dorothy Southwick were flower girls, while little Milton Southwick was train bearer.

The quartet of the Corvallis Business and Professional Women's clubs gave special musical numbers. Other musicians were also featured.

After the dinner the group adjourned to a nearby room for the business meeting. Miss Beyler, president of the Astoria club, is working toward the organization of a caravan to make the trip to Oakland, Cal. for the state convention next July. The caravan will pass through each town in which the business and professional women are organized to meet

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce will make their home at the Benton hotel. The article follows:

Justice McBride is 79 years of age and in commenting on the fact, Lawrence T. Harris, a former associate of Mr. McBride on the supreme bench, stated that the guest of honor was here under the provisional government of Oregon, under the territorial government, and finally under its state government.
