Five prominent women of Salem who are taking an active part in the campaign to raise funds for the first wing of the proposed Fine Arts Memorial Building which will be erected in Eugene to house the priceless Murray-Warner collection of Oriental art, which belongs to the people of Oregon, with the University of Oregon chosen as custodian. The committee, of which the above group is a nucleus, has chosen a tag sale on Saturday of this week as the first means of raising the $1000 which Salem has pledged. An additional means will be a silver tea on December 6. Upper left: Mrs. Clifford W. Brown, chairman of the committee; upper right: Mrs. T. A. Livesley; center: Mrs. W. Connell Dyer; lower left: Mrs. Chester M. Cox, and lower right: Mrs. W. Carlton Smith.

WOMANHOOD

She's not thus,
But selfless; and I've dreamed of others—tall,
Warm-flushed like pine-woods with their clear red stems,
With massy hair and voices like the wind
Stirring the cool dark silence of the pines.
Know you such women?—beckoning hill-top women,
That sway to you with lovely gifts of shade
And slumber, and deep peace...

President and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall Will Meet Salem Friends at Silver Tea

Salem women in general, and those who claim the University of Oregon as their Alma Mater, in particular, will welcome the news that President and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall of Eugene will be the guests of honor at a large silver tea which will be sponsored in Salem on Monday, Dec. 6. Proceeds from the affair will go to the $150,000 Fine Arts Memorial building.

Dr. Hall is the new president of the University of Oregon and will be honored by the chamber of commerce at luncheon on the day of the tea.

Plans for the silver tea were tentatively formulated at an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the Marion hotel of the American Association of University Women. The information came to light through the Salem Woman's club, was communicated through the American Association of University Women, and was gratefully received by the local Fine Arts building committee that President Hall would have leisure to meet all friends of the university on the afternoon designated.

While complete committees have not been named, Mrs. Clifford W. Brown of the Fine Arts Memorial building, Mrs. Clarence S. Hamilton of the Salem Woman's club, and Mrs. J. H. Lauterman of the American Association of University Women will be in general charge of the event.

At yesterday's meeting of the university women Mrs. George T. Gerlinger of Portland was present and spoke in the interest of the new Memorial building. Preliminary to the city-wide tag sale, which will take place on Saturday of this week, tags were distributed yesterday among volunteers.

Priscilla Club Celebrates Twentieth Anniversary of Founding at Meeting

Important in the social calendar for the past week was the celebration of the 20th anniversary of the founding of the Priscilla club with a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. Walter F. Buckner.

The luncheon table and the rooms where, during the afternoon, bridge was in play were exceedingly lovely with baskets of pink chrysanthemums.

Miss Priscilla Fry, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, congratulated the club on the completion of two decades of successful meetings, in a letter from Los Angeles sent by air mail. Miss Fry, who is a student at the Westlake junior college for girls, was a tiny girl in arms when the charter members of the present Priscilla club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Steusloff on November 18, 1906, to organize and select a name. It was the little girl's name which was chosen.

The six charter members of the club, who have enjoyed its meetings for 20 consecutive years, are Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., Mrs. Fred Steusloff, Mrs. A. L. Brown, Mrs. W. S. Mott, Mrs. Ida Babcock and Mrs. A. T. Wain.

A group of special guests were present on Thursday for the anniversary meeting at which Mrs. George Crater won the high bridge score of the afternoon. These included Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. A. F. Hussey, Mrs. Wayne Greenwood, Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. George Crater, Miss Sawtelle, Mrs. Walter J. Kirk, Mrs. T. H. Galloway, Mrs. F. E. Shafer and Mrs. F. N. Derby.

In addition luncheon covers were placed for the following club members: Mrs. D. J. Fry, Sr., Mrs. F. W. Steusloff, Mrs. A. L. Brown, Mrs. A. T. Wain, Mrs. Ida Babcock, Mrs. W. S. Scott, Mrs. J. B. Craig, Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mrs. George Dunford, Mrs. Kitty Graver and the hostess, Mrs. Walter F. Buckner.

Ukrainian National Chorus Will Sing in Salem on December Ninth

It must be that poetry begets poetry, that beauty inspires beauty. Thus only may be explained the rhapsodic bursts of enthusiasm in which the press of both Europe and America has indulged in its efforts to voice the wonders and almost expressible charm of the Ukrainian National Chorus, which is now about to start on its third pilgrimage through the United States, after years of triumphs in this country, Mexico and South America, under the eminent conductor, Alexander Koshetz, who has proved a very wizard with the baton.

The music of the Ukrainian, as sung by this marvelous choir of men and women, has brought to thousands undreamed of emotions, strange new visions. Its songs are of the early pagan Ukraine, as well as of the later Christian era; then of the Tartar period, and then of the Cossack government which was the golden age of the Ukraine, and finally of
