

FIGHTERS AWAIT OPENING GONGS

Fisher in Excellent Condition, Has Over 300 Ring Engagements

Willamette Valley fight fans will tonight have a special dish of 32 rounds of snappy glove slinging awaiting them at the Armory when the gong sounds at 8 o'clock.

The star bouters will be Bud Fisher, of Oakland, Cal., and Eddie Richards of Portland. These big boys will stir the scales at 162 pounds and at the close of training are both in condition for a hard mill.

Richards may be Portland's favorite and has been making quite a fuss in his efforts to get a championship title for his weight but Bud Fisher has made quite a few friends in Salem during his stay here and there are quite a few who predict that he will at least hold Richards if he does not punch him through the ropes.

Eddie has handled a few hot potatoes himself during his 15 years of battling. Of the 300 fights he has heard the gong on, may be mentioned defeats of Battling Ortega and Sailor Needham. Ortega was rated the world's hardest fighting Mexican and was credited as being a real general of the squared ropes.

In the concluding workouts at the Armory last night, Al Sharp, Salem painter, appeared to be in good condition for his affair with the Manila Tiger, of Portland. In eight fights at San Francisco and other coast points, Sharp is credited with four knock-outs, one decision, two draws with one loss on a technical knock-out.

Of preliminaries No. 4 and 5, Harry Plant reports that Loren Watts and Kid Hoggerhede as well as Red Wittercraft and Kid Brown are ready to make their respective attempts for fame and glory.

If a partner can be secured for him, Johnnie Walker, 18, a Salem lad, will be presented to the fight crowd for his first appearance under the big light. Jimmie Moore, of Stayton has agreed to meet Walker at 127 pounds.

Tonight's events will be refereed by Dubs Mulkey, who is well known here as a fair and square arbiter of the rules of canvas and glove. Judges will be Cuyler Van Patten, local contractor and John Orr, former sheriff of Polk county.

CHICAGO PREPARES FOR GRID CONTEST

Army and Navy Football Draws Thousands to Windy City

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—(AP)—The 2,970,000 Chicagoans who cannot get tickets to the Army-Navy football game at Soldier's field Saturday jointed the lucky 10,000 today in preparations for receiving the city's military guests.

Thirty thousand is a generous estimate of Chicago's share of the 100,000 who will see the game, for only 40,000 seats were available to the general public after the service contingents got their shares and a good many of these went to members of congress and persons out of Chicago.

Even the sod of the gridiron on which the teams will tangle had a face lifted for the occasion, and was protected today by a huge

GRID FOES MEET ON THANKSGIVING

Interest Focused on Unbeaten Team of Brown That Plays Colgate

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Lighting the gridiron sky in a farewell flash of ancient rivalry, old foes of the eastern football arena will battle in five colorful closing games Thursday.

With the midwest claiming the Army-Navy classic, for the first time, football followers in the east will see the campaign virtually ended in Thanksgiving day struggles between Columbia and Syracuse, Pennsylvania and Cornell, Pittsburgh and Penn State, West Virginia and Washington and Jefferson, Brown and Colgate. Another pair of traditional rivals meet Saturday when Holy Cross clashes with Boston College.

Interest will be focused in the attempt of unbeaten Brown to smash through Colgate for a record of 10 straight victories and a strong claim on eastern as well as national honors.

Green Concludes Work, Ready for Dexter Bout

Russ Green, Salem fist trader, will tonight undergo one of the sternest tests of his 12 months' active fighting when he meets Young Dexter in the semi-final at the armory.

Although just past 18 years of age, Green has developed a slugging style that has earned him nine knockouts in 11 fights. He has only lost one bout, that being a technical knockout to Shadow Gretz about a year ago.

Green has been receiving a stiff routine of training at the hands of Bill Kilpatrick who predicts that Green will continue to convince the fans that he is on the road to better and bigger fights and lots of them.

Green and Dexter will weigh in at about 128 pounds.

TWO BASKETBALL GAMES FOR TODAY

Paper Company Leads With Two Victories, DeMolay and DeHarports Next

Commercial League Standings	W.	L.	Pct.
Paper Company	4	0	1.000
De Molay	1	0	1.000
De Harports	1	0	1.000
Salem Navigation	0	1	.000
U. S. Bankers	0	1	.000
Cooley-Pearson	0	2	.000

Two games will be played tonight at the YMCA gymnasium in the commercial basketball league. The De Molays and De Harports will meet at 8:30 o'clock and the U. S. Bankers will play the Salem Navigation team at 9:30.

A hot battle is expected in the De Molay-De Harport game. Neither team has been defeated and both are strong aggregations. The De Harport team is composed of the same players who made up a team in last year's league and have a smooth-working machine. The De Molays showed plenty of speed and accuracy in hitting the basket in their first game last week and are doped to make an even battle of the game tonight.

LATE SPORTS

PORTLAND, Nov. 23.—(AP)—A 10-round fight between George Godfrey of New York and Bearcat Wright, Omaha, was stopped in the tenth round by the referee here tonight and called "no contest."

Ralph Gruman, referee, made a statement from the ring in which he said he had disqualified Godfrey for not trying. He made no mention of Wright's status. Both men are negro heavyweights.

When Gruman stopped the fight in the tenth round Godfrey, in the opinion of newspaper men, had outpointed his opponent in every period but the eighth, slapping him with light lefts and rights to the face and head and sinking a score or more of hard smashes to the body for the first five rounds.

The semi-windup on the bill ended a few seconds after the bell for the opening round when Johnny Trambitas of Portland fouled Johnny Jordan of Tacoma.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Babe Herman of New York defeated Benny Bass, of Philadelphia, in the main bout of a boxing show here tonight. Herman received the referee's decision after 12 rounds. Bass weighed 126 3-4 pounds and Herman 128 3-4. Herman, wielding a heavy right, outfought Bass and took the decision by a substantial margin.

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Tiny Herman, Portland, Ore., heavy weight, knocked out Earl Ritchie in the third round of a scheduled ten round fight here tonight.

Tim Callahan of Portland knocked out Cal Herman in the second round of the semi-windup.

SPOKANE, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Orville Darr, Spokane light heavy-weight won a six round decision over Joe Starr, Toronto, in the main event of the Spokane Athletic club bouts here tonight.

Sam Bernstein, San Diego, won a technical knockout over Ralph Moore, Eugene, Ore., lightweight, in the fifth round.

Seek Protection Against Selling Worthless Stock

David H. Jennings of Indiana, secretary of the national association of securities commissioners, has written a letter to W. E. Crews, corporation commissioner for the state of Oregon, requesting any information that would result in placing the sale of stocks and securities on a more satisfactory basis.

Mr. Jennings is a member of the legislative committee of the national association which is now preparing proposed federal laws protecting the public against the purchase of worthless securities.

Aggies Ready for Game With Marquette Eleven

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Twenty-five strong, the Oregon Aggie football squad invaded Milwaukee tonight for Thursday's inter-sectional game with the Marquette university eleven.

Jule Carlson, guard on the Oregon aggregation learned on the train this afternoon that his mother had died in The Dalles, Ore., today.

The Aggies one of the heaviest teams Oregon has ever produced had 30 minute workout today at St. Paul, and Wabasha, Minn., and Portage, Wis. They will drill tomorrow at the Marquette stadium. Several changes were made in the Marquette lineup today, as Coach Frank Murray put his team through an offensive dummy scrimmage.
