

INDIANS BURIAL GROUND PRESERVED

Island Sacred to Red Men for Long Time, Set Aside by Government

YAKIMA, Wash. — (AP) — Memorial Island in the Columbia river, burial ground for western Indians for uncounted generations and particularly sacred to the Yakimas, has been set aside by the government as a Red Man's city of the dead.

Since the days when thousands of Indians from western plains and mountains made annual pilgrimages to the fishing grounds of The Dalles and the "tam-water" of the Columbia, bringing their dead with them, the island has been a holy ground for the aborigines. Formerly it was covered with large "dead houses," built of cedar, on the shelves of which reposed the mummified bodies of the red men.

Sinew-wrapped bows and stone-tipped arrows were deposited with some of the older remains, and more modern weapons with some of the more recent.

BLIGH'S CAPITOL TODAY, SATURDAY

Sun's Eastern Vaudeville and Feature Pictures to Be Presented

Sun's Eastern Vaudeville and Feature Pictures will be at Bligh's Capitol theatre Saturday and Sunday, headlining the vaudeville of Lamont & Jemery, not the worst, not the best, but something different from the rest. They are two of the cleverest young men you have seen for some time. One of them is a wonderful female impersonator with arms that fairly write themselves into bow-knots, while the other young man is double voiced doing a baritone and soprano duet, with the aid of the double voice and an old sun-bonnet. This is a clever surprise act. Both La Mont and Jemery are artists, who understand the advantages of presenting a surprise act, and this enhances the value of what is already a very pleasing appearance. They have personalities that win the hearts of their audiences from the beginning.

Also Percy Chapman and Elsie Ring are to appear in a musical comedy breeze. Their act consists of comedy talk, singing, hand-saw and guitar music. Miss Ring, a graduate of the Ziegfeld Follies, has also appeared in several pictures. Chapman and Ring provoke much laughter with their comedy talk and singing skit.

Also the Trella company, a two men and one lady will appear in a sensational European novelty bicycle act.

Also Gordon & Ray will appear in comedy bits in variety. This act finds two boys in an offering which combines nearly everything in the way of comedy, dancing,

PUBLIC LIBRARY GETS NEW BOOKS

During the past week about 25 books have been added to the list at the Salem public library, according to a report from the city librarian. Of this number four are listed as children's books. The complete list follows:

"Sorrell and Sen," by Warwick Deering; "Twenty Years After," by Alexander Dumas; "The Middle of the Road," by Philip Gibbs; "Cape Cod Folks," by S. P. M. Greene; "The Indian Drum," by MacHarg & Balmer; "Emmy Lou, Her Book and Heart," by G. M. Martin; "Miss Tiverton Goes Out," and "The Battle of the Weak," by Hilda Vaughan; "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," by Jules Verne; "Daddy Longlegs," by Jean Webster; "Dear Enemy," by Jean Webster; "A History of American Immigration," by G. M. Stephenson; "Myths and Legends of Flowers, Fruits, Trees and Plants," by R. V. G. Woolley; "A Thousand and One Nights of Opera," by F. H. Martens; "Poems From Old Champagne," by C. F. Blake; Short Plays by representative authors, A. M. Smith; "Sea Wake and Jungle Trail," by Warrington Smyth; "Our Presidents and their Mothers," by W. J. Ham-ton.

The following children's books were added: "Toby Taylor of Ten Weeks With a Circus," by J. C. Kaler; "The White Leader," by C. L. Skinner; "Undine," by La-Motte Fouquet; "Great Moments in Science," by M. F. Lansing.

JUDGE OVERRULES SMALL'S DEMURRER

Demurrers to the complaint of J. K. Sears, interposed by Brazier Small, justice of the peace, were yesterday overruled by Judge G. F. Skipworth of Eugene. Twenty days are given for an answer to be filed.

The overruling was done at the instigation of L. H. McMahan, circuit judge, who believes the justices of the peace receive fees while they are not authorized by statute to receive. Justice Small said yesterday that he will probably file some answer within the 20 days, as two or three courses are open to him.

A bill which is expected to come up at the next legislature to abolish justices of the peace in county seats and substitute district judges to serve on flat salaries, will probably do away with the necessity for continuing this case further, if it passes.

MANY SETTLERS ARE COMING TO OREGON

Extensive Advertising Campaign Launched About First of November

Despite the fact that November days brought the incoming of the winter, Oregon is witnessing a fruitful season in gathering new settlers within its borders.

That the entire state is benefiting by the land settlement work and that settlers come from east, north and south of Oregon is proven by the reports that come daily to the Land Settlement department of the state and Portland chamber of commerce.

In addition to the 909 new settlers located during the past year, 12 families have been placed during the first two weeks of November. Several of these have found suitable farms in Josephine county where unusual real estate activity has been manifested lately. Among these newcomers to the Grants Pass district are three Californians, A. R. Wigley and John A. Griffin, who each purchased 20 acres, and H. L. Butler who invested $10,000 in 30 acres of farm land.

Manitoba, Canada, yielded a good settler to Washington county near Forest Grove when Thomas Mulvay recently purchased an attractive seven acre track investing $2500. Washington county also drew C. Izborn formerly a resident of Washington, who settled near Hillsboro on a five acre tract requiring an investment of $1800.

Klamath county reported the largest sale from the standpoint of acres, Don Powers also from Washington 60 acres of Klamath land.

Minnesota contributed to the new settler ranks of the state A. F. Rockwell who has already invested $6000 in 28 acres in Washington county.

The advertising campaign launched about the first of November in publications including 20 farm magazines and daily newspapers in California, Texas, Florida and Middle Western states, is bringing a flood of inquiries promising to keep new settlers arriving in Oregon all during the winter season, according to W. G. Ide, manager of the department.

Western Lumber company will on Eugene-Klamath cut-off, will cut 50,000,000 feet next year.

Vale—Opalite quicksilver mine at McDermott, will handle 100 tons ore a day, with 65 men.

EVERYONE IN SALEM AND VICINITY KNOWS THAT

PRICE Sells Shoes

YET there are some who do not buy their shoes of us. However, there are many boys and girls now in the eight grade in high school and others now in college that have worn only PRICE'S SHOES since infancy.

There MUST be a REASON why. Then, too, there are CAPITALISTS, BANKERS, BUSINESS and PROFESSIONAL MEN—hundreds of them, right here in SALEM—who wear HANAN SHOES, not because PRICE sells them but because no other shoes on the market today gives the comfort, long service and entire satisfaction as HANAN'S.

There are, as well, hundreds of STUDENTS' YOUNG MEN and MEN WHO STAY YOUNG who prefer FLOR-SHEIM SHOES because they lead the world in STYLE, CLASS and SNAPPY DESIGNS for YOUNG MEN, and since we have the exclusive SALEM agency for FLOR-SHEIM SHOES they buy them of us.

Then there are the LADIES who insist upon having HANAN PUMPS and OXFORDS and will have nothing else, so we carry a very complete line of them at all times.

As no one factory can make all styles, we have arranged with leading manufacturers of ROCHESTER, PORTSMOUTH, CINCINNATI, ST.

LOUIS, ETC., who make a specialty of LADIES' NOVELTY PUMPS, SLIPPERS and OXFORDS whereby we receive express shipments of the latest creations as soon as they come out, enabling us to show the new styles as early as they are shown on FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

There is also an ever increasing number of women who want CORRECTIVE shoes and since SELBY'S ARCHPRESERVERS lead all others in style and comfort as well as giving the desired relief to foot troubles, they, of course, buy their shoes of us.

Parents who have a regard for the welfare and comfort of their children have found that our EDWARD'S SHOES for children have no equal, hence our heavy business in children's shoes.

Here we have filled our allotted space and almost neglected to mention the fact that we are CLOSING OUT our present stock at prices which are greatly reduced and invite you to take advantage of the savings afforded.

We thank you.
