BILL OF $1120.55 PRESENTED TO CITY COUNCIL

> Architect's Representative Calls City Sewer System Criminal

The First National bank last night presented the city council with a bill of $1120.55 to cover the cost of building a sewer from the bank's new building down Liberty street to connect with the city sewer on Ferry street. C. Forrester, representing the architect

The sewer conditions in that part of the city are a crime and a shame, Mr. Forrester claimed in his talk. The city had refused to pay for installing the sewer from the bank to the Ferry street sewthe Masters, courtesy of the Rulph er itself, and that it would have

The bank built the sewer, but Mr. Forrester said that rains last Sunday caused the sewer refuse and water to back up into the bank's basement, causing such a stench that chloride of lime had to be used before the men could go to work on the building.

The bank's bill and the request for compensation from the city were referred to the sewer committee by the council.
