Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall Greet Many People at Successful Tea Yesterday

A decided delight, and a decided success, was the reception and silver tea yesterday afternoon at the Woman's club house at which Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall of Eugene were the honor guests. The new president of the University of Oregon and his gracious wife greeted many interested Salem friends yesterday for the first time. Mrs. Hall was gownned with charming simplicity in mauve georgette.

In a fifteen minute address President Hall spoke in a straightforward, clear fashion concerning "Campus Traditions." Dr. Hall dwelt, in turn, on the tradition to uphold the law—the law of prohibition, particularly—on the spirit of unfeeling chivalry that dominates the campus; and the simplicity of dress that prevails. Dr. Hall paid a high tribute to the parents present, past, or potential university students to whom he expressly directed his words. He declared that the homes from which the students come are responsible for the gratifying trends on the campus, and charged those who are parents to see that home ideals and campus traditions become synonymous.

The club house auditorium was decorated with beauty and appropriate restraint in both color and line. Lighted tapers in many brass candleholders illuminated the many beautiful and charming of the Claus—Salem the main realm through prodigious Pole. of for N. B. in from Presi nett Carl W. I. bran C. GOOD TO LOOK AT Snowdrift looks mighty good-to-eat. It's snowy white and creamy and dainty enough to please the most fastidious taste. And Snowdrift is just as good as it looks. That's why everything you shorten with it tastes so good.

CHRISTMAS WOULDN'T BE CHRISTMAS WITHOUT THE DOLLS

When we unpacked some of our dolls we received a real surprise. We found that two cases of dolls that were stored in the basement during the flood, while the water did not touch them, they contracted the dampness and when they dried out the composition heads checked or cracked. Some of the checks are not immediately noticeable while others are. They include Madame Hendren, Jern walking, talking and sleeping dolls with hair. Now it's your surprise—you can have your choice at $1.00

Smaller size baby dolls with painted hair, defective to the same degree as above, 49c each.
