Chadwick Chapter of Eastern Star Elects Mrs. Mabel Minto Worthy Matron
The annual election of officers of Chadwick chapter No. 26, Order of the Eastern Star, was held on Tuesday night in the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Mabel Minto was elected worthy matron to succeed Miss Lella Johnson. William Marshall was elected worthy patron; Miss Gussie Niles, assistant worthy matron; Mrs. Ida Babcock, secretary; Mrs. Bernardi, treasurer, and Mrs. W. C. Kantner, conductress.

Six candidates were initiated into the order.

Wrighters Are Delightfully Entertained at McIntyre Home on Tuesday

Members of the writers' section of the Salem Arts League were entertained in a particularly delightful manner on Tuesday evening when Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre was hostess at her home on North Fourteenth street. Orchid chrysanthemums and mistletoe decorated the rooms.

Miss Grace Elisabeth Smith opened the program with a decidedly pleasing talk concerning her recent trip to Washington, D. C. in the capacity of assistant attorney general, and the visits with relatives, notable personages met, and scenic side trips enjoyed.

Prof. Morton E. Peck introduced a program element out of the ordinary when he read an original sonnet fashioned after the style of Spenser's "Faerie Queen." The sonnet was addressed in the mood of the period limited "To a Young Man in Love."

Mrs. Ruth Fargo contributed the paper on "The Revolutionary War from the British Point of View," which she originally prepared for Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

Miss Elizabeth Higgins, a newcomer in the group, read a story, "Pom-Pom Pinky Pooh" with Oriental atmosphere against a Portland setting which won much favorable comment from those present.

L. B. McDonald, a junior at the University of Oregon, read a "Lament of Youth."

Miss F. G. Franklin gave an exceedingly illuminating account of the visit which, with Dr. Franklin, she made to the French chateau of Louis XIV this summer while abroad.

Charles J. Lisle, leader of the section, reported the reorganization meeting of the Oregon Writers' league which was held in Portland last Friday.

At the close of the program Mrs. McIntyre, assisted by Miss Haltes, and by her daughter Miss Orma McIntyre, served a very delicious luncheon.

Included in the group were Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Prof. and Mrs. Morton E. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lisle, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Mrs. Blanche M. Jones, Miss Grace Elisabeth Smith, Mrs. Ruth Fargo, Miss Elizabeth Higgins, Otto K. Caulus, L. B. McDonald and the hostess, Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre.

At the next meeting of the group, the Tuesday before Christmas, Miss Ruth Lawrence will entertain.

The North Salem WCTU will meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. McCarroll, corner Highland and Maple avenues. A speaker from Newberg is expected to be present. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested to be present.

"Human Orchestra" From Ukraine Will Give Concert Tonight

Lovely as are the soprano voices in the Ukrainian National Chorus, it is perhaps the basses that have aroused the greatest enthusiasm wherever the great "human orchestra" has been heard. For the Ukraine has always been famous for the beauty and power of its basses, which reach down to inconceivable depths.

With exquisite shadings, Director Koshetz has blended these voices into a tonal perfection that has astonished the musical world. But, best of all, these Ukrainians have something to sing! The folk-songs of the Ukraine, covering a wide range of pagan and Christian hymns and carols, spring songs vibrant with delicate rapture and colorful visions, love-ballads warm with romance, and songs of peasant life now touched with unpeakable sorrow, now sparkling with humor—all these have been arranged.

ranged in the modern manner, yet still retain their pristine simplicity and beauty. Though sometimes heart breakingly sad, they do not, like Russian music, bear the stamp of despair, but rather the uplift of a simple faith and a beauty that is of the spirit.

Small wonder that the Ukrainian National Chorus, now about to begin its third season in the United States, after tours of Mexico and South America, has sung itself into the hearts of men and women everywhere, and has become one of the most popular of all the musical attractions now before the public.

In conjunction with next season's tour of the chorus will be the appearance of Max Pollakoff, the brilliant young American violinist, as soloist. This city is scheduled for one performance to be given at the Elsinore theater tonight.

RHEUMATISM

Shouldn't Exist

It is a pity to suffer with any kind of rheumatism or gout on earth. That Trunk's Prescription has been beneficial in the treatment of rheumatism, gout, lumbago, sciatica and neuritis is a well known fact, for instance, a prominent Pacific Coast Druggist says: "From reports we have had on Trunk's Prescription we are confident of its merits in recommending it." This prescription does not contain any mercury, salicylate soda, oil wintergreen nor narcotics, but combines ingredients of potency designed to throw off any kind of rheumatism in the human body. Trunk's Prescription does not depress the heart nor ruin the stomach, and no dieting is required to make it effective. Superior Liver Medicine and Uric Acid Solvent, a splendid prescription. Sold and recommended by J. C. Perry, Druggist, 115 S. Commercial.—Adv.
