

Black Cat Hoopsters to Meet Albany Friday

The Salem Black Cat basketball quintet will meet Albany college Friday night at Albany in the third game of the season. It was announced yesterday. A close game is expected, as the Albany team this year is a good one, and the Black Cats are expected to show better form with more practice under their belts.

The Black Cats will present a strong lineup, as Wesley Ellis, star forward, who has been ill, will be back in uniform. The team will meet Linfield college December 17, and other games are being arranged for the future.

was close all the way, with the Salem team leading by not more than 3 points up to the last minute of play. G. Nash scored 11 points for high point honors.

The Cooley-Pearson lineup consisted of Parley (6), G. Nash (11) forwards; Lennon (3), center; E. Nash, Jones (2), guards; Larsen, Gibson (2), subs.

Boys Clubs to Meet—The Pioneer, Comrade and Friendly Indian boys' clubs of the Jason Lee Methodist church will meet tonight. Plans for participation in the inter-club basketball tournament to begin soon will be discussed.

Brooks

Members of the Brooks Community club met on Thursday, December 2, for an all-day meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Ramp to honor the hosts on the occasion of their 52nd wedding anniversary, as well as the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Bingham. At 1 o'clock a pot-luck luncheon was served. Many members of the club were present for the enjoyable occasion to extend congratulations to the three honor guests.

The Brooks Ladies' Aid society is busy preparing for the annual bazaar of fancy work and home-cooked food, which will be held on Friday evening, December 10, at 8 o'clock in the M. E. church. Everybody welcome.

LATE SPORTS

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 8.—(AP)—Rallying gamely in the last five rounds, Pete Latzo of Scranton, Pa., world's welterweight cham- pion slugged his way to a ten- round victory over Joe Simonich of Butte, Mont., in the Newark armory tonight.

Returning to the ring after an absence of six months, Latzo caught a rugged and aggressive foe in Simonich, who carried off the first four rounds of the fight with a battering two-handed at- tack.

The Montana man tired in the latter rounds under his exertions, however, and Latzo, carrying the battle to his foe with a whirl- wind comeback, received the de- cision of newspaper critics at the ringside.

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 8.—(AP)—Monte Munn, former Nebraska football star, stopped Gordon Muncie of New York, in the second round of a 16-round heavyweight match preliminary to the Pete Latzo-Joe Simonich fight at the Newark armory tonight.

The referee interrupted hostil- ities to save Muncie from further punishment after he had been felled eight times by the mid-west- erner's heavy clouts. Munn weighed 213½; Muncie 205½.

LIQUOR PARTIES TOLD TO COURT BY JOHNSON

latter brought two bottles of wine. At the conclusion of the party, the witness said, the empty bottles were assembled and taken to an automobile. The party then was driven to the Marina on the north bay shore of the city, where the bottles were thrown away.

When Colonel Johnson reiter- ated his protest at being forced to name the feminine members of the party, Roche said:

"That's all right, Colonel, you need not worry, because before this trial is over we are going to have both of the women you have mentioned on the witness stand."

He said the other party he had attended in Colonel Green's apart- ment consisted of Green, a "Mrs. Hill of Los Angeles," and an eastern newspaperman and his wife. He said he had forgotten the name of the couple.

Colonel Johnson then described several instances where he had seen Colonel Green take away con- fiscated liquor. On one occasion, he said, he had remonstrated with Colonel Green about the risk the latter was running in removing several bottles from the proba- tion enforcement office, and that Colonel Green had replied: "That's all right; I'm responsible."

come to him from naval officers, rather than from the interior de- partment or oil company officials.

Denby told the jury he had never seen Edward L. Doheny un- til the Elk Hills lease was signed Dec. 11, 1922, and that he could not recall Doheny's name having been mentioned in departmental conferences until he was called upon to approve the award, in April, 1922, of the Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, oil storage contract to Doheny's Pan-American Petro- leum and Transport company.

In cross examination Roberts brought the witness around to the testimony of Rear Admiral J. K. Robison, retired, last week, that Denby had authorized him in De- cember, 1921, to acquaint Doheny with certain "confidential mat- ters" contained in an official re- port from Rear Admiral Gleaves, retired, commandant of the Asiatic squadron.

Denby, however, insisted he could not recall Doheny's name ever having been mentioned to him by anyone prior to April, 1922.

"I do not know," and "I do not recall" frequently were his replies to Roberts' unrelenting pressure for details of the navy's action in the negotiations.

I've got a half-nelson on jimmy-pipe joy

PRINCE ALBERT
—no other tobacco is like it!

I TOOK P. A. for better or worse . . . and found it better! Better than anything I had ever smoked. That's my story and I'm going to stick to it. When siren-brands try to flirt, I just give them the icy stare. I know what I like in a pipe, and what I like is Prince Albert!

Cool. Sweet. Fragrant. Old words, I'll admit, but you get a brand-new idea of how much they can mean in a pipe-bowl packed with P. A. Maybe you've always thought such pipe-pleasure was "just around the corner." Try a load of Prince Albert and turn that corner!

The instant you break the seal on the tidy red tin and get that wonderful fragrance of real tobacco, you know you are in for a pipe-treat. Your mouth fairly waters for a taste of tobacco that smells as good as that. Then you load up and light up—ah! . . .

Get a half-nelson on the pipe-joy that's due you. Before you do another thing, buy a tin of Prince Albert and tuck a neat wad into your pipe. Notice how mild it is, yet how delightfully full-bodied. Here's a smoke that you can pat around with, morning to midnight.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tin, round and full-bodied tin, handy, dora, and round cylindrical tins, all with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of tin and pack removed by the Prince Albert process.
