"Babe" Ruth Will Be in Salem Monday and Tuesday

RUTH OFFERS PRIZE TO SOME SALEM BOY

Lad Writing Best 100 Word
Essay on "Sportsmanship" Gets Trophy

Boys, here's your big chance! Do you want to get an autographed bat and baseball from the great "Babe" Ruth himself, and have him hand it to you on the stage of Bligh's Capitol theatre Tuesday afternoon?

If you do, all that is necessary will be to write a 100 word essay on "SPORTSMANSHIP" and write a better one than the other boys in town.

Some boy will be the lucky one, and it might just as well be you. All you have to do, after writing the essay, is to hand it in to the Statesman office or the box office of Bligh's Capitol theatre before 6 o'clock Monday night. Babe Ruth will come over to The Statesman office and judge the essays, with the help of Aia Ross, head of the English department of the Salem high school.

The winning boy will be named in Tuesday morning's Statesman, and he can get his bat and ball from "Babe" on the stage of the Capitol that afternoon.

In case you don't win the coveted prize, don't be discouraged, for free tickets to the Tuesday performance at the Capitol will be given to the writers of the five next best essays.

The contest is open to all boys in the city under 15 years of age. The great "Babe" himself will arrive at the Southern Pacific depot at 11:20 o'clock Monday morning.

Remember, boys. Only 100 words, and you may be the lucky winner. Don't forget either, that you have a good chance at the other five prizes, and will get to see the big Sultan of the Swat, besides the rest of the Capitol show Tuesday.

The other five prizes, besides letting you in to see the Babe free will also give you the privilege of being introduced to him, for he has expressed a desire to shake hands personally with the boys.

Don't forget. Have the essay in by 6 o'clock Monday night, at the Capitol box office or the Statesman office.

Bishop's have always been popular with shoppers at Christmas time. The large selections, the spacious isles, the freedom from crowding and the service we offer explains for this popularity.
