JEWS REBUILDING PALESTINE

And Its Significance to Humanity "Millions Now Living Will Never Die"

Mr. Macmillan has recently returned from a tour of Palestine and Europe. He sailed for Palestine March 12, 1925, on the President Arthur, the first Jewish ship to go direct from New York to Palestine, flying the Jewish flag. He brings a view of world conditions broadened by his extensive travels. His conviction is that present events were clearly foretold in the Scriptures. For many years he has given the Bible most careful study. The lecturer will call attention to specific events that have fulfilled prophecy, and that foreshadow the immediate
