EUGENE, Dec. 22.—(AP)—The University of Oregon basketball squad completed its pre-season training here today and will take a four day rest before entering on its annual barnstorming tour of California.

Okerberg, Gunther and Westergren are two year veterans while the remaining six are new at the game in intercollegiate circles. Ridings, Bally, Epps and Milligan are from the freshmen team of last year.

Claire Scallon, who was named an all-American high school player two years ago while playing in Portland, Ray Edwards, center, Kiehl Emmons, forward, and Ray Chastain, forward, will not make the trip.

LATE SPORTS

PORTLAND, Dec. 22.—(AP)—Ted Thye, Portland light heavyweight, defeated Louis Pergandas, also of Portland, here tonight. There was but one fall in the bout. That came after they had been on the mat 45 minutes. In tossing Pergandas for the fall Thye injured the Greek's arm so badly that he was unable to continue.

HORNBY WILL SELL STOCK IN CARDINALS

Second Baseman Claims It Would Be Against Game
to Hold Shares

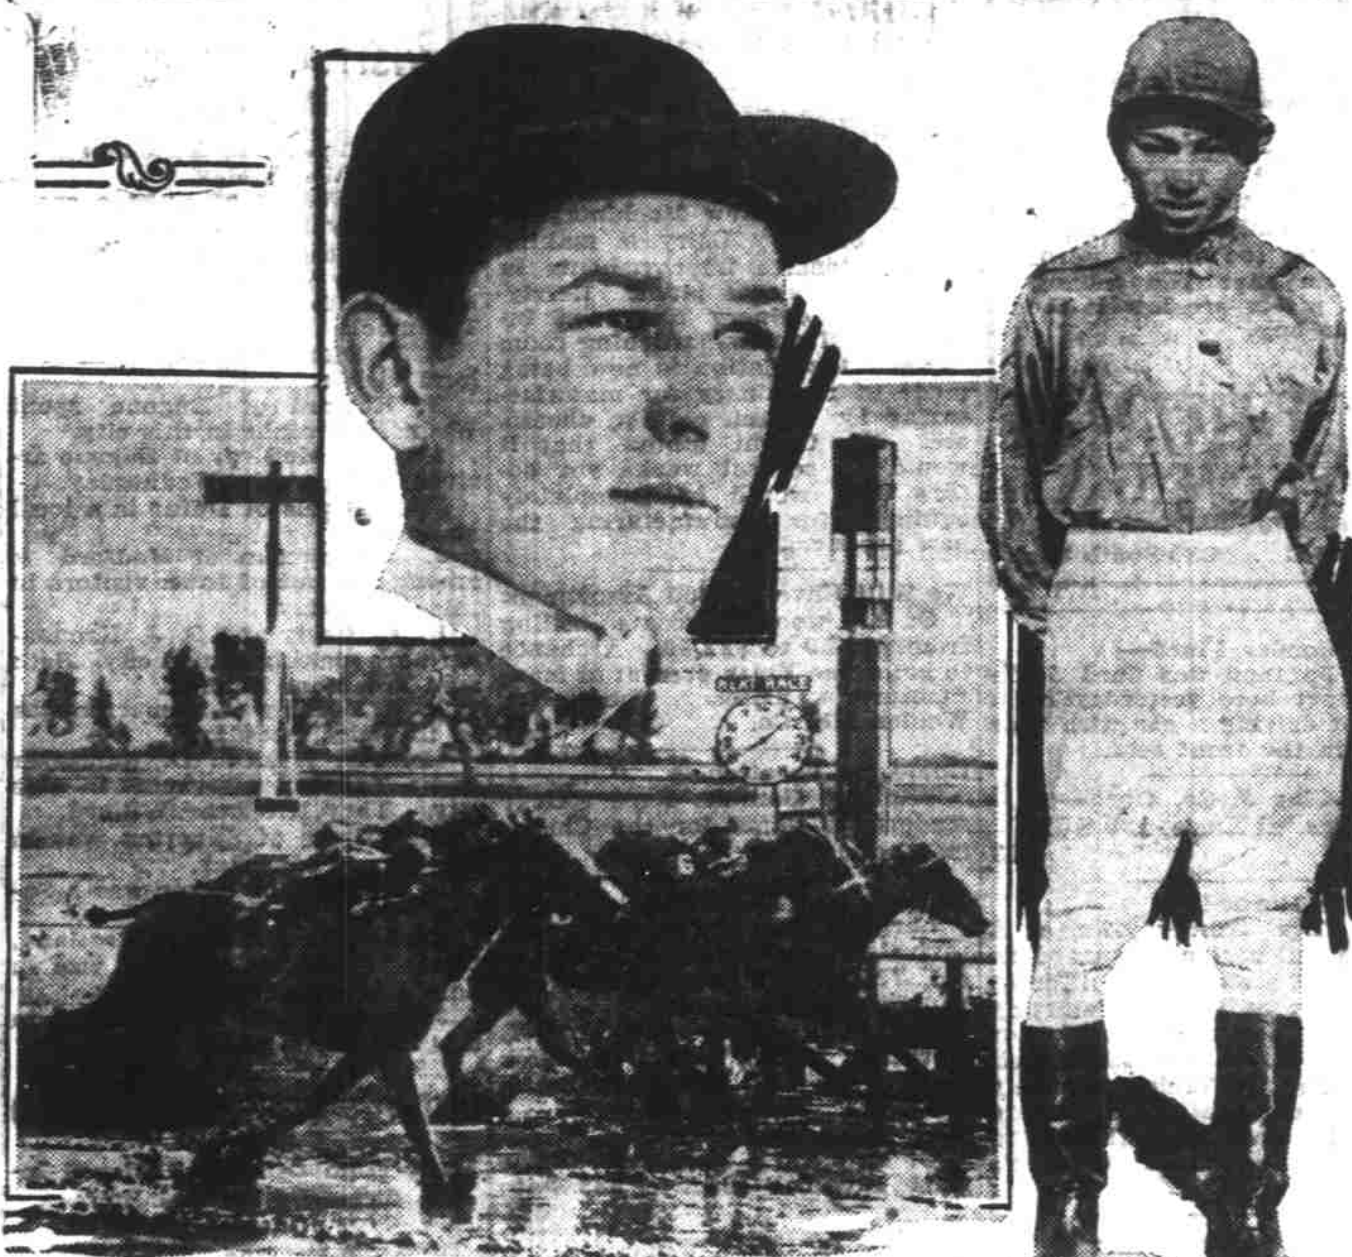

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 22.—(AP)—Manager Rogers Hornsby of the St. Louis Cardinals who has been traded to the New York Giants, said today he would soon see Sam Breadon, club president, and offer to sell his 1,167 shares of club stock to him.

Breadon said he knew of no baseball law that would prevent Hornsby from playing in a New York uniform while he owned stock in a rival club, but Hornsby said he did not think it would be for the best interest of the game for him to retain the stock. Breadon owns a majority of the stock and Hornsby is the second largest holder.

John A. Heidler, National League president, today telegraphed the St. Louis Post-Dispatch that "rule or no rule, it goes without saying that Hornsby could not play with the Giants and continue to hold stock in the St. Louis club."

Closing Days of Year See Jockeys Battle for Title

As the last few days of 1926 ebb away a merry battle is being waged at the Tia Juana race track in Mexico between Robert Jones and Billy Munden for the honor of being the greatest winner among the jockeys for the year. Jones, up to December 10th, had ridden 118 winners. While Munden lacked but 8 victories of having the same total. Photos show a recent race at Tia Juana, run-in-the-mud; Billy Munden, upper center, and Jones at right.

that Hines and an injury to the spine suffered last season had permanently impaired his batting prowess. He said he felt as strong as ever and expected to regain his form and be a strong contender for the batting championship which he held for six consecutive years prior to 1926.

Hornsby emphatically denied that he had bet on the Cardinals to win the pennant and world's series. He said he had never bet on a baseball game in his life. He disclosed, however, that the contract proffered by Breadon contained a clause forbidding him from betting on horse races.

Aggies Drop Basketball Game to Southern Team

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—(AP)—A free throw in the final minutes of play gave the Young Men's institute basketball five, a 30 to 29 victory over the Oregon Agricultural college team here tonight. The contest was one of the finest here this season.

After trailing through much of the second period Oregon staged a sensational comeback and tied the score three minutes before the end of the game. The Y. M. I. was given a free throw on an Aggie foul and "Lefty" Harrigan scored the winning point.

Oregon will play the Olympic club here tomorrow night.

TUNNEY ESCAPES EYES OF CURIOUS

Seclusion Sought in Wilderness of Maine by Heavy-weight Champion

ROCKWOOD, Maine, Dec. 22.—(AP)—Escaping from the crowd of the metropolis, Gene Tunney tonight had lost himself in the Maine wilderness. Desiring to get away from the publicity, which constantly has attended his movements since he became heavy weight champion of the world, he sought seclusion in a sporting camp, seven miles from here, for a complete rest over the holiday season.

He was met at the terminus here of the Kineo branch of the Maine Central railroad by Bert Fowler, a guide, with whom the champion and his companions had luncheon. Then they walked seven miles over the lake ice to the camps. Few of the 300 widely scattered residents of this unorganized township on the west side of the lake knew of the presence of the distinguished fighter.
