

BROTHERHOOD HOLDS REGULAR MEETINGS

C. A. Boyle Elected as President, Program of Music and Readings

A monthly meeting of the Brotherhood convened on Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock. After enjoying a delicious supper prepared by the ladies of the church, a short program of vocal and instrumental music and readings was greatly appreciated.

The election of officers for the coming year resulted for president, C. A. Boyle; vice president, C. M. Roberts; secretary-treasurer, Gordon Black; social committee, W. A. Cummings; J. B. Van Cleave, Robert Klempe; community welfare, A. L. Dark; W. W. Chadwick, C. A. Dale; evangelism, Ben Vick, A. E. Zimmerman, A. B. Disbrow, Thomas Acheson; publicity, Alford Vick, August Mickelson, R. A. Harris; membership, E. E. Roberts; Sol Drake, Frank Dunlap, H. E. Henderson, J. E. Sumpter.

Before adjournment there was a lively discussion of the problems before the Brotherhood. It was a delightful and profitable meeting.

Cadet in Salem
Herbert Jones, a cadet at Hill Military academy, is spending the Christmas holidays in Salem.

O. A. C. Christmas Party
Monday Evening Attended By More Than 100 Guests

More than 100 members of the OAC club of Salem and students who are registered at the college, as well as a group of Corvallis alumni, were in attendance at the decidedly successful Christmas party of Monday evening at the Woman's club house.

Mrs. C. F. Chambers' committee arranged the decorations which were in particular keeping with the holiday season. Mistletoe, holly, and a laden Christmas tree were used as greens. An exchange of gifts was a feature.

Mrs. Roy Hollenberg was in charge of the program. The opening number of the evening was a solo by Lucille Cummings, accompanied by Miss Lota Plummer.

A reading by Miss Virginia Page was followed by a vocal solo by Jewell Gardner, with Miss Plummer at the piano.

Mrs. F. E. Merrer gave a reading. A group of Rainbow girls pleased with the play they gave. Delicious refreshments were served to the group with Mrs. J. A. Jelderks in charge of the social.

committee. The Santa Claus of the evening was Leo Spitzbart. Among a carload of guests motoring up from Corvallis was E. E. Allworth, alumni secretary.

In the play which a group of members of the Order of Rainbow for Girls presented were Dorothy Bosshard, Billie Cupper, Eloise Wright, Loleta and Loreta Robinson and Eleanor Wright.

Spend Christmas at Woodburn
Mr. and Mrs. David Wright and their daughters will spend Christmas in Woodburn as the guests of Mr. Wright's mother, Mrs. E. H. Wright, and sister, Miss Eleanor Wright.

Miss Lawrence and Mrs. Ross Are Hostesses for Writers' Club
The last meeting of the writers' section of the Salem Arts league before Christmas was held Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Ruth Mae Lawrence, with Mrs. Gertrude Robinson Ross as a joint hostess.

The program opened with the reading of a one-act play, "Women Are That Way," by Perry Reigelman. As a second feature Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo displayed the club calendar which the Salem Woman's club is publishing.

Another number of the evening was the group of original poems which Miss Florence Jones read. Miss Renska Swart read a letter which she has composed from the inspiration of Anthony Euwer's pictures. The missive is in the form of an answer to an invitation to his art exhibit.

Prof. F. G. Franklin announced the coming of Carl Sandburg to Waller Hall next month.

In the group for the meeting were Miss Renska Swart, Miss Grace Elisabeth Smith, Miss Mary Gilbert, Mrs. Blanche Jones, Mrs. Ruth Fargo, Miss Florence Jones, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Mr. N. A. and Mrs. Robert C. Paulus, Perry Reigelman, Otto K. Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence and the hostesses, Mrs. Ross and Miss Lawrence.

The guests were given miniature Christmas trees and stars as favors. A lovely decorated Christmas tree was arranged in the rooms.

Ecclesia Club Sponsors Christmas Program for Group of Children
Ten small children were honored guests on Monday evening at a delightful Christmas party sponsored by the Ecclesia club. The affair was held at the First Christian church.

A Christmas tree, with gifts and sweets for all the guests, was the feature of the evening. Miss Jessie Miles took the role of Santa Claus.

Miss Jones Is Holiday Guest
Miss Florence Jones, a student at the University of Oregon at Eugene, is spending the Christmas holidays in Salem as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Blanche Jones.

Christmas at St. Joseph's Catholic Church
According to the usual custom, a midnight mass, ushering in Christmas day, will be sung by the pastor, Rev. Father Buck, who will also give a short sermon. This is one of the greatest feasts in the Catholic church, the only other feast equaling it is the Easter mass.

For several days, the Sisters of the Holy Names have been decorating the church, assisted by various members of the congregation. These decorations include the manger and crib of the Nativity, with the shepherds and angels, and also the animals. The high altar will be brilliant with lights and flowers, as will also the side altars.

The mass will be a solemn high mass—a mass at which three priests assist together with about 35 altar boys. The music, which has been under the direction of Miss Mary Lebold, is by the regular choir, with Miss Lebold as organist and Miss Mary Schottle violin. Members of the choir are Mrs. Albrich, Mary and Madette Heenan, Anna Karst and Theresa Albrich, and Messrs. Domogalla, Steiner and Schaeffer. Entrance of procession from the front of the church if weather permits.

The program is as follows:
Holy Night ..... Choir
Mass in honor of St. Benedict ..... Choir
Angels Serenade, violin number ..... Mary Schottle
Angels We Have Heard on High ..... Choir

There will be five other masses on Christmas morning. One in academy chapel at 7 o'clock, the remainder in the church at 7:30, 8, 8:30 and a high mass and sermon by assistant priest at 9. The high mass will be sung by pupils of the Sacred Heart academy.

Father Buck has issued a general invitation to the public to all the masses.

Christmas Holidays at West Fork

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rickli and their daughter, Miss Pauline Rickli, of 208 Bush street, will leave today for West Fork, Cow Creek Canyon, to spend the Christmas holidays. They will return on January 4.

CARKIN URGES MANY CHANGES IN HOUSE

Speaker-to-Be Plans Committee Reduction and Proof Reader Changes

John Carkin of Medford, who is slated to be the speaker of the house of representatives, has made known several plans for the reduction of legislative expenses which he hopes will be approved. He urges the elimination of inefficient proof readers and the employment of experienced men, also the printing of bills immediately upon their introduction to the legislature. This would mean the employment of fewer men in the printing work during the session and so bring about a saving in this branch.

Mr. Carkin believes that there are too many stenographers employed at each session of the legislature. He cannot see the need of one for each representative and each senator. He thinks that the number hired should be reduced to meet the actual need at that time. This would probably mean the reduction of the number of stenographers by 25 per cent. Such plans have been tried in other states and have met with considerable success.

The houses in the past have had 40 or more committees. This number is too large according to Mr. Carkin and he plans to reduce the number of committees, making each one a little larger. This would eliminate a number of practically useless committees.

The speaker-to-be is also urging the introduction of all bills during the first 10 days of the session. This would alleviate last minute rushes and aid in all committee considerations. These plans have met with considerable favor and many of the representatives are writing Mr. Carkin in regard to them.
