This is the staff of photographers, detail artists, and sales people who make possible the weekly photograph feature on the society pages of The Oregon Statesman each Sunday morning. It is these folk who assist us in making memorable an anniversary, an occasion, or an enterprise, and who add to the charm of our columns with the latest picture of interesting folk, old and young.

Sunday School Pageant at First Methodist Church

"The Story of the First Christmas" is the title of the pageant to be presented by the Sunday school in the First Methodist church on next Sunday evening. The scene will be a home on Christmas eve, where a mother relates the story of the Nativity to her children, while each part is acted out by members of the cast on the platform. The following episodes will be given.

Chapter AB of PEO
Mrs. W. D. Smith and Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith will entertain the members of Chapter AB of the PEO sisterhood on Monday evening, December 27, at their home 1765 Center street. The meeting will be at 7:45 o'clock with Mrs. Mildred Plagg in charge of the program on "Christmas Customs."

Jolly Sixteen Club
Mrs. John Spong and Mrs. Ed Keene were hostesses on Wednesday evening for the members of the Jolly Sixteen club. Cards were in play during the early part of the evening, after which a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. La Doyt Davies assisted the hostesses. Wreaths, streamers, and Christmas bells were used in decorating the rooms. A special feature was the Christmas tree on the center table with boughs bearing a gift for each guest.

Special guests for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Keene and Mr. and Mrs. La Doyt Davies. The high score of the evening was won by Mrs. M. P. Dennis and Mrs. C. H. Busey, while those scoring low were Mrs. Davies and Mrs. Louis Bechtel.

Members in the group included Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bechtel, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Busey, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Busey, John Spong, La Velle Keene, and the hostesses, Mrs. Spong and Mrs. Keene.

Christmas Cantata at Knight Memorial Church Tomorrow Evening

At the Knight Memorial church Sunday evening at 7:30, the vestal choir will sing the Christmas Cantata "The Holy Nativity," by Henry Wildermere. A candle light procession by the choir singing "Joy to the World," will be an impressive feature of the opening service. The cantata includes:

Organ prelude.
"Look Above," opening chorus.
"Tidings of Joy," tenor solo; chorus.
"Unto You is Born a Savior," tenor solo; chorus.
"The Song of the Shepherds," contralto solo.
"Within a Lowly Manger Lying," soprano solo.
"Glory to God," men's voices; chorus.
"Let Us Go to Bethlehem," baritone solo; chorus.
"Tell Far and Near," tenor solo.
"Wonderful Night," men's voices; chorus.
"Christmas Joy-Bells," final chorus.

The organist, Donald J. Allison, will play as an organ prelude Handel's "Largo," and "Largo from The New World Symphony," requested, by Dvorak, for offertory.

Christmas Festivities at Morley Home

The W. H. Morley home will be the scene of two attractive affairs during the Christmas season—the family Christmas tree which was held last night at 7:30 o'clock and the dinner which will be served today at 1 o'clock.

Included in the family group are Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Morley and sons Danny and Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. Lane Morley and sons Herbert, Lawrence and Ellsworth, the children of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morris, the hosts, Ansel, Oswell, Ellen and Phyllis, Mrs. Bertha Marsters and children Hazel and Kenneth, and the hosts.

Christmas Week-end in Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slater and Mrs. Josephine Stewart left yesterday for Portland where they will spend the Christmas week-end. They will be houseguests of Mrs. Edward Stevens, Mrs. Stewart's sister.

Chadwick Chapter of the Eastern Star Sponsors Delightful Festival

Affairs which have been really superlative successes are those of the holiday season which Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star has sponsored in the Masonic temple.

When Chadwick Chapter entertained in the afternoon the lodge rooms were unaccountably lovely with evergreen trees, palms and azaleas placed by J. W. Maruny.

The refreshment room was no less lovely with Mrs. Harry Belt and Mrs. J. O. Hofsford having been in charge of the decorations. Mrs. L. W. Gleason took the role of Santa Claus in a manner most gratifying to all, for she was a most liberal saint in her distribution of gifts.

The delicious plum puddings were made by Mrs. Mary Johnson, mother of the worthy matron, in her own kitchen. The hundreds of delectable cookies were Mrs. Alice Coolidge's contribution.

Mrs. O. A. Olson, with this meeting, closed a very successful twelve months as general social chairman for the chapter.

A program of interest was given, with Rev. H. Durcan Chalmers giving a truly beautiful Christmas address. Mrs. Arthur Utley sang Christmas songs with Mrs. Corydon Blodgett playing her accompaniments. Mrs. Martin Fereshethian gave several vocal
