Miss Dorothy Patterson Announces Betrothal to Dr. Dolph Lawrence Craig
A host of Salem friends will be extremely interested in the news of the betrothal of Miss Dorothy Patterson, eldest daughter of Mrs. J. A. Patterson, to Dr. Dolph Lawrence Craig, son of Dr. Robert Craig. The wedding will be an attractive event of Wednesday, January 19.

The announcement was made by Miss Beverley Armstrong during an enjoyable afternoon bridge party at which Miss Patterson was hostess yesterday in her home, honoring Mrs. Frank Durbin Jr. (Ceta Pearson), Miss Armstrong passed lovely individual corsages to each guest during the playing. To each corsage was attached the names of the betrothed couple.

The Patterson home, arranged for the bridge, featured a beautiful Yuletide background of holly, poinsettias and a lighted Christmas tree.

Miss Prudence Patterson, sister of the hostess bride-elect, assisted in the serving.

In the group invited to share in the pleasure of the announcement party, as well as to compliment Mrs. Frank Durbin Jr., a recent bride, were Mrs. Durbin, the honor guest, Mrs. Freyman Boise, Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith, Mrs. Richard Slater, Mrs. Karle Becke, Mrs. Dwight Quisenberry, Mrs. William Gosser, Miss Letha Wilson of Long Beach, Cal.; Mrs. Asel Eoff, Mrs. Bert Ford, Mrs. Oliver Jesup of Molalla, Mrs. Lewis Greene of Portland, Miss Lois Wheeler, Miss Jeanette Meredith, Mrs. Frederick Deckebach, Mrs. Edward G. Patterson, Miss Prudence Patterson and the hostess, Miss Dorothy Patterson.

Both Miss Patterson and her fiancé are very popular in Salem. Miss Patterson is a former Oregon Agricultural college student, while Dr. Craig is a graduate of the North Pacific Dental college.

Salem Woman's Club Benefit Bridge Tea Will be Event of January Five

An outstanding event of the first week in the new year will be the big benefit bridge tea of Wednesday, Jan. 5, which the Salem Woman's club will sponsor at the club house. The card parties sponsored by the Salem Woman's club, the largest organization of women in Salem, are always affairs of considerable prominence and the many tables available are in great demand.

A number of matrons are in the habit of reserving several tables for use by their own group, thus giving a small party within the larger, and less intimate, one.

The funds derived will go toward the purchase of a covering for the club house floor. Each hostess is asked to bring a deck of cards and pencils for her own table. Reservations may be made at once with any member of the committee.

Mrs. E. M. Hoffnell is chairman of the group, while Mrs. Roy Burton, senior member of the house committee, is in general charge. Those comprising the group in charge of this interesting benefit affair are Mrs. E. M. Hoffnell, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. H. L. Stiff, Mrs. H. J. Wiedmer, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith, Mrs. Will Allen, Mrs. E. E. Bragg, Mrs. D. X. Beechler and Mrs. Roy Burton.

The hours for playing will be from 2 to 5 o'clock.

De Molay Dance at Ilahee Country Club Will Be Event of Tonight

The De Molay holiday dance at the Ilahee Country club will be a decidedly interesting event of this evening, Dec. 30. The order extends, through the columns of the press, an invitation to all members of the Eastern Star as well as all Masons, to attend. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.

One hundred cards have been issued to members of the younger set.

It is hoped that a great many members of the Eastern Star, as well as Masons, will accept the invitation to this holiday affair.

Guest at Weller Home

Mrs. Charles S. Weller entertained as her guest yesterday Mrs. J. A. Churchill of Ashland. Mrs. Churchill returned to Salem with Mr. and Mrs. Weller, who spent the Christmas holidays in Portland. Mr. Churchill joined Mrs. Churchill last night and the two continued their trip to Ashland.

Mrs. Albert C. Gragg Entertains Auxiliary Officers With Christmas Party

An enjoyable affair of the holiday season was the bridge party of Wednesday evening at which Mrs. Albert C. Gragg, retiring president of the American Legion auxiliary, entertained the staff of officers.

cers who have worked with her in such an efficient and satisfactory manner throughout a year which will come to a close tomorrow.

Mrs. Gragg has filled her office as president in a highly satisfactory manner. The success of the year she attributes to the officers rather than to herself. During her term Mrs. Gragg had the honor of installing a chapter of the auxiliary at her former home, Heppner, Or. On Friday she will perform the same service for a neighboring community. Since Mrs. Gragg went into office the fund in the treasury has risen from $30 to $300. The auxiliary now has a membership of more than 100, with each member actively interested in the still further growth of the organization.

At the party on Tuesday Mrs. Gragg entertained as a special guest Mrs. W. A. Zosel of Coquille, her sister-in-law and house guest. Mr. Zosel is active in American Legion auxiliary work in her home town.

The Gragg home was beautifully decorated with Christmas greens and a decorated Christmas tree. Green tapers burned on the mantel. As favors, Mrs. Gragg presented individual corsages made up with dainty georgette handkerchiefs.

Mrs. B. A. Victor won the high score of the evening.

Those playing at the tables were Mrs. W. A. Zosel of Coquille, Mrs. B. A. Victor, Mrs. Paul Burris, Mrs. Jesse George, Mrs. Robert Ludrow, Mrs. Albert T. Anderson, Mrs. W. A. Vincent, Mrs. Allan Cleveland, Mrs. Lloyd Demaree, Mrs. S. J. Ostrander, Mrs. Miles McKey and the hostess, Mrs. Albert C. Gragg.

Grand Daughter of Former Statesman Editor Dies in Pocatello, Idaho

Salem friends will receive with sorrow the belated news of the death in Pocatello, Idaho, of Sally Shipman, the 6-year-old granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Brady, formerly of Salem where Mr. Brady was managing editor of The Statesman.

The little girl was the younger daughter of Vera Brady Shipman, who visited in Oregon in 1924. At that time she was accompanied by her eldest daughter, Mary Jule.

Sally's death occurred the last of October following a severe complication of diseases, including scarlet fever and pneumonia. For three weeks the little girl was in a hospital in Pocatello. The child fell ill three weeks after reaching Idaho from Chicago. Mary Jule was sent back to Chicago to receive inoculation for the malady, which took her sister's life.

Sally was an adorable baby girl and a continual source of pride and joy not only to her mother but to her fond grandparents as well. Her winsome ways will never be forgotten by those who knew, and who have heard of her.

The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Brady, have taken over the Evening Bulletin in Blackfoot, Idaho, and are now making their home there.

Mrs. Shipman, who has achieved considerable distinction as a journalist, has returned to Chicago.

Guest in Vancouver, B. C.

Mrs. George F. Rodgers is the house guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James G. A. Hutchinson, in Vancouver, B. C. She will be away until after New Year's.

Hub Class of Knight Memorial Church Enjoys Christmas Party

A very enjoyable affair of the holiday interim was the party of Tuesday evening at which 60 members and friends of the Hub class of the Knight Memorial church were entertained in the church parlors. Holiday decorations were used.

A particularly clever feature of the program was the skit in which the participants were Dr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, Rev. H. C. Stover, B. E. Edwards, Ray Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Braden.

A variety of games were enjoyed, after which followed a social hour and delicious refreshments.

Dr. Frank Brown is the teacher of the class.

Salem Woman's Club Will Place Calendars on Sale Today

Beginning at 10 o'clock this morning anyone interested may secure one of the Salem Woman's club reference calendars which are now off the press. The calendars, listing meetings of all descriptions, will be a great aid to all those affiliated with one or more organizations.

Those interested in finding a day comparatively free for the giving of a party, or the sponsoring of a function of any kind, will find the calendar of service. The calendar shows not only the days which are taken, but also the nature of the meeting.

The first allotment of calendars will be on sale at the C. F. Hamilton furniture store on Court street. A table will be arranged inside the door.

The central committee, including Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, Miss Mattie Beatty and Mrs. W. E. Anderson; members of the finance committee, Mrs. Charles Weller, Mrs. Ray Farmer, Miss Edith Hazard, Mrs. L. H. McMahan, Miss Ethel Fletcher and Mrs. O. E. Price; board of directors, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Harry J. Love and Mrs. Joseph H. Baumgartner; the chairman of the board of trustees, Mrs. F. A. Elliott; the chairman of the house committee, Mrs. Edwin M. Hoffnell, and the officers, Mrs. Clarence S. Hamilton, president; Mrs. Frank M. Erickson, vice president; Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer, recording secretary;

Mrs. Walter I. Staley, financial secretary; Mrs. Oscar E. Price and Miss Mattie F. Beattie, parliamentarian, are all assisting in the project of the calendars which is engaging the attention of the club as a whole.

Those who wish to have their calendars delivered to them may call a member of the central committee for this service.

GOOD BRIDGE SKILL
No longer need you suffer the embarrassment of having to say: "No, we don't play bridge; I just can't learn it."

For the readers of The Statesman the skill of good bridge is to be made simple and easy, so that all may enjoy the captivating charm of this greatest of home diversions.

That's great news for those who want to learn to play bridge, and here's greater news for those who already are bridge fans:

Milton C. Work, the greatest international authority on auction bridge, is to write for this newspaper every day!

One of Mr. Work's cardinal rules for the bridge table is: "Never bid a 'no trump' with a worthless singleton unless you have a worthless partner."

It would be painful to have to admit that you are such a partner. But no one need be such a partner—not any longer! For Mr. Work tells you, in a clear, simple, sparkling and yet easily understandable terms, all you need to know about the combinations of the cards in order to play winning bridge!

You will enjoy this feature perhaps as you have never enjoyed a writer before.

Watch for further announcements. Mr. Work's interesting articles will begin soon in The Oregon Statesman.
