Miss Lois Wheeler and Arthur Ross Are Married

The most interesting wedding of the Christmas season was that of Miss Lois C. Wheeler, daughter of Mrs. L. A. Pettit of Portland, became the bride of Arthur H. Ross, son of John T. Ross of Salem.

The impressive single ring service was used with Rev. Norman Kendall Tully, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating.

The loveliest decorations of the Christmas season were used in decking the home and the fireplace which was used as an incense altar.

The bride, a decidedly attractive girl, wore a frock of gray crepe de chine with ornamentation in silver. Her shower bouquet was a gorgeous thing of Marechal Nell roses, frezias and lilies of the valley. Her only attendant was Miss Florence Cartwright, the maid of honor, who wore a charming frock of tan crepe de chine. Wallace Carson served as best man.

A buffet wedding breakfast was served following the ceremony. Red roses, holly and lighted red tapers decorated the table. Mrs. Richard Cartwright presided at the urn.

Included in the group were Mrs. L. A. Pettit of Portland, John T. Ross, sisters of the groom Miss Ada Ross, Miss Lucile Ross and Miss Leah Ross, Major and Mrs. Thomas Rilea, Charles Wheeler, Thomas Rilea Jr., and Dr. and Mrs. Richard Cartwright.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross left early in the afternoon by motor for Oakland, Cal., where they will make their home. Mr. Ross is athletic coach in an Oakland high school.

Mrs. Ross is a graduate of the Commack school for girls in Los Angeles, while Mr. Ross is an OAC graduate and member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

The wedding on Wednesday took place at the home of Major and Mrs. Thomas E. Rilea, brother-in-law and sister of the bride.

Among a number of pre-nuptial affairs complimenting the betrothed couple was the dinner party on Monday at the John T. Ross home at which the Misses Ada, Lucile and Leah Ross were hostesses.

Professor Lawner Leaves for East
Prof. Franklin B. Launer of Olympia, Wash., who has been teaching the Christmas holidays in Salem and in Albany, will leave today for Christian college where he is head of the music department.

Enjoyable Holiday Dinner at Macy Home
A particularly enjoyable Christmas dinner party was that which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Macy. A miniature Christmas tree, as well as holly covered with scarlet berries, was used in the decorating.

In the group for the occasion were Ed Macy of Portland, Miss Pearl Macy of Portland, Albert Macy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Macy, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond May, Lillian May, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nugent and son Robert, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Macy, Roland Campbell, Virginia Pearl Campbell and Marian Macy.

Dinner Is Served at Kingwood Terraces
A most delightful dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Blevins in Kingwood Terrace on Christmas day in the form of a family reunion in special honor of the Rev. and Mrs. John

M. Springer, who have been missionaries to Africa for the past 25 years and who are now in their home country on furlough. Mrs. Springer's mother, and the late Harrison Prescott were brother and sister.

As a girl in her teens, Mrs. Springer went from her home in Philadelphia and spent five months in the Prescott home in Mapleton, N. D. and has not seen her cousins since except A. W. Prescott when he was in Washington. In addition to the cousins there were the children of Mr. Robins.

Rev. and Mrs. Springer will be speaking in the Oregon churches during most, if not the whole, of the month of January, and then go on down into California making their way back to New York about the first of April. As soon as they can complete their work in America they expect to return to Africa, which is the only place they really consider their home.

Pastor to Speak at Training School
Rev. C. E. Ward, pastor of the First Congregational church, will speak on Sunday afternoon at the boys' training school under the auspices of the institutions department of the Salem Woman's club. Rev. Mr. Ward will take as his subject, "Making Good."

Christmas Guests at Scott Home
Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott had as their dinner guests at their home on Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Scott of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hartman and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hartman of Silverton, Mrs. E. Cobb of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Casement and Cleone Casement of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kightlinger and Miss Mary Kightlinger.

Christmas Recital at Henry Lee Home

Union Veterans Celebrate Christmas Season
An old-time observance of Christmas and a thoroughly delightful program entertained the members of the Grand Army of the Republic on Tuesday evening in their rooms at the armory. The hosts were the Sons' organization and their auxiliary. Each guest present received a gift and a treat of nuts and sweets. Happy days of long ago were recalled by the veterans while members of the younger generation were made glad to see the veterans enjoy the evening.

While every number on the program was distinctly enjoyed, the number probably received with the most favor was the solo and reading by Comrade Harris, who is 88 years old.

The following program was given: Song, America, by audience; prayer, by Comrade Lisle; vocal numbers by Sons of Veterans' quartet; reading, by Pauline Remington; solo by Comrade Harris; reading, by L. P. Bennett; song, by male quartet; solo, by Agnes Coenenberg; reading, by Carrie Chase; duet, Mrs. Charles Fessenden and Mrs. Eugene Prescott; and song, "The Star Spangled Banner," by the audience.

Hal Hibbard Auxiliary
The members of Hal Hibbard auxiliary will meet at the armory Monday evening, Jan. 3, for the purpose of installing the new officers.

Can Do Class Meets for Yuletide Party on Wednesday Evening
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Bishop on South Commercial street was the scene of an enjoyable Christmas party on Wednesday evening when members of the Can Do class of Leslie Methodist church met at this time. Mrs. J. Willard De Yoe, who is teacher of the class, was made the recipient of an appreciated gift. The committee in charge of the affair included Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Wayne Greenwood.

Christmas decorations, gifts and refreshments were all in keeping with the season.

Four Generations Present for Annual Christmas Reunion at Jones Home

The usual Christmas family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Jones of L-bish Meadows farm. There were present four generations—mother, grandmother and great-grandmother Hovenden, aged 87 years, hale and hearty the most bountiful Santa Claus of all. Attending were Mrs. A. M. Cammon, daughters Peggy, Sallie and Gertrude, Mr. and Mrs. John Withycombe, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill B. Moores, Mr. and Mrs. Elias H. Jones and children Elias H. Jr., Janice, Ruth and Patricia Jean. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Jones and young son R. E. Jr.

A specialty was a fine Christmas fruit cake sent to Mrs. Hovenden by relatives in Honolulu, who have been proprietors of the Love Bakery since the early fifties.

A Christmas tree following the dinner was the scene of much merriment.

Ever Ready Birthday Club Honors Two Anniversaries
Mrs. Mary Briggs and Mrs. Louise Loveland were hostesses for members of the Ever Ready Birthday club on Tuesday afternoon at the Briggs home, 344 S. 19th street. Mrs. Briggs is the wife of a Civil War veteran. A grand-daughter of Mrs. Briggs, Miss Virginia Albert of Portland, assisted the hostesses. The hostesses, who were also the honor guests, received many useful gifts.

Club members present included Mrs. Florence Shipp, Mrs. Clara Adams, Mrs. Mary Hall, Miss Edna Hall of Portland, Mrs. Jennie Martin, Mrs. O. H. Strand, Miss Doris Strand, Mrs. Pauline Clark, Mrs. Lizzie W. Smith, Mrs. Hattie Kennen, Mrs. H. M. Wade and Mrs. Bertha Loveland.

Institutions Department Sponsors Program at Feeble Minded School
A particularly enjoyable program was sponsored on Wednesday evening at the feeble minded school by the institutions department of the Salem Woman's club.

Mrs. John Reed gave a group of appreciated dramatic readings, "Angeline Johnson," "The Serenade," "International Courtship" and "When Mother Goose Goes to Club."

Children at the school were delighted with the stunts in magic which Edward Lucas gave.

Lyman McDonald, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. McDonald, sang a group of four numbers, "I Love a Little Cottage," "O'Hare," "Lazin' Along," (Terry); "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride," (by O'Hara) and "A Pastoral," by Turner Maley.

Those who motored out to the school were Mr. and Mrs. Lyman McDonald, Mrs. John Reed, Miss Eloise Reed, Mrs. C. H. Lewis, Edward Lewis and Mrs. S. M. Endicott.

Recovers From Minor Operation
The many friends of Miss Leah Ross will be glad to know that she is recovering satisfactorily from a recent operation performed for the removal of tonsils.

Hungarian Pianist Who Will Appear Here Declared Successor of Beethoven
If Brahms or Beethoven were to appear at the Elsdore theater under the management of the Salem Artist series, who would fall to hear these great composers? No one! Yet Dohnanyi, who is to appear, has been declared a worthy successor to these great masters of music critics in many parts of the world.

Dohnanyi, who is still in his early forties, is pianist, composer, conductor, all in one. He has already created more than two score opus and taken part in over 1,000

De Lapp-Lathrop Nuptials Performed in West Salem
Miss Nina Lathrop of West Salem and Floyd De Lapp of Salem were married at 11 o'clock in the morning of December 28 at the parsonage in West Salem. Rev. Mr. Cannell was the officiating clergyman. The young couple were attended by the bride's grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Riedesel of Salem, who served as best man and matron of honor.

The bride is a graduate of the Salem high school. For the past year and a half she has been employed by Drs. Burton and Darby, dentists. The groom is employed by the Spaulding Logging company.

After a short trip to coast points Mr. and Mrs. De Lapp will be at home to their friends at 296 State street, West Salem.

Mrs. Adams Entertains Staff of Officers
Mrs. Clara Adams, retiring president of the Woman's Relief corps, was hostess in a delightful way when on Wednesday afternoon she entertained the officers of the corps at her home. The afternoon was spent in needlework and conversation, after which refreshments were served. New Year's cards marked places for the guests. Each visitor responded with a toast to the old year and the new.

Mrs. Adams was presented with a piece of silverware and a china dish as tokens of esteem from those who have worked with her.

Those in the group were Mrs. Mary Ackerman, Mrs. Jennie Martin, Mrs. Hattie B. Cameron, Mrs. Nettie Schram, Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mrs. Fannie Fisher, Mrs. Florence Shipp, Mrs. Susie Botta, Mrs. Myrtle Collins, Mrs. Louisa King, Mrs. Della Clearwater, Mrs. Francis Thompson, Mrs. Lulu Borning and Mrs. Bertha Loveland.

Attractive Tea Honors Silverton Bride-to-Be
SILVERTON, Ore., Dec. 30.—(Special).—Honoring Catherine Woodard, bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Woodard, and Mrs. Foster Clark Cone, recent bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Latham, Dorothy May Hubbs and Mrs. Frank Almi (Helen Currie) were hostesses at an attractive tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbs.

About one hundred guests called during the tea hours from 3 to 6 o'clock. The door was opened by Ruth Margaret Hubbs; and Mrs. George Hubbs and Mrs. J. C. Currie, mothers of the hostesses greeted the guests. Receiving were the two honor guests, Miss Woodard and Mrs. Cone, and the two hostesses, Miss Hubbs and Mrs. Alm. At the lower end of the living room Mrs. H. B. Latham and Mrs. M. C. Woodard, mothers of the honor guests, were greeted by friends. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Frank Hubbs, Rosella Richardson, Mrs. George Steelhammer, and Virginia Dorcas of Eugene.

In charge of the dining room were Mrs. Forest Stamey and Betty Lee of Aberdeen, Wash. Presiding at the tea table during the afternoon were Mrs. Fred Treadgold, Mrs. J. Ballentyne, Mrs. H. B. Latham, Mrs. S. E. Richardson, and Mrs. Gertrude Cammeron. Assisting in serving were Louise Fischer, Olive Banks, Kathleen Booth and Olivia Dequire. A very distinguished out of town guest was Fraulein Marianne Danko of Vienna, Austria. Fraulein Danko is a guest of Ida Tweeton of the Marion county health demonstration. Miss Woodard has been very active with the local health center and all the women members of the Marion county demonstration bureau were present.

An interesting feature was the music furnished by Paul's Pied Pipers, a girl's six-piece orchestra of Salem.

The Hubbs' home was particularly attractive in its holiday attire. Poinsettias, red carnations, mistletoe, and holly were used in profusion. Tall red candles also added to the festiveness of the occasion.

face. It was his first time in make-up, and DeLuca had to borrow a box of cold cream and supervise the removal of the king's whiskers and monarchical wrinkles. "I am sure glad that's over," MacPherson said, when he got his six feet something into street clothes. "And now I'm going home to see my wife and baby." Mrs. Louise MacPherson, his wife, was confined to bed with a broken hip that made it impossible for her to attend her husband's debut. Bulletins on the debut were given Mrs. MacPherson by telephone, friends acting as announcers.

Motion pictures in the classroom are favored by Edouard Herriot, French minister of public instruction.

Concerts in all countries of Europe, in England and in the United States. Above his almost superhuman and dynamic energy he is a composer of such merit that critics have frequently compared him to both Brahms and Beethoven.

Dohnanyi has written an opera entitled "Vaydas Tower," the book of which is by Hans Heinz Ewers, and which was first produced by the Royal Opera in Budapest in 1922. At present he is at work on a comic opera, "The Tenor," the libretto of which has been written by Carl Sternheim.

Dohnanyi lives the greater part of his time in Budapest in a truly musical atmosphere, where he is idolized by his compatriots who fill the concert halls whenever he appears.

Father Buck Entertains Choir With Dinner at Hotel
A very pretty dinner was given by Father Buck for the members of his choir on Tuesday evening at the Marion hotel, at which ten members were present. It was a decidedly informal affair, each guest relating a story or telling some interesting experience. At the close Father Buck thanked the members for their faithfulness and efficiency, and especially praised their music for Christmas eve, saying it was entirely according to the wishes of the church.
