Baptists to Come With Veteran Squad, Coach Keene Not Confident

Intercollegiate basketball will e provided for Salem fans for versity Bearouts meet the Linfield

This will be the second, of two games between these teams this week, and the public will know strength after tonight's game at contests will be played. The game here Saturday evening will start at 7:30 e'clock.

Linfield has been broadcasting of Willamette is not giving it while. A Salem show place. (*) partment is ready to give his sermuch credit. Linfield has practieally all of last year's team in action again this year, augmented by a number of good freshmen.

The Bearcats, on the other hand have already demonstrated their weakness in Wednesday night's game with the Black Cats, showing they lack teamwork, which is natural enough considering that only two members of last year's team-ave-playing. In the game with the Black Cats the collegians were, also weak as marksmeneven pooter than they have appeared, previously. Hartley was the only one who showed any degree of accuracy in shooting, and the entire squad was wild in passing. As a redeeming feature they exhibited more fight than they had
