SEVEN YEARS

By Laurence Binyon

Seven years have flown like seven days,
Like seven days of shining weather,
Since we, forsaking single ways,
Trod earth and faced the skies together.
The old is new, the new is old,
And who shall reckon, one or seven,
The years that Time has never told?
... He numbers not the days of Heaven.
From "High Tide."

Miss Edna Simonton Announces Betrothal Last Night at H. B. Thielsen Home

A host of Salem friends will be exceedingly interested in the news of the engagement of Miss Edna Simonton to Mr. Phillip Gearhart of Seattle which was made last night at the home of Mrs. H. B. Thielsen on Court Street, when Miss Nell Thielsen was hostess. Only a small group of intimate friends were bidden for the affair which was informal in nature.

Miss Simonton, the daughter of James Simonton, is a decidedly attractive and accomplished girl. She is a sister of Mrs. William Thielsen and of Mrs. Ivan Putnam. For the past few years Miss Simonton has been in the employ of Frank C. Bramway as secretary in the state banking department. Since the department has moved to Portland Miss Simonton has made her home there.

Mr. Gearhart is the son of an old and prominent family of Astoria. It was for his family that the famous resort, Gearhart, was named. Mr. Gearhart, who is the northwest business manager for the Automatic Sprinkler company, is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis.

While no date for the wedding has been set it is understood that it will be an event of the early spring.

Miss Beverley Roberts Will Marry John Crandall Watson on January 15

The marriage of Miss Beverley Helen Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, to John Crandall Watson of Oakland, Cal., will be an elaborate and lovely event of Saturday evening, January 15, at St. Paul's Episcopal church. Rev. H. Duncan Chambers will read the impressive ritual at 8:15 o'clock.

A formal reception will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents on State street.

Mr. John Crandall Watson, the groom-to-be, arrived in Salem yesterday from California.

No bride-elect in Salem has ever been more delightfully feted than Miss Roberts.

Included in last week's pre-nuptial entertainment were two decidedly lovely affairs. One was the stocking shower on Monday evening at which Mrs. T. A. Livesley was hostess and the other was the hotel luncheon, followed by a fine party to the Elsinore at which Mrs. W. E. Burns entertained.

Included in Mrs. Burns' guest group were: Miss Roberts, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. C. G. Lewis and the hostess, Mrs. Spaulding.

Ten-Cover Dinner Last Night at Doan Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Doan was the scene of a delightful seven o'clock dinner party last night when Mr. and Mrs. Doan entertained for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Thiele of Portland, whose marriage was an event of New Year's day.

Covers at the dinner were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Byron Thiele and Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Kavanaugh of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Gragg and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Doan.

Dancing and cards were the diversions of the evening.

Barbara Frietche Tent Makes Interesting Report of Season's Work

The officers and members of Barbara Frietche tent No. 2, Department of Oregon, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, received with much interest the following report of the work as submitted by Louisa A. Horning:

On Jan. 12, 1926, the officers were installed by the department president, Mary M. Entress.

During the year just ending 12 new members have been initiated into the tent, bringing the membership to 124.

The usual contributions have been made to the Southern Memorial fund and to the GAR permanent fund, and additions made to the table equipment by the purchase of silver. More than $100 dollars has been expended from the fund for relief work, and $33 plus from the floral fund. In addition to the usual fees and dues, receipts from cooked food sales and miscellaneous contributions amounted to $62.50. Penny and birthday collections amounted to $26.10.

At Shipley's the ladies of Salem have satisfied themselves that they can get the finest fall and winter frocks, coats and dresses ever shown in this city.

In the work of relief and cheer, 500 galls were made. Luncheon was served to the veterans on Post day, and each veteran's birthday was remembered with a cake. Numerous other similar activities have been sponsored.

Flag day, Memorial day, patriots' birthdays, Armistice day and Christmas, as well as other occasions, have been remembered and appropriately observed by this earnest organization.

At the annual inspection of Barbara Frietche tent which was held on Nov. 10, 1926, with Sister Adeline Black, department inspector, in charge, the local tent received a rating of 99 per cent for its work.
