

NEWS OF THE STAGE AND SCREEN

Capitol Theater
A program of real stars is offered by the Capitol theater for today. All radio fans will welcome the Metro Harmony Four who became popular while entertaining at WCX where they were the outstanding feature of the popular Red Apple Club.

All the color and flash of circus, all the memory stirring fascination of the sawdust ring will be the portion of patrons at the Pantages Indoor Circus starting Monday matinee and continuing until Tuesday.

The Capitol theater will be transformed from a play house to a regular circus tent when the new show features the second Pantages gigantic indoor circus to travel over the entire circuit as a complete unit.

This new picture from the brilliant young director deals with a subject entirely different from anything he has previously done and he has handled it in the fine manner which has marked all his previous triumphs.

The story of "The Magician" is that of a girl caught between the forces of a Magician, whom she is unable to resist, and the love for a young surgeon who has saved her from being a helpless cripple by performing a delicate operation on her spine, which startled the surgical world.

Elsinore Theater
One man and one woman, marooned, cut off from the world, fighting their way to wealth. She, with nothing but hate and fear in her heart; he, strong, stoical, wondering whether or not he really loves her. How do two such people come from the ends of the earth to meet and marry?

Nora Marsh, up to the age of twenty, had lived all her sheltered life within the confines of a London home. Suddenly, walls, seemingly secure, had crashed. Where before, she had been rich, she is destitute. So, Nora sets out for the only haven she knows, her brother's farm in far Canada.

Then to disturb their happiness comes tragedy, sweeping down without warning. Overnight, everything is wiped out. Failure opens the door and stabs in. What happens? See "The Canadian" at the Elsinore theater Sunday and Monday. There will be a special prologue on Monday and today Cole McElroy's band will furnish special entertainment.

"Rain," the outstanding dramatic sensation of the last four years of American theatrical history, comes to this city shortly. This announcement alone should stir the hearts of local amusement lovers. The coming of this great play will be an event in the theatrical history of this community.

The fact that the action occurs at Pago Pago in the South Seas gives opportunity for elaborate scenic effects. Modesty is a virtue. We dislike appearing egotistical, but we believe the offering we make you in tires reaches the height of economy. Malcom's Tire Shop.

EUROPE FRIGHTENED BY WIDESPREAD SPY SCARE

in Paris recently of a former officer of the British army, Graham Vivian Stranders, whose wife is German. He is awaiting trial as a German spy. Then a woman, known as the "eye of Moscow," recently was imprisoned in France. In Essen a long trusted German employee of the famous Krupp works was arrested and charged with espionage in behalf of France. He was reported to have committed suicide after his arrest.

Czecho-Slovakia furnished the most sensational spy drama of all in the retirement of Rudolph Gaida, young hero of the Czech legions in Siberia, from high army rank after a scandal involving wine, women and military secrets. Gaida is alleged to have been mixed up in the meshes of the Soviet secret service which is the bogic of all the European governments.

Great Britain is ever watchful against "soviet spies." Even a party of innocent appearing Russian teachers desirous of attending an educational convention in England have been refused admission to the country.

In the Mediterranean countries the rule of Mussolini, De Riccio and Mustapha Kemal Pasha have resulted in numerous plots and counterplots. They are mostly domestic affairs but the secret service nets often catch foreigners involved in them.

At the out of Europe's revived spy system is the fact that although the League of Nations eliminates the old European menace of secret treaties, it does not touch the secret services. Consequently the governments are still spending large sums of money watching each other.

So far as known Great Britain and the United States are the only countries having a gentlemen's agreement to put their cards on the table and body ask each other for any information desired, military or otherwise. If the information wanted is so secret that the other country cannot disclose it, the gentlemen's agreement is that there will be no spying, snooping or plotting to get it.

ONCE IN A BLUE MOON

There comes to every community an event that demands attention, that stirs the imagination and excites the admiration of the people in a most remarkable way.

Such an event is the forthcoming Henry Duffy production of "RAIN", shortly to be seen in this city. Here is the perfect play, courageous, virile, true.

Here, too, is a perfect cast. A real star, set in a bright constellation. Actors, who seem not to act, but to live their roles. Scenic features unsurpassed.

The Pacific Coast dramatic critics have not enthused over another play in years as they did over

RAIN WITH ISABEL WITHERS

LISTEN TO THEIR EULOGIES

"Rain" is the most consistently popular dramatic success in ten seasons. Here is acting of the first rank, acting that is ironic, mordant, vivid and wonderfully sustained. Lovers of fine acting are unfortunate if anything prevents them from seeing "Rain".—Idwal Jones, SAN FRANCISCO EXAMINER.

"Rain" is a fine play, maybe great, in its understanding of a woman's soul. Isabel Withers gives an independent and vivid performance of Sadie, an illuminating impersonation, well planned and skillfully executed.—George Warren, SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE.

A mighty play, mightily well played. SAN FRANCISCO CALL.
