DRYS SENT TO ISLAND

Ex-Prohibition Agents Leave to Serve Sentences

PORTLAND, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Arthur Christensen and Robert A. C. Smith, ex-state and ex-federal prohibition agents, were included in a party of federal prisoners who were taken to McNeill island today under the direction of Alexander Davidson, deputy United States marshal. The three former agents are under sentence of 18 months each and a fine of $250 upon conviction last spring in the federal court here on charges of conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law.

They were charged with having conspired with known bootleggers to sell to them part of a raid which had been seized in a raid on a still on a Willamette river island near St. Paul, Or.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Morton of The Dalles are visiting Salem. Ralph E. Koser of Medford and William J. Ferns of Talent are among the not of town people in Salem for the week-end.
