BUSINESS MEN'S CLASS AT "Y" HAS GYM CONTEST

The business men's gymnasium class, 40 strong, put on a gymnasium contest and followed it by a dinner last night at the YMCA. Delegates appointed to attend the northwest physical conference to be held at the Portland YMCA January 22 and 23 are O. J. Hull, Leon Gleason and L. E. Barrick.

H. B. Glatyer led the singing at the dinner program. The business men's quartet, Harry Pearson, E. H. Leach, L. E. Barrick, and J. J. Moritz, were loudly applauded.

New members for the business men's class will be sought under a plan presented by Leon Gleason for the contest next month. The class has been divided into two groups under Nile Hilburn and L. E. Barrick, captains. The groups will compete on points for attendance at class, winning of games, and new members obtained.

Talks at the dinner were given by O. J. Hull, Byron Wright, John Bayne, Dr. R. L. Wood, and C. E. Ward. George Hug was chairman.

TAKE INAUGURAL MOVIES

Like Patterson First Oregon Governor to be so Filmed

The movies caught the inauguration of the governor of the state of Oregon for the first time yesterday when powerful lights were rigged up in the house of representatives so that the Oregonian Screen Review and the Pathe News could film important parts of the ceremonies.

Will E. Hudson, Pathe staff cameraman from Seattle, made a special trip here to cover the inauguration for the northwest edition of the Pathe News. He was accompanied by Charles Piper, cameraman for the Oregonian Screen Review.
