American Legion Auxiliary Holds Formal Initiation on Monday

One of the most important meetings of the week was that held by the American Legion auxiliary on Monday evening at McCornack hall when the organization formally installed the officers of the new year. Mrs. Harold Rich of Dallas served as installing officer.

Those who took office are Mrs. Jesse George, president; Mrs. King Bartlett, first vice president; Mrs. Stanley Ostrander, second vice president; Mrs. Beryl DeGuire secretary; Mrs. Elma Libby, treasurer; Mrs. Frank Jirak, chaplain; Mrs. Albert Anderson, historian; Mrs. Willis Vincent, sergeant at arms; Mrs. Brazeau and Mrs. Richard Meyers, musicians.

Heads of committees have been chosen for the new year as follows: Executive, Mrs. Albert Gragg; Mrs. Lloyd Demarest and Mrs. Allan Cleveland; finance, Mrs. Paul Burris, chairman; publicity, Mrs. Earl Paulsen, chairman; child welfare, Mrs. Albert Gragg, chairman; guardianship, Mrs. Stanley Ostrander, chairman; hospital, Mrs. John Rottle, chairman; memorial and poppy, Mrs. Richard Meyers, chairman; membership and gold star, Mrs. Albert Anderson, chairman; constitution and by-laws, Mrs. Robert Budrow, chairman; emblem, Mrs. H. R. White, chairman; cooperation, Mrs. Laban Steeves, chairman; sick and relief, Mrs. Lyle Duns-moor, chairman; unit activities, made up of the chairmen of all other committees.

The retiring officers served as hostesses for an enjoyable social time following the installation. Included among the guests were ten visitors from Dallas. A program of interest included solos by Lyman McDonald and dance features by Miss Marjorie Webb and Miss Elizabeth Waters. Delicious refreshments were served in the banquet room. Lavender cynerarea centered the tables on which pink candles burned in crystal holders.

Brush College Debaters Will Appear in State Grange Debate

Mrs. Wayne Henry and Mrs. Elmer Cook, both of the Brush college grange, will have the honor of competing for a silver loving cup this evening when they uphold the negative at the state grange debate in Corvallis on the subject, "Resolved, that the federal government should not begin the development of any new reclamation projects until there is a demand for agricultural products at a price that will pay the cost of production, plus a reasonable profit."

The Brush college competitors, who were chosen following the final elimination, have the negative side.

The debate is a feature of the state grange meet which is in session in Corvallis. Mrs. W. F. McCall, lecturer for the Brush college group, is spending the week in Corvallis. Yesterday she gave an address on the subject of music.
