

LANDIS VERDICT EXPECTED TODAY

Twenty Baseball Stars; Half Still Active, Will Learn Respective Fate

CHICAGO, Jan. 11. (AP)—Twenty baseball stars, half of them still in the major leagues, will learn tomorrow whether Commissioner Landis believes them guilty of "sloughing" a Chicago-Detroit series in 1917, to help the White Sox win the American League pennant.

These managers are among the twenty, Ray Schalk of the White Sox, Donnie Bush of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and John Collins of the St. Louis Browns.

Thirty odd players paraded to the witness stand, all denying knowledge of the plot. Gandil upheld Risberg's confession and elaborated on the details, admitting he was the fixer and the collector of the White Sox pool.

But Bill James, the Detroit pitcher with whom Gandil made the arrangements to throw the series, denounced Gandil's assertions as "an absolute lie," and also contradicted him on the reason for the payment of the $350 Gandil gave him.

ARRANGE BIG SHOOT

YAKIMA CLUB SCHEDULES BIG EVENT FOR MAY 13-14-15

"The largest shoot in the West" is the slogan adopted by members of the Yakima Gun Club in preparation for the 1927 Washington State Traps shooting tournament which is to be held under the auspices of the Central Washington club.

Labor nor money is being spared by the Yakima Gun Club in preparation for this big event. Newly laid out grounds, new trap houses and club house is on the program already partly worked out for the 1927 Titular Trap event.

May 13-14-15 are the dates applied for by President N. O. Janse of the Yakima Gun Club from the Amateur Trapsshooters Association.

Four new concrete trap houses and shooting walks are now in readiness and are being used by the local members for their weekly shoots. In addition to this two temporary traps will be installed during the tournament which will assure the visiting shooters the crowd will be handled easily and the programs run off with dispatch.

While the program has only been outlined there is one special event that will be a feature in the State Tournament that being the "Yakima 100." This special money event was originated in Yakima several years ago and has ever since been a popular part of the annual tournament.
