St. Paul's Church Will be Scene of Brilliant Wedding Tonight

One of the most brilliant weddings which Salem society has ever seen is being celebrated at St. Paul's Episcopal church when Miss Beverley Roberts, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, will become the bride of Mr. John Crandall Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Watson of Portland.

Three hundred invitations have been issued for the ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. H. Duncan Chambers. The wedding marches will be played by Prof. T. S. Roberts.

Miss Roberts has chosen Miss Virginia Coke of Portland as her maid of honor. Miss Coke and Miss Roberts were school friends of St. Helen's Hall, of which Miss Roberts is a graduate.

Mr. Watson's best man will be Carl Gabrielson of Salem. The six bridesmaids will include Miss Mildred Roberts, Miss Dorothy Livesley, Miss Charlotte Zehner, Miss Nancy Thielsen, Miss Jeanette Plimpton of Seattle and Miss Daryl Torrey of Portland.

The ushers will be Willard Marshall, Malcolm Smith, Ted Young of Albany, Walter Fuhrer, James Rice of Pendleton and Charles Coffey.

Patsy Livesley, as ring bearer, will lead the procession. Immediately preceding the bride will be Ann Reed Burns, the flower girl.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts entertained their daughter's wedding party at dinner at their home on State street.

Miss Patterson and Miss Roberts are honored with delightful tea.

One of the loveliest compliments planned for the pleasure of two extremely popular brides-elect in Salem this season was the tea of Thursday afternoon at which Mrs. Dan J. Fry Jr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner were joint hostesses at the Fry home, complimenting Miss Beverley Roberts and Miss Dorothy Patterson.

Coral pink carnations, pussy willows and green tapers in silver holders were used effectively in the rooms and on the tea table.

Mrs. John J. Roberts and Mrs. Edward Gray Patterson presided at the urns.

Those assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn, Mrs. Freyman Buse, Mrs. Aasi Epp, Mrs. Fritz Slade and Mrs. Harry Hawkins.

On Tuesday, Miss Roberts, the bride of tonight, was honored at a decidedly delightful bridge luncheon when Mrs. Harry Hawkins entertained. A 1 o'clock luncheon at the Gray Belle was followed by bridge at the Hawkins home.

Mrs. R. M. Hofer won the prize at this affair. A beautiful arrangement of freesias, pink carnations and heather centered the table.

Fifty-Three Women Attend Interesting Meeting of WFMS

A particularly interesting meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Baker on Court street.

Three new members, Mrs. E. O. Moll, Mrs. Harvey Vannice and Mrs. R. B. Baldere, were introduced.

The rooms were attractively decorated with rose-pink carnations and freesias. Fifty-three women were present for the program and business meeting.

Mrs. Leonard Nelson had charge of the first chapter in the study book, "The Master Personality."

Mrs. Ray L. Farmer presented the many difficulties surrounding the life of the Moslem women.

Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. Earl Percy, Mrs. Stanley Lainsen, Mrs. Al Krause, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Anasley G. Bates, Mrs. Linn Smith, Mrs. P. M. Gregory and the hostesses, Mrs. Lunsford and Mrs. Grabenhorst.

On the table green lighted candles were used in crystal holders. Mrs. E. M. Hoffnell won the first prize, while the second award went to Mrs. Al Krause.

Mrs. Pratt Is Hostess for Kensington Club

A delightful affair of the week was the meeting of the Kensington club on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles S. Pratt on Liberty street. Pussy Willows and palms decorated the rooms where faneywork and conversation were enjoyed.

Included in the group were Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mrs. Herbert Hauser, Mrs. Fred Anunsen, Mrs. George P. Griffith, Mrs. Henry E. Morris and the hostess, Mrs. Chas. S. Pratt.

At the next meeting of the club Mrs. A. C. Smith will be the hostess.

Members of Amperette Club Entertain Husbands With Card Party

Members of the Amperette club entertained their husbands with a card party Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Mason Bishop, 1350 South Commercial street.

Prizes were won by Mrs. H. M. Sechler and Ellsworth Hartwell. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. M. D. Travis and J. O. Price.

After the cards, refreshments were served by the committee, consisting of Mrs. Glenn Seelye, Mrs. Earl Chapel and Mrs. Merle Travis.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sechler, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Houth, Mr. and Mrs. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Travis, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Hartwell, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Seelye, Mrs. Earl Chapel, Mrs. William Renchelor and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Merriott.

The regular monthly business meeting will be held Monday, Jan. 24, at the home of Mrs. Henry Sechler, 920 North 21st street. All members are urged to attend.

Russian Violinist Will Make Brilliant Appearance at Elsinore on Tuesday

Miss Cecilia Hansen, the young Russian violinist who will appear here on Tuesday at the Elsinore theater, has aroused more discussion than any artist to appear in this country for many years.

Miss Hansen was born in a Cossack settlement and heard her first music from military bands. As a child she showed an intense love for music, and began to play the violin at an early age. Her first formal studies were begun at the Rostov conservatory, and in 1909 she became the pupil of Prof. Leopold Auer at the Petrograd conservatory. He refers to her in his book of reminiscences, "My Long Life in Music," as one of the most promising students that he ever had.

Miss Hansen was graduated in 1914, two of her famous classmates being Jascha Heifetz and Toscha Seidel. She was one of the prize winners in her class and was the youngest woman ever to receive the gold medal, being then a young girl of not quite 16.

The world war made it impossible for her to embark on the continental tour which had been planned for her, and she was compelled to play in Russia for several years, becoming an idol there. Revolutionary conditions, however, made it difficult for the young artist, and in 1921 she made a dramatic escape through the fog and rain of the Baltic sea in a flimsy rowboat. Her fame, nevertheless, had reached Continental Europe ahead of her and her success in Finland, Germany, Austria, Czecho-Slovakia and Scandinavia was immediate and unparalleled.

Miss Hansen's brilliant American debut at Carnegie Hall, New York, fulfilled the predictions that she would capture America as she had Europe. In an era of great violinists, this charming and beautiful young woman has won a place among the greatest and her appearance here is a notable event.

Interesting Screen Contest Will Open Tonight at Oregon Theater

Much interest of a sincere sort is expected to attend the Oregon theater screen contest which will formally open tonight. Eligible young men and women are invited to register for the competition, which will continue throughout the week.

Each participant will have the unusual opportunity of registering his or her particular type of talent before the camera. Each participant will have the further privilege of portraying that type of emotion to which his or her personality is most adapted, and later seeing the result on the screen. Some individuals may prefer to run the entire gamut of human emotions.

The contest, which will be profitable and diverting to all those who give themselves the opportunity to enter, is being conducted under the best of auspices.

The prize is a trip to Hollywood some time in February, with every expense paid, in addition, the winner will travel in special car bearing his or her name.

Application blanks should be filled out at the Oregon theater at the earliest opportunity.

Dinner Guests at Breithaupt Home

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Breithaupt entertained as their guests at dinner on Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Boyer, their niece, Miss Elvina Breithaupt, and their daughter, Miss Irene Breithaupt and Miss Helen Breithaupt.
