Tomlinson, and as the former president of the Beethoven society of Willamette University, served as chairman of the committee which planned the reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Boris Zakharoff (Cecilia Hansen) on Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Claudius Thayer at 255 N. Capitol St. Miss Hansen, violinist, gave the third concert in the Salem Artist series, at the Elsinore Theatre. Upper right: Miss Genevieve Junk, an attractive member of the Willamette University student body who, assisted by Miss Charlotte Zieher, served as hostess at the Cecilia Hansen reception. The Beethoven society, of which Miss Junk is a member has been the sponsoring organization for the Salem Artist series which will end with the Werrenrath concert on Tuesday night. Lower left: Carol Virginia Cook, attractive small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther D. Cook of 1490 North Cottage street. Carol Virginia will celebrate her second birthday on the fourth of March. Lower right: Miss Bert Holt, a popular member of the Salem High school faculty, who has consented to serve on the Y.W.C.A. publicity committee, of which Mrs. Eric Butler is chairman, in the interest of the approaching financial campaign next month.

STRETCH OUT YOUR HAND

Stretch out your hand and take the world's wide gift
Of joy and beauty. Open wide your soul
Down to its utmost depths, and bare the whole
To earth's prophetic dower of clouds that lift
Their clinging shadows from the sunlight's rift,—
The sapphire symphony of seas that roll
Full-breasted auguries from deep to shoal,
Borne from dim caverns on the salt spray's drift.

Open the windows of your wondering heart,
And of all beauty make yourself a part.

From "The Call of Brotherhood."

Salem Woman's Club Will Honor New Members and Legislators' Wives at Tea

Plans are being rapidly completed for a tea on Tuesday afternoon at the Salem Woman's club house, honoring the new members of the club and wives of legislators who are guests in the city.

Calling hours will be from 2 to 5 o'clock. The members of the executive committee and of the hospitality committee will receive the guests in the club house reception room.

In the dining room the following will be the hostesses: Mrs. S. M. Endicott, Mrs. George H. Allen, Mrs. H. D. Chambers, Mrs. F. G. Bowersox, Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. Charles Weller, and Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding.

Mrs. W. E. Kirk will pour and Mrs. Seymour Jones will cut the loaves.

Yesterday the Salem Woman's club, meeting in regular session, had the pleasure of hearing Professor Leo G. Fairbanks of the Oregon Agricultural College, speak on "Art in the Home."

Mrs. Earl Peary sang two vocal solos, "Indian Love Call" and "The Merchant Prince." Instrumental numbers were Beethoven's "Sonata Pathetique," played by Lillian Lyman, and the Liszt arrangement of Schubert's "Hark, Hark, the Lark," with Miss Erma Keffer at the piano.

At the tea hour Mrs. J. Lyman Stebbins and Miss Frances M. Richards presided at the urns. The table was lovely with a centerpiece of pink carnations, heather, and ferns. Tall pink tapers burned in crystal holders.

The social committee for the afternoon included: Mrs. Erwin Smith, general chairman, Mrs. Art Walker, Mrs. W. W. Baum, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. D. J. Fry, and bowls of early spring flowers. Pink Japanese quince, the pale yellow and white of paper narcissi, the lavender of heather, and the white of freesias mingled in a pleasing way.

The tea table was particularly lively with a similar mingling of spring flowers and tall lighted tapers in pastel shades.

In the living rooms the hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. M. N. Cusick, Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. W. C. Kantner, and Mrs. W. Carlton Smith.

From three to four o'clock Mrs. Robert J. Hendricks and Mrs. Fred Steustoff presided at the urns. At the second hour their places were taken by Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner and Mrs. William Brown.

Those assisting in the serving were Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. Fritz Slade and Mrs. Harry Hawkins.

Portland Symphony Orchestra Will Play in Salem on February 14

Final arrangements have been made for the appearance of the Portland Symphony Orchestra, of which Willem Van Hoogstraten is the director, in Salem, at the Elsinore theatre, on Monday evening, February 14. The coming of the orchestra to Salem is an event of the most significant sort. It is many years since Salem has had such a pleasure.

This will be the Portland orchestra's first out-of-town engagement this season. With the coming of Hoogstraten to the coast, many Salem music lovers have regularly, even to the extent of buying season tickets, attended the concerts in Portland. It will be a decided boon to these to know that they may hear an outstanding orchestra in their own incomparable theater. Many who have never found it convenient to attend one of the concerts in Portland have reason to rejoice that a genuine treat is soon to be theirs.

German Baptist Church Is Scene of Impressive Wedding Ceremony on Thursday

One hundred and seventy-five invitations were issued for the wedding on Thursday, January 20, of Miss Freda Kruger to Mr. Otto A. Hillman which was solemnized at 8 o'clock in the evening at the German Baptist church at the corner of North Cottage and D streets.

Rev. Gustav Schunke performed the ceremony.

A prelude of wedding music preceded the marriage. Mrs. Frank Zinn, at the piano, played "Love's Greeting," Schubert's "Serenade," and "Narcissus," the latter number being followed by Lohengrin's Wedding March.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Harry Harms sang "Because." After the vows were spoken Professor R. W. Hans Seltz played, as a cello number, Schuman's "Traumerel."

The church, which was decorated by Brethaupt, was filled with a profusion of lavender, pink, and white flowers, chrysanthemums and carnations mingled with a background of palms and fern. A beautiful candelabra of seven lighted candles burned at the altar.

The bride, who was charmingly gowned in white georgette worn with a filmy veil of tulle, carried a shower bouquet of butterfly roses and freesias. She wore a double wreath of orange blossoms in her hair.

Miss Lily Pollard, wearing a frock of orchid georgette, and carrying fressias, carnations and Columbia roses, was maid of honor. Miss Carrie Gieger, in Nile green crepe de chine, and carrying a lovely arm bouquet of roses and carnations was bridesmaid.

The little Misses Shirman and Lake attended the bride as flower girls. Each maid carried a basket Prominent Salem people who will leave tomorrow morning for a six months' trip around the world. Mr. Fry will represent Salem, Oregon at the Rotary International at Ostend, Belgium next May.

When the magnificent new S. S. California steams out of San Pedro harbor at 7 o'clock in the morning of Friday February 4, it will have as passengers two prominent Salem citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., who have chosen this superb oil-burning cruiser to take them to the Hawaiian Islands, Japan, China, Java, India, Ceylon, Egypt, the Holy Land, Greece and, as a crowning attraction, to Europe in the springtime, before returning to the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Fry who have been variously honored since sharing their plans for the trip with their friends, will leave tomorrow morning on the Shasta for Los Angeles. They will spend the days before embarking with their youngest daughter, Miss Frisella Fry, who is a student at the Westlake School for Girls.

In an eastward, instead of an eastward, itinerary Mr. and Mrs. Fry will go at once to Hilo, where they will visit the great volcano, Kilauea. After that they will visit the sub-tropical wonders of Honolulu. Twenty days after sailing they will reach Yokohama and Tokyo, Japan.

On March 2, Mr. and Mrs. Fry will be in Kobe, Japan, where the eastward bound and westward bound cruises meet and mingle for several days. At this time Mr. and Mrs. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. McGilchrist, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. Andrew Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Jones, and Miss Alta Jones will meet and exchange greetings.

Leaving Kobe, the S. S. California will continue to China, visits to Shanghai and Hong-Kong, with an ascent to the summit of Victoria Peak, will be followed by a trip up the Pearl river to the largest and most characteristic city of all southern China, Canton.

Early morning of St. Patrick's Day will see Mr. and Mrs. Fry in Manila. After that they will go to Batavia, the capital of Java. They will visit the world-famous botanical gardens at Buitenzorg. Next they will visit Singapore going thence to the fascinating city of Rangoon in Burma, famed for its Golden Pagoda, its bizarre street scenes, and its trained elephants.

Seventeen days will be spent in India that country which has been described as "strange, mystic, and unfathomable, as though one were seeing life on a different planet." An optional trip into the interior will permit the tourists to see Mt. Everest, the giant of the Himalayas. Easter Sunday will be spent on the high seas between India and Egypt.

Following India will come the Red Sea, the Suez Canal, and Port Said, and three days in Cairo, with visits at the Pyramids and Sphinx, and stops at such famous hotels as Shepherd's and the Continental-Savoy. Following the Palestine coast the S. S. California will arrive at Haifa from which the Holy Land may be visited at optional. Athens, Greece, will be the next stop. At Naples, once on the home stretch, Mr. and Mrs. Fry will leave the party for a two month's tour of Europe. Leaving the steamer on Wednesday, May 4, they will avoid re-tracing ground which they have already covered, since Mr. and Mrs. Fry visited in France and Switzerland extensively on a previous trip abroad. Once in Europe, Mr. and Mrs. (Continued on page 4.)
