The January meeting of the Salem Montana club, held Monday night, proved to be the most successful since its organization. Approximately 350 former Montanans gathered at the chamber of commerce auditorium for a program of instrumental and vocal music, readings and a short business session.

At nine o'clock the club adjourned its meeting in the auditorium and went to Derby hall held, using the club orchestra led by Marcus Yates. Several visitors came from Portland and Eugene who told local officers that this meeting was the largest and most successful of any Montana organization they had ever attended. The next meeting will be held at the chamber of commerce auditorium February 24, entertaining as special guests all citizens of Salem who have come to the state in the past two years. C. F. Gillette, president of the organization, urges that all new residents send their names and Addresses to his office, 316 First TRY THE HOME WET WASH LAUR National Bank building, and they dry.
