Memorial Seeks Relief for Farmers in Markets

In behalf of the over burdened farmer who is said to be bearing the heaviest load so far as taxes are concerned, the house passed a memorial urging congress to enact legislation that might bring relief to the producers, in the way of marketing their products. They suggested, that congress put in practice same act similar to the McNarr-Hangen bill, which has been tried out in other states. and proven successful. Representatives Gordon and Balley voted against the memorial. The resolution from the senate asking congress to repeal the inheritance tax was adopted in the
