

Four Salem matrons who are prominent in the activities of the local Daughters of the Nile club which meets regularly for philanthropic work: Upper left, Mrs. Ethel Niles, past president of the club; upper right, Mrs. Grace Crater, newly elected president; lower left, Mrs. Adeline Dunsford, secretary-treasurer (re-elected); and lower right, Mrs. Ola Miller, vice president.

A DREAM'S A BUBBLE

A dream's a bubble, Anne, and yet a world
Unsailed, uncharted, mine. But stretch your hand
To touch it—gone! And you have wet your fingers,
Whilst I, like Alexander, want my world—
Clemence Dane: Will Shakespeare

Eleanor Merewether and Dean Lobaugh Announce Their Betrothal Thursday

Of much interest in local college circles is the news of the engagement of Miss Eleanor Merewether to Mr. Dean Lobaugh, both popular members of the senior class at Willamette university. The betrothal was made known on Thursday evening when Miss Merewether and her fiancé each shared the news with a group of intimate friends.

Miss Ivaadell Crozier was hostess at her home at 670 Union street for the delightful affair at which Miss Merewether told the news, while Mr. Lobaugh told his friends at the home of Mrs. Eva Brown at 939 Union street.

The secret was concealed with-in the senior caps which were passed to the guests, each cap containing pictures of the betrothed couple.

In the group at Miss Crozier's home were Miss Eleanor Merewether, Miss Letha Miller, Miss Edna Leadbetter, Miss Edna Wentz, Miss Fern Warner, Miss Mildred Tomlinson, Miss Mildred Mills, Miss Virginia Merle Crites, Miss Beulah Launer, Miss Dorothy Ferrier, Miss Clara Herscher, Miss Helen Bridgman, Miss Marvel Rhine, Miss Savilla Ricks, and Miss Gladys Fiescher.

Mr. Lobaugh's friends included Harley Allen, Wayne Crow, Everett Faber, Earl Lawton, Maurice Hallmark, Neil Brown, and Donald Grant.

Miss Merewether is a member of the Delta Phi sorority, while Mr. Lobaugh is an Alpha Psi Delta. Miss Merewether's home is in Portland and Mr. Lobaugh's in Prosser, Wash.

No wedding date has been set.

W. F. M. S. Plans February Tea Meeting for Wednesday

The regularly monthly tea of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee, 1515 State street. Mrs. Charles Lisle will have charge of the devotion, and Mrs. M. Keefer of the lesson.

The tea committee includes the Mesdames Shade, Davis, Hansen, Savage, Gibbard, and Miller.

All ladies are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Belle Is Guest in Salem

Miss Gene Belle of Portland is spending the week-end in Salem as the house-guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Belle. Miss Belle, who arrived on Thursday will return to Portland tomorrow.

Grax Club Will Sponsor Program at Boys Training School

The Grax club of the Y. M. C. A. will have charge of an interesting program Monday afternoon, February 7, at the Boys' Industrial school. Miss Myrtle Smith is in charge.

Salem Matrons Motor to Eugene to Attend Tea

An exceedingly attractive affair in Eugene yesterday afternoon was the formal tea at the Gamma Phi Beta house on the University of Oregon campus, honoring Mrs. Josephine Stewart.

A group of prominent Salem friends of Mrs. Stewart who attended the affair include Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, Mrs. A. N. Gilbert, Mrs. B. O. Schucking, Mrs. Robert J. Hendricks, Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. J. H. Lauterman, Miss Margaret Cosper, Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. Reuben P. Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Pease Are Portland Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Pease are spending the week-end in Portland as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Taylor. Mrs. Pease and Mrs. Taylor were school friends at the Missouri State university.

Rapheterians Meet for a Delightful Afternoon at H. S. Gile Home

Boulder Knoll, the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gile, was the scene of an exceedingly enjoyable meeting of members of the Rapheterian club on Thursday. Practically every member was in attendance. Mrs. E. A. Colony, Mrs. R. L. Gile and Mrs. George Mitchell of Moro were present as additional guests. Mrs. Mitchell, a niece of Mrs. Tlepha White, is a visitor in Salem.

An afternoon of needlework and conversation was followed with delicious refreshments at the tea hour. The guests were served at a number of small tables.

The personnel of the Rapheterian club includes Mrs. Carl Abrams, Mrs. Charles E. Bates, Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mrs. H. V. Compton, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. Cecil Hawley, Mrs. James G. Heitzel, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. Morton E. Peck, Mrs. Guy O. Smith, Mrs. Ray L. Smith, Mrs. Charles L. Sherman, Mrs. A. A. Stewart, Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson, Mrs. Lee Unruh, Mrs. Floyd L. Utter, Mrs. Elepha White, Mrs. Otto J. Wilson and the hostess, Mrs. H. S. Gile.

Buster Brown Shoe Store. High class, stylish looking, comfortable, long wearing shoes for the least money. Come and be convinced. 125 N. Com'l.

$5 GUARANTEED $5 Permanent Wave

Full head, long or short hair, any color. At last in reach of everybody. The same method and system in use as in our other locations. As we are here only a limited time make your appointments early.

Located at 115 New Bligh Bldg.—Telephone 2549

PERMANENT WAVE COMPANY

Also operating Los Angeles, Oakland, San Francisco, Portland and Seattle

Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, Noted Educator, Spends Wednesday in Salem

The most distinguished educator who has visited in Salem in many weeks was Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills college, who spent Wednesday in Salem.

A full schedule opened with the public chapel services at 11:15, at which Dr. Reinhardt was the guest-speaker. Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette university, introduced the visiting president who heads an institution which ranks with Wellesley, Bryn Mawr, Mt. Holyoke and Vassar. Dr. Doney presented Dr. Reinhardt as a woman with a great flair for scholarship, as a creative spirit, who won her degree of doctor of philosophy from Yale university.

In her address, Dr. Reinhardt named the three fundamental uses of a college, (1) To wake up the student, to bring about a regeneration of mind, and a conviction of the "moral obligation of intelligence." (2) To develop the judgment, i. e. the ability to discriminate and to criticize sanely, demanding that each action be either useful or beautiful. (3) To provide a perspective in order that the world may have Rembrandts instead of only Gilbert Stuarts, "who was a painter of faces instead of a civilization."

Following the chapel service, Miss Beatrice Walton was a luncheon hostess at the Marion hotel for the pleasure of the distinguished educator.

The most distinctive social event of the entire day was the tea in the afternoon at which Miss Frances M. Richards was hostess from 3 to 5 o'clock at Lausanne Hall.

The parlors and dining room were beautifully decorated with spring flowers.

Mrs. E. C. Richards and Mrs. Robert J. Hendricks greeted the guests.—150 in all—who called during the afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney received with Miss Richards and her guest.

Those who assisted in the rooms were Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. William E. Kirk, Mrs. F. M. Erickson, Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. Clifford W. Brown, Mrs. W. H. Burghardt and Mrs. M. L. Camp.

Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson and Mrs. Alice H. Dodd presided at the urns. The tea table was lovely with narcissi, freesias and carnations. Blue candles gleamed in crystal holders. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Ola Clark, Miss Dorothy Nicholson, Miss Merle McKelvey and Miss Leila Johnson.

In the evening Dr. Reinhardt was the honor guest at a dinner at the Elks' club at which members of the Salem chapter of the American Association of University Women were hostesses. Covers were placed for 75.

A corsage of violets marked the place for the honor guest. Those honored with places at Dr. Reinhardt's table were Mrs. George W. Hug, president of the Salem branch of University Women; Miss Cornelia Marvin, Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. Roy Klein and Mrs. Robert Dann.

Miss Josephine Albert, accompanied by Miss Pauline Johnson, provided delightful musical numbers. Dr. Reinhardt left on Wednesday for California.

Miss Jane Harbison Is Inspiration for Birthday Surprise Party

The 14th birthday of Miss Jane Harbison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harbison, was the occasion for a delightful birthday surprise party on Tuesday evening when a group met at her home for an evening of five-hundred.

Pussy willows and fern were used attractively in the decorating. Birthday refreshments were served at 11 o'clock.

Those in the group were Miss Jane Harbison, the honor guest, Miss Dorothy Cannon, Miss Leone Davidson, Miss Kathryn Sheldon, Miss Roberta Varley, Miss Cleo Casement, Miss Constance Krebs, Miss Marjorie Webb, Miss Jean Lansford, Horace Stewart, Tommy Livesley, Allan Earl, Boyd Trindle, William Trindle, Donald Cannon, Claude Matthis, Sam Harbison, and Mrs. Harbison and Mrs. Sheldon. Mrs. Harbison was assisted by Mrs. Sheldon in the serving.

Summaries Showing Vital Activities of YWCA Are Prepared for Distribution

Much interesting information concerning the local YWCA, which holds a vital place in the community, may be gained from the careful perusal of the attractive folders which the publicity committee, of which Mrs. Eric Butler is chairman, has recently had printed. The text of the folders is as follows:

DO YOU KNOW?

That the directing board is made up of 31 Salem women and representative girls, the officers and board of women being as follows: Mrs. William Kirk, president; Mrs. W. D. Clark, vice president; Mrs. Eric Butler, secretary; Mrs. Mason Bishop, treasurer, and Mrs. Max Buren, Mrs. P. L. Blackerby, Mrs. R. H. Dann, Mrs. E. E. Elliott, Mrs. Frank Erickson, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. H. M. Hawkins, Mrs. E. E. Ling, Mrs. John McNary, Miss Nina McNary, Mrs. Sylvia Orell, Mrs. J. R. Pemberton, Mrs. D. R. Ross, Miss Mable Savage, Mrs. A. L. Wallace, and Mrs. Estella Ford Warner.

That the trustees are Mr. W. I. Staley, Mr. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks.

That Elizabeth Baker of Dallas, Texas, is the general secretary of the YWCA, and Mrs. Mildred Bright is associate secretary.

That the motto of the YWCA is: "I am come that you might have life, and have it more abundantly."

That in addition to the members it has 185 Girl Reserves in high and junior high schools whose purpose is to "find and give the best," and whose slogan is "I will try to face life squarely."

That the Grax club is made up of young business women of the town whose purpose is "to promote growth in Christian character and service through physical, social, mental and spiritual training."

That 35,000 women and girls used the association rooms during the past year.

That work was found for more than 1,000 women and girls by the free employment bureau.

That an average of 50 girls bring their lunches and eat in the living rooms each day.

That the hotel accommodated 464 transient and 55 permanent guests during the year. There are 14 permanent and two transient rooms.

That the hotel department of the YWCA is self supporting.

That more than 100 women and girls use the rest rooms, phones, reading table and other accommodations each day. Many country and town shoppers making it

(Continued on page 2.)

Down Through the Ages

—Flowers Best Express That Valentine Sentiment

We Deliver or Telegraph
Flowers
Anywhere

C. F. BREITHAUPT
SALEM TELEGRAPH FLORIST

Telephone 380

512 State Street

first spring
coats $16

Mannish Lines and Immaculate Tailoring Emphasize These Smart Topcoats!

Sturdy, imported tweeds are used to great advantage in the mannish sport coats. These tweeds are colorful in subdued, blending ways. Jacquard and geometric patterns—collars of soft, silky moufflor fur—they are all very new. The new ones that arrived late Saturday will be on display Monday morning!—at $16.

Clothes Don't Make the Man

—but they certainly go a long way toward making a woman. For there is nothing like that well-dressed feeling to give one poise and confidence.

And the best part of it is, that while looking as if you had spent a fortune on your clothes, you need really spend no more than you ever did. That is, if you have learned the secret of where to buy!

MILLER'S
Good Goods

Salem's Leading Department Store

"BUY QUALITY AT A DISTINCT SAVING"