Plans for District Conference Are Made at Luncheon
A particularly delightful luncheon was that of Friday at 1 o'clock at which Mrs. P. L. Blackerby was hostess at her new home. The group comprised the district officers of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, and two conference officers of the district.

A Hollander, born in Utrecht, this conductor was a post-graduate violin artist pupil at the Cologne conservatory. Playing this instrument under Nikisch, Mahler, Steinbach and Mottl, supplied that practical experience which was later to prove so valuable. During those days chamber music also had its appeal. With the Elly Ney trio he participated in a notable series of concerts throughout Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lampport Honored With Fourteen-Cover Dinner
Among the many attractive social events of last week was the fourteen cover dinner at which Dr. and Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman were hosts honoring Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lampport who have recently returned from an interesting European tour.

A variety of early spring flowers—violets, crocuses, and daffodils—centered the table on which lavender tapers glowed. Bridge was the after-dinner diversion with Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley winning the highest score.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Lampport, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. John McNary, Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre, Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, and the hosts, Dr. and Mrs. Saurman.

Wisconsin Association Announces Semi-Annual Meeting
The Wisconsin Association will hold a semi-annual meeting Friday evening February 11th, at the Parish House of the Episcopal church.

There will be a pot luck dinner at 6:30, followed by a program. All former residents of Wisconsin are invited to attend.

Artisans Spent Entertaining Evening in McCornack Hall
An entertaining evening was spent by all members of United Artisans present at the regular meeting Thursday evening in McCornack hall. Definite plans were made for a dance to be given by the drill team on Friday, February 11, at the Crystal Gardens, and other items of interest brought before the members. The membership prize for this week was won by Mrs. Lowden. The Artisan orchestra furnished music for dancing after the business meeting closed. Each meeting is full of interest and a good time is assured.

Dr. Seitz Will Have Charge of Musical Program for Arts League
An open program that promises to be of unusual interest will be sponsored by the Salem Arts League on Tuesday evening in the lobby of the YMCA under the direction of Dr. R. W. Hans Seitz. The program will be open to all music lovers, and will begin soon after seven in order to avoid conflict with engagements for later in the evening.

Salem Garden Club Will Meet Tomorrow Night
The Salem Garden club will meet at the chamber of commerce Monday evening. C. B. McCullough of the state highway department will speak on highways and bridges.

Mr. and Mrs. Rickman Entertain With Cards and Dancing
Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Rickman entertained a number of their friends at their home Saturday evening. The evening was delightfully spent in cards and dancing.

The invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Busick, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Prescott, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Aufrance, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kingsley, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McKilling, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Busick, Mrs. Myrtle Walker, Miss Myrtle Burke, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Rickman.

The next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Barham, 1845 North Fourth street, on Friday, February 18.

Felicitations Are Received
Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ely (Opal Lucas) are receiving felicitations upon the arrival of a seven pound son on Friday morning, February 4, at the home of Mrs. Ely's parents at 1042 Saginaw street. Mr. and Mrs. Ely have given the name of Jackie Ray to their little son.

Evelyn Gustafson Becomes Bride of Carroll Robinson on Wednesday Evening
The wedding of Miss Evelyn Gustafson and Mr. Carroll Robinson was solemnized at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Robinson, of Salem Heights on Wednesday evening, February 2, at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. R. L. Putnam was the officiating clergyman. An informal reception followed the ceremony, after which the young couple left for the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot on Nob Hill where they were honored by the Dakota club, and presented with a gift of silverware.

The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson. He has charge of a gas station at Woodburn where he and his bride will make their home.

W. J. Linfoot Home Is Scene of February Meeting of the Dakota Club
Members of the Dakota club held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday evening, Feb. 2, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Linfoot on Nob Hill. More than eight guests were present. At 6:30 o'clock a delicious catered dinner was served.

A large birthday cake was brought in by the vice president, Mrs. G. L. Cummings, and placed before the club president, Mr. Crary. As he lighted the candles Mr. Crary told an enjoyable story, as requested. The birthday cake was cut and shared with the group.

Chemeketa Chapter Entertains Guests at Interesting Meet Yesterday
One of the most interesting meetings of Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution for the calendar year was that which took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Hansen at her home on North Church street.

In addition to the members a group of friends who are eligible for membership were invited as special guests. The program of the afternoon was a delightfully prepared paper by Mrs. Alice H. Dodd.

Plans were made during the business session for a bridge tea which will be held within the next few weeks, with Mrs. Homer Goulet, vice regent of the chapter, as chairman.

Reports concerning the recent successful rummage and candy sale were made. Hostess yesterday with Mrs. Hansen were Mrs. David Looney, Miss Marguerite Looney, Mrs. Asa Fisher, Mrs. Elpha White, Mrs. A. A. Underhill, and Mrs. Edward Jory.

Mrs. Ray Hartman Is Hostess at Two Attractive Affairs
Two of the most attractive social affairs of the mid-winter season were the bridge teas, one yesterday and one a week ago yesterday, at which Mrs. Ray Hartman was hostess at her home on North Cottage street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with red carnations and freesias, a color scheme significant of the approaching Valentine season.

The tea table was exquisitely centered with an unusual silver console set. The silver bowl, with its silver pheasant flower holder, in one piece with four candle holders, two at each side, was filled with freesias and red carnations, while red candles were arranged in the holders of the console. This unique piece in tapestry silver was placed on a beautiful tea cloth.

Mrs. C. K. Spaulding cut the iced and Mrs. H. J. Clements presided at the tea urn. Those assisting the hostess yesterday afternoon were: Mrs. Roy H. Mills, Mrs. Linn Smith, Mrs.

Harry Weis, and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn. Those invited for the two afternoons were: Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mrs. Linn Smith, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Harry Weis, Mrs. Harry J. Weidmer.

Mrs. Ralph Cooley, Mrs. L. R. LeFurgy, Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. H. J. Clements, Mrs. Henry Hartman, Mrs. Herbert Stiff, Mrs. Ralph Glover, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. George Dorcas, Mrs.
