Reuben P. Boise's Final Tea Today Will Travelers to Europe

The tea which promises to be unusually delightful is that at which Mrs. Reuben P. Boise will be hostess this afternoon at her home on Court street honoring Mrs. Frank Snedecor and Mrs. William Brown, who will leave soon for Europe.

Mrs. Snedecor, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Reuben P. Boise, will leave on Saturday morning by motor for the south. Mr. and Mrs. Boise, who plan to be away for three weeks, will accompany Mrs. Snedecor as far as Phoenix, Ariz. Mrs. Brown will join her compa- nion in Phoenix, the two going thence to Birmingham, Alabama, Washington, D. C., and New York. In New York Mrs. R. F. Prael and Mrs. W. H. Eldridge of Portland will meet the Salem travelers who will sail on the Olympic on or near March 24. They plan a four months' tour of interesting fore- ign countries.

For the tea this afternoon Mrs. Boise has decorated her home with daffodils, acacia and pussy willows, with tall green tapers in silver holders arranged on the tea table.

Johanna Jones and Eugene Boise will open the door for the guests.

In the living rooms Mrs. Breyman Boise, Mrs. Clifford Brown and Mrs. B. O. Schucking will assist the hostess.

During the first hour Mrs. R. R. Jones and Mrs. J. H. Lauterman will preside at the tea table. From four until five, Mrs. Henry W. Meyers and Miss Margaret Cosper will preside.

A group of the younger maids, including Miss Margaret Stolz, Miss Charlotte Lieber and Miss Rovena Eyre, will assist in the dining room.

One hundred and twenty-five cards have been issued for the afternoon.

Rainbow Girls Are Honored With Anniversary Dinner on Saturday Night

Covers were placed for 126 guests at the exceedingly enjoyable dinner on Saturday night at which Chadwick chapter of the Western Star entertained for the members of the local Rainbow Assembly for girls. The affair was a celebration of the first anniversary of the organization in Salem.

A decorative scheme of red and white was suggestive of the Valentine season. An individual birthday cake, bearing a single taper, was placed at each place.

Rev. H. Duncan Chambers conducted an impressive candle lighting ceremony symbolizing the "rainbow" as the mingling of many lights. Accordingly, each girl lighted her neighbor's candle until all were aglow.

The dinner committee included Mrs. M. C. Pettys, chairman; Mrs. W. F. McCall, Mrs. Ernest Peterson, Mrs. Lou Grote, Mrs. Arthur Eley, Mrs. Corydon Blodgett, Mrs. Wayne Henry and Mrs. Frank Crawford.

Others assisting in the serving of the delicious dinner were Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mrs. Leon Gleason and Mrs. H. D. Chambers. An initiation service for ten candidates was held following the dinner. Those who became members of Chadwick assembly on Saturday night were Miss Dorothy Moore, Miss Lorene Braden, Miss Dorothy Eastridge, Miss Mildred Oliver, Miss Linda Wright, Miss Dorothy Manning, Miss Evelyn Cummings, Miss Wilda Fleener, Miss Lorraine Gregg and Miss Irene Ritner.

Salem Arts League Postpones Musicale in Order to Attend Grenfell Lecture

So significant is the fact that Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, Arctic explorer, will appear in Salem that a number of organizations have decided to postpone or cancel their meetings in order that their members may attend the illustrated lecture at 8:10 o'clock tonight in the armory.

Accordingly, the musical program announced for tonight under the direction of Dr. R. W. Hans Seltz, and under the auspices of the Salem Arts league, has been postponed until Friday, February 18, at the YMCA.

The committee consists of Melvin Gruenfelder, Dave O'Hara, Albert Eagan, Joseph Worth, Robert Deim and Frank Zielinski.

Engagement of Marjorie Stone to James Preble Was Announced Saturday

The engagement of Marjorie May Stone to James Preble was announced Saturday at the Alpha Omicron Pi house in Corvallis. Miss Stone is teaching at the Central junior high school in Albany. She was graduated from Oregon Agricultural college last June with honors.

Mr. Preble is a junior in the school of forestry at Corvallis. He is at present employed at the state house by the Oregon Journal. Mr. Preble has been on the staff of The Statesman, and while at college was a newspaper correspondent.

Girl Reserves Will Give Program at Luncheon Clubs

A group of Salem high school Girl Reserves, under the direction of Mrs. L. W. Gleason, member of the publicity department of the YWCA, are giving short musical programs this week at the various luncheon clubs.

The purpose of the programs is to arouse a vital interest in the coming YWCA finance campaign which will open next week.

Yesterday the Girl Reserves sang at the chamber of commerce. Today they will give their program before the Kiwanis club; on Wednesday before the Rotarians; on Thursday the Realtors, and on Friday at the Lions' club.

Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, Noted Northland Explorer, Will be in Salem Tonight

Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, distinguished explorer of the northland, will give an illustrated lecture at 8:10 o'clock tonight at the armory. Grenfell, one of the greatest personalities in the medical field, will appear in Salem under the auspices of the Salem Dramatic league, that able group which sponsored the appearance here of the Moroni Olsen Players and the American poet, Carl Sandburg.

Dr. F. H. Thompson will introduce Grenfell tonight as a scientist, while Dr. Norman Kendall Tully will introduce him as a missionary.

In 1892, at the suggestion of Lord Southborough, Dr. Grenfell first visited the coasts of Labrador and North Newfoundland in a hospital sailing ship to see if a medical and surgical service could be established.

From this simple beginning has grown during the past 30 years one of the great service works of the world.

The bleak and barren coast of Labrador has made life unbearably hard for its inhabitants. The sturdy descendants of Devon and Dorset, Scotch and Irish fishermen who came over during the last
