CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Scarcity of offerings resulted in price upturns to-day for wheat. Beluctance to sell was accompanied by falk about falling off in primary receipts and by gossip that farm reserves southwest are as low at present as they generally are around April 1. Wheat closed unsettled 5-8 to 1c net higher, corn and onto both showing 3-8c to 5-8c advance.

PORTLAND, Feb. 10.—(AP)—California broccoli is showing slightly better grade in the recent arrivals and is selling even with Oregon stock at $1.75@ 200 pound crate. With milder weather the demand for sacked vegetables is lighter and prices have declined. The sweet potate and lettuce supplies are liberal and of a wide range of quality so there is a big spread in prices of them. The potate and onion shipping markets are slightly more active than for the past two weeks.
