Leisure Hour Club Meets for Valentine Party at J. Clements Home

The H. J. Clements home was the scene of a Valentine party on Wednesday when Mrs. Clements, assisted by Mrs. Charles Weller, entertained the Leisure Hour club. The dining room was lovely with red carnations, tall red candles and valentines. Mrs. Cora Hopkins of Albany was a special guest.

The members of the club are: Mrs. E. C. Small, Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. F. A. Park, Mrs. J. H. Albert, Mrs. John H. Scott, Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. W. H. Steusloff, Mrs. Fred Steusloff, Mrs. Dan J. Fry Sr., Mrs. Kitty Graver, Mrs. Willis S. Moore, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, Mrs. M. N. Chapman, Miss Oda Chapman, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. Seymour Jones and the hostesses of Wednesday, Mrs. H. J. Clements and Mrs. Charles Weller.

YWCA Will Make Supreme Effort Today to Raise $7,000 Budget

All forces actively engaged in campaign work for the city YWCA will make a final concerted effort today to complete the $7,000 budget. Many workers are assisting in the campaign which is one of the most essential of its kind ever conducted. A number of organizations are postponing their own activities in order to cooperate with the YWCA in its four-day campaign.

The city YWCA accomplishes a type of work that cannot be disregarded. An unbelievable number of relief cases, charity cases, and general social service, which the association finds it much kinder to handle itself than to leave to the police later on, come to light within the doors of this branch of a great and useful organization. Those in charge are asking the minimum necessary to their many needs.

The slogan for the campaign, "For Your Town and YOU," gives a statement of the scope of a single gift.

Miss Edna Warden Announces Betrothal at Attractive Valentine Party

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Edna Warden to Mr. Joseph Schlegel of Eureka, Cal., was made known in an unusually attractive manner Monday evening when Miss Warden entertained at the home of Mrs. Max Abst. The guests with whom the hostess shared her secret included members of the T. H. D. bridge club and a small group of additional guests.

The pictures of the betrothed pair were encased in the individual valentines which were presented to each guest. Red carnations and lighted red tapers were beautifully arranged in the rooms.

In the group were Miss Cleo Walker, Miss Elsie Victor, Miss Gladys Rafferty, Miss Hattie Brown, Miss Marlowe Miller, Miss Nancy Savage, Miss Reta Claggett, Miss Retha Nash, Mrs. Ruth Ullman, Miss Zelma Busch, Miss Gladys McKee, Miss Doris Bowden, Miss Bertha Miller, Miss Bertha Urford, Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Georgia Spencer, Mrs. Emma Siegmund, Miss Gladys Newberry, Miss Laura Fischer, Miss Betty Zureher, Miss Vera Stoltenberg and Mrs. Max Abst.

Miss Warden, who for the past few years has been employed in the office of the state accident commission, is the daughter of Mrs. Mina Warden of Brownsville. Mr. Schlegel, the son of Mrs. L. Schlegel of Corvallis, is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college. He is now an instructor in the junior high school in Eureka, Cal. No date has been set for the wedding.

Junior Guild Will Sponsor Interesting Bridge Tea Today at Parish House

An outstanding benefit affair of the month will be the bridge tea at which members of the Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will be hostesses from 2 to 5 o'clock this afternoon at the parish house on Chemeketa street.

Arts league under whose auspices the program will be given. The program will open promptly at 8 o'clock in the lobby.

The numbers will include vocal solos by Miss Nancy Thielsen, Mrs. Martin Pereshettian and Mrs. F. A. England. Piano numbers will be given by Miss Evangeline Hall and Miss Louise Townsend. Dr. Seltz and T. L. Williams will contribute vocal duets. Dr. Seltz will also give cello solos. William McGillchrist Sr. will sing a group of Scotch songs.

All friends are invited to attend the concert.

Business and Professional Women Meet Wednesday in Y W C A Rooms

At the invitation of Miss Elizabeth Baker and of Mrs. Bright, the members of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club met on Wednesday evening in the YWCA rooms.

Miss Signe Paulsen had charge of the legislative program, which was the feature of the evening. Mrs. Clara Pomeroy, Mrs. Laura V. Hale and Miss Paulsen reported on the income tax bill, the free text book bill, and others. Miss Carlotta Crowley reported on the Eddy bill. A general discussion of legislative matters followed. Miss Margaret White of Portland was a guest of the club and discussed a number of the bills with the group.

Following the program, refreshments were served. The next state meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club will be held in Salem in March. The exact date will be announced later.

Eventually I May Be Your Servant---Why Not Now?

Folks, I have come to Salem to stay. Far be it from me to be a gypsy. The Province of Schleswig-Holstein, which forms the south part of the Scandinavian peninsula with its colors, red, white and blue, the only one of its kind in Europe (running parallel like our Star Spangled Banner) is the land of my birth. My forefathers were a liberty loving people, a people that has the same ideals as we have here. For centuries they have fought against monarchic and overbearing aristocracy.

I came to America to better myself and so I did.

I came to Salem for I thought it's just a little better here than any place else and so it is.

I located at 174 N. Commercial for I think it is the best and busiest spot in this city. Busy indeed I like to be busy. I love to serve the public. It's a pleasure to me, a pleasure of which I never grow tired. Let us serve you!
