Daughters of the American Revolution Will Sponsor Colonial Tea Tuesday
Many Salem and Dallas women are anticipating with much pleasure the Colonial benefit bridge tea which Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will sponsor on Tuesday afternoon, Washington's birthday, at the Woman's club house on North Cottage street.

A large number of reservations have already been made for tables. Those who have already signified their intention to attend are Mrs. David Catlin, Mrs. Ota Clark, Mrs. J. B. Hosford, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. K. F. Shafer, Mrs. W. E. Hanson, Mrs. Elmer Orant, Mrs. C. D. McClure, Mrs. James G. Heitzel, Mrs. W. A. Marshall, Mrs. E. E. Bragg, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. W. S. Mott, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. J. H. Jennings, Mrs. H. J. Bean, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. J. T. Whittig and Mrs. Frank Spears, as well as a number of matrons from Dallas.

Additional guests, who do not care to play cards, are invited to call at 4 o'clock for tea.

Mrs. John W. Orr is general chairman of the affair.

Junior Class at Kimball Honors Dr. Canse
Members of the junior class of the Kimball School of Theology sponsored a delightful pot-luck dinner on Tuesday honoring Dr. John M. Canse, president of the college.

A large birthday cake was a feature of the occasion. Thirty-two guests were present, including, among others, Rev. and Mrs. J. Willard De Yoe, Evangelist Miller, Mrs. Earl Pearcey and Rev. Thomas A. Acheson.

Girl Reserves Meet at High School
At the regular meeting of the Girl Reserves held at the high school Thursday afternoon, a discussion was held concerning the Girl Reserve ring and its meaning. A short skit was given on the use of cosmetics.

Mrs. Swan Entertains Eugene Ladies at Bridge
Mrs. L. L. Swan, wife of Representative L. L. Swan, entertained with a bridge luncheon Thursday noon at the Elks' dining room, honoring a group of Eugene ladies including Mrs. J. B. Bell, Mrs. W. W. Calkins, Mrs. A. A. Rodgers, Mrs. L. E. Bean and Mrs. Ralph Pierce. At the close of the afternoon prizes were awarded to Mrs. Pierce and to Mrs. James Mott of Astoria, after which the ladies attended the tea given by Mrs. Corbett and Mrs. Garkin at the C. P. Bishop home.

Mrs. Bell Entertains Bridge Club With One O'clock Luncheon at Elks
Mrs. C. Kenneth Bell entertained members of her bridge club and two special guests at a delightfully planned 1 o'clock luncheon on Wednesday at the Elks' club. Cards at two tables occupied the guests during the afternoon. Mrs. Ted Purvine and Mrs. Ted Challman were special guests.

A color scheme of yellow and lavender was used effectively in the choice of owens and candles. A lovely basket of violets and daffodils centered the table, while lavender candles gleamed in crystal holders.

Mrs. Victor MacKenzie won the highest score, while the consolation award went to Mrs. Carl Shortridge. Mrs. Purvine received the guest prize.

Those in the group were Mrs. Ted Challman, Mrs. Ted Purvine, Mrs. Lester Schlosberg, Mrs. Victor MacKenzie, Mrs. Eugene Eckert, Mrs. Carl Shortridge, Mrs. Dick O'Leary and the hostess, Mrs. C. Kenneth Bell.

Mrs. Henry L. Corbett and Mrs. John M. Carlin Entertain With Tea
One of the most delightful social events to take place in Salem during the legislative season was the informal tea of Thursday afternoon at which Mrs. Henry L. Corbett of Portland and Mrs. John M. Carlin of Medford entertained jointly. The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop was graciously loaned for the occasion.

Miss Grace White opened the door for the guests who were received by Mrs. Carlin, Mrs. Corbett and Mrs. I. L. Patterson. Decorations of acacia and heather were combined in the drawing room. In the dining room a beautiful silver bowl of red and white carnations centered the table.

During the afternoon Miss Esther Palmer pleased the guests with a group of harp numbers.

Mrs. George H. Alden acted as hostess in the dining room. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. B. O. Schucking and Mrs. Gus Moser. The guests were invited in to tea by Mrs. John L. Rand and Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding. Those assisting in the serving were Miss Emily Brown, Miss Lucile Wonderly and Miss Elma White.

The guest list included wives of senators and representatives who are in Salem during the legislature.

Fifty called between 3 and 5 o'clock.

Son Is Born
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Bishop of Portland are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son on Thursday at St. Vincent's hospital.

University Epworth League Entertains With Valentine Party
Forty members and friends of the university chapter of the First Methodist church met in the church parlors last Friday for an enjoyable Valentine party. Miss Sevilla Rieks was in general charge of the affair. Miss Esther Lisle was chairman of the refreshment committee for the evening, and Miss Barbara Gallagher of the decorations. The evening was spent in entertaining games. A group of Standard Bearers, under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Lee, presented a short missionary playlet depicting life in China.

The church parlors were decorated in a manner appropriate to the Valentine season.

Interdenominational Missionary Society Will Sponsor Speaker
Dr. F. A. Smith, who has charge of the Japanese work on the Pacific coast, will speak at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church. All interested in the work are urged to be present.

Ladies of the GAR Sponsor Patriotic Program
A delightful social meeting was held by the ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lena Straw Taylor. A patriotic program was observed in honor of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington. A report was made of the general committee for the state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic and allied patriotic organizations. Clever games were enjoyed, with Mrs. V. A. Straw winning the prize, and Mrs. Laura M. C. Clutter receiving the consolation prize. Tea was
