Pupils of School Provide Program for Hayesville Community Club

Hayesville Community had their regular meeting Friday night. A program given by the pupils of the school was a great success.

The teachers and some of the girls and boys made candy to sell at the community meeting, to raise money to buy pictures, etc., needed to make a standard school.

The pupils are very anxious to make their school one of the best standard schools in Marion county.

Hot lunch is served at the school each day. The girls and boys prepare and serve the lunch which is greatly enjoyed by all.

Rector of St. Paul's Has Grandson

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Hand-el (Inez M. Chambers) are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Ronald Melvin, February 22, at Wilcox Memorial hospital in Portland.

The baby is the first grandson of Rev. and Mrs. H. Duncan Chambers of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Mrs. Louise King Is Hostess for WRC Ladies' Aid

The ladies' aid society of the Woman's Relief Corps met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louise King. Thirty-two members and three visitors were present. At the business meeting plans were made to serve a dinner at noon on March 17, St. Patrick's day, at the YMCA.

Mrs. King was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Eberhardt, Mrs. St. Helens, Mrs. Ida Traglio, Mrs. Susie Botts, and Mrs. Mary Lickel.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Moses Entertain Sans Souci Club

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Moses were hosts to the members of the Sans Souci card club on Friday evening. Early spring flowers were used in profusion about the rooms.

Five hundred was the main diversion, with high honors going to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Lee and second honors to Mrs. Bryan Goodenough and Albert Ramseyer.

At a late hour refreshments were served. The Washington birthday motif was introduced throughout.

The members of the club and their guests were delightfully entertained with whistling solos by Miss Ruth Sanders, who has appeared at the Elsinore theater during the past week.

The club members enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Moses' hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. John Jelderks, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Ramseyer, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Propp, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Dencor. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kightlinger, Mrs. Irene St. Helena, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough.

The club will meet in a fortnight with Mr. and Mrs. John Jelderks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Unruh Entertain With Musicals

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Unruh was the scene of a delightful musical one night last week when Mrs. Unruh entertained a group of piano students of Prof. and Mrs. Frank Churchill, together with the parents of the young musicians.

Elizabeth Brown, Doris Unruh and Gatha Bressler all gave stories of different periods in music.

Those who gave piano numbers were Zelfha White, Catherine Headrick, Elizabeth Brown, Doris Unruh, Gatha Bressler and Theresa Ulrich.

At the close of the program Mrs. Unruh served refreshments. Daffodils were used in the dining room.

Mrs. Conner Returns From Visit in South

The friends of Mrs. W. C. Conner are welcoming her home from an extended absence in southern California. Detained by the severe storms in California and southern Oregon, Mrs. Conner was not able to reach home until Wednesday, though she had planned to be here sometime Sunday or Monday.

Mrs. E. C. Charlton Is Honored on Wednesday

Mrs. Armin Berger entertained at a delightful affair on Wednesday at the F. H. Berger home, honoring Mrs. E. C. Charlton.
