Upper photo shows the three-masted vessel "Esther Buhne" breaking up on Newport beach California, where she was driven ashore in the storm that swept the west coast. To the right is a scene near El Monte, Cal., showing flood waters swirling about a ranch house.

Flood conditions were caused in many sections by the unusually heavy winter rains. Bridges were washed out, communication on highways and railroads was halted, and considerable damage was caused by high waters.

FOREIGN CONTROL IN CHINA DEBATED

That Willamette university will be represented by one of the strongest debating teams in its history, was demonstrated Saturday evening when the men's negative team, Charles Redding and Robert Witty, met the Pacific university speakers in a no-decision contest of the question of foreign control in China.

Although no decision was given, the Willamette speakers presented a much more finished presentation than their opponents. Edward Johnson and Charles McGill, at least so far as delivery was concerned. The Pacific debaters showed promise, but were evidently inexperienced in college debating.

The vital need in China is foreign capital to develop the nation's resources, the Willamette debaters claimed, and if this capital is to be secured, foreign control to the extent that it now prevails, is necessary so long as the chaotic political conditions in China continue.

The visiting speakers maintained that foreign control should be relinquished as a matter of justice to the Chinese, claiming that there is a strong natural sentiment throughout China against the interference of outsiders. The control of customs collections by foreigners is one phase of this injustice; the maintenance of a foreign court is another, and the foreign concessions, strictly under foreign domination, were mentioned as a third.

The negative speakers replied that the collection of customs by the foreign powers' representatives is necessary because otherwise one or another of the war lords would seize the money and use it in furthering his selfish interests.

RUTH NAMES TERMS

SLUGGER DEMANDS HUGE SALARY FROM YANK OWNER

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Babe Ruth demands a yearly salary of $100,000, a two year contract, and a refund of $7,700, held out from his salary in the past before he will play baseball again, it was revealed on his departure for New York tonight when he made public a letter mailed February 20 to Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the New York American League team.

Winter Football Practice Closes for Webfoot Team

EUGENE, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Football practice for the winter team closed down at the University of Oregon yesterday, when Coach McEwan sent his men through their paces for an hour and a half, and pronounced himself pleased with the results. The practice has been slowed down by the rains of the past month, but the team has scrimmaged almost continuously, and many faults have cropped up and have been rectified.

When asked about the shift, McEwan said: "There hasn't been any legislation against the shift by organized football, although the Big Ten conference has voted to enforce the two second stop rule, and hence we are not prevented from using it if we so desire. We have plenty of fast young backs who are admirably suited to execute the shift, and get it off legally, too."

Boys and Girls Teams of Silverton Defeated

SILVERTON, Ore., Feb. 26.—(Special.)—Both the boys' and girls' basketball teams were defeated on the local floor here Friday night. The boys from the deaf school at Salem defeated the local boys at the tune of 30 to 23, while the local girls held the Chemawa Indians down to 16 to 15 for the visitors. Following the game the girls enjoyed a chill spread at the apartment of Miss Louisa Meddler, coach.

Changes are bound to go on. What's the use of getting "all hot up" over each fresh one that takes place? Rather toward every innovation let us hold a mind open to conviction.

HOW INNOCENT a drug can be—and how helpful! I'm done with purgatives that leave even a child's system so acid you can detect it in the exhalation. A little cascara is a perfect sweetener, and my boy and I love the candy—

Prybylek Completes Long Endurance Run

Over a Thousand Watch as Whippet Stops After 101 Hours

With over a thousand people looking on, jamming the street for a block and every building on both sides of the street, Albin Prybylek completed his 101-hour endurance drive in an Overland Whippet at 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Police forced a way through the crowd to the center of Court street in front of the Giese-Powers furniture store, and Prybylek, with his faithful nurse, Mrs. Lillian Ritter, beside him, drove in slowly and stopped. The handcuffs that had bound him to the wheel since Tuesday, were unlocked and he was carried to an ambulance and hurried to Minto's Salem restaurant, where he partook of his first real meal in five days, reclining on the stretcher.

At the restaurant, too, the crowd was so great that a guard was necessary to prevent breaking the windows.

After that Prybylek was taken to the MacDonald Auto Co. garage, where he was put to bed in the show room and slept soundly, while the crowds kept filing past and the nurse, who according to agreement is to marry him Tuesday evening at the Capitol theater, sat by his side.

W. A. Elliott, president of the Oregon State Audubon society, addressed the newly organized Salem Nature Study club Saturday evening at the YMCA, discussing the winter birds of Oregon and also some of the nearly extinct species of Florida.

Elliott imitated the calls and songs of these birds while Simon, Portland photographer, showed slides illustrating the lecture.

The local club's next meeting will be next Friday, at which time a program will be given at the YMCA which will be open to the public. President George Shand presided at the meeting Saturday night.

Girls' Basketball Team Plans to Challenge Others

HAYESVILLE, Feb. 26.—The girls' basketball team of the Hayesville school is making rapid progress, and if good weather conditions is planning to challenge other schools for a few games.

Mrs. Fulkerson, county superintendent, presented the school with a number of books for the library recently.

A surprise was given Mrs. Wiegand, principal of the school, on St. Valentine's day. A large basket, beautifully decorated, was filled with luscious fruit and nuts and presented to Mrs. Booth the primary teacher, and the students.
