Dr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Darby Entertain With Eight-Table Bridge Party

An exceedingly enjoyable introduction to the St. Patrick season was the eight-table bridge party at which Dr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Darby were hosts on Wednesday night at their home.

Baskets of daffodils and St. Patrick's day novelties were used throughout the rooms.

Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger and Ralph Glover won the high scores of the evening.

At the refreshment hour Mrs. Frank Bowersox and Mrs. Elliott Colony assisted the hostess in serving.

In the group were Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Karl B. Kugel, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Busick, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stiff, Mr. and Mrs. Linn C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Glover, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grier, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Eiker, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Creech, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowersox, Dr. and Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. Elliott Colony, Mr. and Mrs. Max Page, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cornoyer, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Mills and the hosts, Dr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Darby.

Business and Professional Women Hear Talk on Home Making

Miss A. Grace Johnson, head of the home administration department at the Oregon Agricultural college, was the speaker of the evening at a profitable meeting of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club on Wednesday at the Gray Belle.

Miss Johnson spoke on the value of training girls in home-making since, in most cases, this will be the chief work in which they will later engage. She gave a clear idea of the importance of the practice houses in conducting a worthwhile course.

Mrs. La Moine R. Clark led the group in the singing of pep songs. Miss Neva Cooley sang "Who Is Sylvia?" and "Once in a Blue Moon," with Miss Gretchen Greamer accompanying.

An added delightful feature was the style show conducted by Mrs. John J. Rottle and Mrs. Sena Mack, both members of the club. Mrs. Mack furnished the costumes for street, sport, and evening wear, while Mrs. Rottle provided appropriate shoes and hose for each costume. More than 60 members attended the dinner.

The next state dinner will be held in Salem on April 2.

THE QUIET SINGER

But does the skylark, singing sweet and clear,
Beg the cold world to hear?
Rather he sings for very rapture of singing,
At dawn, or in the blue, mild summer noon,
Knowing that, late or soon,
His wealth of beauty, and his high notes, ringing
Above the earth, will make some heart rejoice.

Mrs. Mary Helen Tower Is Married in Bellingham

Many Salem friends will be interested in the marriage of Mrs. Mary Helen Tower to Mr. J. Henry Messinger of Portland on February 26, in Bellingham, Washington.

Mrs. Messinger is the widow of the late Alec Tower a former prominent resident of Lebanon.

The wedding of Mrs. Tower and Mr. Messinger took place at the home of Rev. Charles MacCaughy, the officiating clergyman.

Mr. Messinger is sales superintendent of a large eastern firm.

Interdenominational Prayer for Missions Is Fittingly Observed on Friday

Interdenominational Day of Prayer for Missions was fittingly observed at the Knight Memorial church on Friday, March 3, with Mrs. J. Willard De Yoe, the president, presiding.

The meeting opened at 10 o'clock in the morning with a pot-luck luncheon served at noon. Ninety-six ladies were served, with the ladies of the Knight Memorial church acting as hostesses. A most impressive and instructive service was carried out in several notable ways, for instance:

In the first place, the prayer service was one of the best ever held in Salem, with representatives from eighteen different churches in attendance.

In the second place, these ladies really accomplished something. They are sponsoring a kindergarten for Japanese children in and around Salem, especially those in the Labish district. A building is now under construction near Chemawa for this specific work.

Mrs. C. F. Hagerman of the Jason Lee church has been engaged as a teacher. Mrs. Melvin Johnson is chairman of the Japanese committee, and a great deal of credit for this significant accomplishment is due to her faithfulness and enthusiasm. Two tables and eighteen chairs have already been donated to the equipment.

In the third place, all churches agreed to observe Wednesday as the future church day in order that church and social affairs will not conflict.

Election of officers took place at the meeting on Friday.

Mrs. J. Willard De Yoe, of the Leslie Methodist church was again named president, Mrs. Fred Erixon, of the Baptist church was chosen as vice president; and Mrs. Ralph Cooley, of the First Christian church, as secretary-treasurer.

Special musical numbers, all worthy of mention, included a solo by Master Adelbert Henderson, a solo by Miss Naomi Phelps, a trio by Mrs. De Yoe, Mrs. A. C. Bohrnstedt, and Mrs. Mason Bishop, and a duet by two Chemawa students, with Miss Gertrude Eakin at the piano.
