Mr. and Mrs. William Oldenburg Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary
A particularly interesting event of the week-end was the celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Oldenburg which took place on Saturday night at the First Evangelical church, opening with a formal reception at 7 o'clock.

At 8 o'clock a two-course dinner was served to more than 75 guests, with an enjoyable program following.

The golden color scheme was carried out with many yellow daffodils and lighted yellow tapers in crystal holders. Each table was centered with a decorative wedding cake in harmony with the chosen color scheme. English harem and fern formed an effective background in the rooms.

The immediate members of the family, including Mr. and Mrs. William Oldenburg and their 11 children, all of whom were present, were seated at one table. Places were arranged for the remaining relatives and friends at two long tables.

Following the dinner, the many beautiful gifts received by the celebrating couple, were opened and displayed.

Those taking part in the program were Rev. A. E. Hilmer, who opened the anniversary service with prayer; Miss Naomi Phelps, accompanied by Mrs. Guy Fitch Phelps, sang "I Bring You Hearts Base"; a men's trio, including Lawrence Maves, Reuben Hilker and Stanley Mores; Rev. Hilmer, who gave the address of the evening; Miss Dorothy Baderst Bodepeter, who played a violin solo, with Miss Helen Rex accompanying, and Althea Geiser, grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oldenburg, who sang "I Love You Truly." Rev. Hilmer followed the musical numbers with a few appropriate remarks, after which the Rev. Mr. Hilmer pronounced the benediction.

Mr. Oldenburg, who came to America as a boy, was born in Germany in 1855. Mr. Oldenburg (Margaret Petri) was born in Forest, Wisconsin, the same year. They were married in 1877. Twelve children were born to them, one dying in infancy. Mr. and Mrs. Oldenburg, though they left Wisconsin in 1891, did not come to Oregon until 1911. From 1909 to 1911 they lived in Washington. Since coming to Salem they have made their home here continuously.

The guest group for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. William Oldenburg, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Oldenburg and son Richard, of Moorhead, Montana; Mrs. J. E. Janosky of Nampa, Idaho; Mrs. M. M. Geiser and Miss Althea, of Spirit Lake, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. J. Finkbeiner, Mrs. George Dilling and Miss Selma Oldenburg of Cornell, Wash.; Mrs. George Petri and Mrs. Henry Mueller, brother and sister of Mrs. William Oldenburg, of Fond du Lac, Wis.; Lester Geiser of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oldenburg and children Gladys, Alice and Willis; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Oldenburg; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Oldenburg and son, Gerald; Walter Oldenburg, Louis Oldenburg, Mr. Schmalke, Mr. and Mrs. B. Maves, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Boderstetter, Mr. and Mrs. William Hartman, Mr. Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Hilker, Mrs. Phelps, Miss Naomi Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. Schramm, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Springer, Mrs. Rehfs, Mr. and Mrs. Blyvens, Mr. and Mrs. J. Vogt, Mr. and Mrs. Will Garnjohst, Rev. and Mrs. Culver, Rev. and Mrs. Hilmer, Rev. and Mrs. Leining, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beckley, Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wenger, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gralapp, Mr. and Mrs. Schaeffer, Mr. and Mrs. R. Singer, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hager, Mr. and Mrs. R. Saeger and son, Miss Helen Rex, Miss Dorothy Badertscher, Messrs. Alvin Woods, Helen Wenger, Messrs. Newton Schmalke, Lawrence Maves, Reuben Hilker, Stanley Maves, Clinton Lovell and Frederic Remington.

Dr. and Mrs. Cartwright Entertain Family Group With 12-Cover Dinner
Eight complimented members of the family with an enjoyable dinner party on Sunday at 8 o'clock. Daffodils and violets were lovely on the table, at which covers were arranged for 12.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Keller, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Shaver and son, Raymond Jr., all of Portland, Walter Byrne of Salt Lake City, Angelo Byrne of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Brazier Campbell Small, Miss Florence Cartwright and the hosts, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Cartwright.

Mrs. H. J. Bean Will Entertain Thursday Club

The Thursday club will meet Thursday afternoon, March 10, at the home of Mrs. H. J. Bean, 917 Court street. Mrs. A. N. Moores and Mrs. Richard Cartwright will serve as associate hostesses.

First Methodist W. H. M. S. Plans a Birthday Luncheon of the Seasons

Approximately 75 ladies enjoyed the quarterly tea meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church at 2:30 o'clock last Wednesday in the church parlors. Mrs. George H. Alden, president of the society, presided throughout the afternoon.

Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford read the scripture lesson, followed with a very helpful talk, closing the devotional hour with prayer.

During the business session many outstanding reports were made. Among these was the announcement of the interdenominational day of prayer which was such a successful event of Friday at the Knight Memorial church. In this connection a comprehensive report of the Japanese work was made and a sum of money received toward the support of the project.

Mrs. H. F. Shanks was appointed general chairman of the group leaders for the coming year. The leaders in the different districts will be as follows: Mrs. R. L. Farmer, Mrs. C. A. Clark, Mrs. C. A. Cox, Mrs. F. A. Beard, Mrs. Josephine Davis, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. R. K. Ohling, Mrs. E. C. Schramm and Mrs. D. W. Mosher. Mrs. E. C. Richards gave the lesson of the day—a talk on the sixth chapter of the study book, "A Program for Rural Churches," taken from "Our Tempted Hills," by Ralph A. Felton.

Of particular interest to this influential group of church women is the birthday party for which elaborate plans are already being made. The party, which will feature a pot-luck supper, will be an event of Tuesday, March 22. Four beautifully decorated tables, each symbolic of a season of the year, will be arranged for the evening. At each table the members will be grouped according to the season in which their birthdays occur. For instance, those whose birthdays occur in the winter will sit at Mrs. Jessie M. Lang's table; those who were born during the spring months will be guests at the table of which Mrs. Ronald Glover has been asked to take charge; those who were summer-born will meet at Mrs. Almiria Hale's table, and those who celebrate in the autumn of the year will sit at the table at which Mrs. E. J. Kuntz has been asked to take charge.

Mrs. E. E. Gilbert is in general charge of the affair. A delightful tea hour was featured at the close of the afternoon, with Mrs. E. T. Barnes in charge. The beautifully appointed table was centered with a Nile green bowl, filled with sweet peas in the pastel shades. Lavender, pink, and yellow candles were arranged in crystal holders. The same delicate color scheme was used in the refreshments.

Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney and Mrs. Fred C. Taylor were invited to preside at the urns. Those assisting were Miss Frances M. Richards, Mrs. Josephine Davis, Mrs. Ida Shade, Mrs. B. E. Saxon, Mrs. Frederick H. Thompson and Mrs. Walter Winslow.

Social Afternoon Club Will See Film

The Social Afternoon club of Chadwick chapter of the Eastern Star will meet this afternoon at the Masonic temple where the members will have the unusual privilege of viewing Dr. Douglas' film of the health demonstration work.

Hostesses for the meeting, which is open to all members of the Eastern Star, will be Mrs. Florence Page, Mrs. Grace Gilliam, Mrs. Marie McCall, Mrs. Hazel Gillette, Mrs. Minnie Baker, Mrs. Pauline Josse and Mrs. Blevins.

Ken Nakazawa Will Speak at Open Meeting Tonight

Ken Nakazawa, the brilliant Japanese author and lecturer who spoke two weeks ago at the local YMCA, will address a second open meeting tonight in the city library under the auspices of the Salem Arts League. Robert C. Paulus, who has loaned his lantern and screen for the evening, will assist in the presentation of the unusual slides which Mr. Nakazawa possesses.

This fall the lecturer will have a book published by Harper & Bros. Since the speaker will dwell to an extent on Japanese gardens, members of the Salem Garden club are especially invited to attend the program. The program will open at 8 o'clock. A business meeting will precede at 7:45.

Mrs. E. A. Miller Will Entertain South Section of Woman's Union

Ladies of the South section of the Woman's union of the First Congregational church will meet at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. A. Miller, 1500 South High street. Work will be provided for all.

Institutions Department Will Sponsor Program at Training School

A three-act play entitled "An Old Fashioned Mother," will be given tonight at the boys' training school, under the auspices of the institutions department of the Salem Woman's club. Perry Heigelman, who is directing the play, plans a two-night presentation later this week in West Salem where the drama will be featured as a benefit performance.

Miss Marjory Church Is Honored on 19th Birthday Anniversary

The 19th birthday anniversary of Miss Marjory Church occasioned an exceedingly delightful party last week when a group of friends met at the Church home for an evening of games and music. Late in the evening delicious refreshments, featuring a birthday cake, were served. Mrs. J. I. Lewis assisted Mrs. A. M. Church. In the group were Miss Marjory Church, the honor guest, Miss Margaret Moore, Miss Leah Fanning, Miss Martha Feustman, Miss Isabel Huston, Miss Beulah Graham, Miss Catherine Barker, Miss Harriet Beckley, Miss Frances Graham, Miss Grace Henderson, Miss Margaret Pro, Ray Mumford, Lyle Weed, Dana Church, Louis O'Brien, George Poor, Donald Davis, Daniel Church, Kelsey Bonney, William Lewis, "Tup" Church, Mr. and Mrs. J.
