

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE STAGE and SCREEN

Elsinore Theater
 "The Noose" is the title of the drama that will be presented at the Elsinore theater today, March 9, with a cast of prominent players, among whom are several who have been brought from New York for the production. The play is from the pen of that most prolific dramatist, Willard Mack, whose "Tiger Rose" and other works have brought him into the front rank of American playwrights. In the piece Mr. Mack tells an engrossing story of a young man who has been part of that slotted and jetted world of which the underworld of every big city is filled. He loves and is loved by a rich society girl, far above his station in life and who knows nothing of the bootlegging schemes in which he is engaged. Mr. Mack draws a picture of the underworld with its bootleggers, its crooks, habitués of cabarets and other characters that is intensely fascinating. He has the gift of presenting such scenes and characters in a most vivid manner. They are true to life. He has seen them and pictures them just as they appeared to him in these surroundings. There is a murder committed. The young man is tried, convicted of the crime and condemned to the gallows. He faces his fate with locked lips, revealing the secret of his birth to none. Therein lives the mystery which involves prominent characters. He is relieved by the governor of the state almost at the last hour and given a long prison sentence. Mr. Mack, in telling his story, resorts to the motion picture method of moving backward to tell what has happened. In these acts the motive for the murder is explained in a most dramatic climax. The art of the dramatist in the construction of the play takes the latter out of the realm of the ordinary crook play and makes of it a drama that is almost a classic.

Two telegrams to Jack Martin, manager of the Elsinore theater, tell of the fine reception accorded this play in Medford. They follow.

"Noose is a great show and you cannot say too much about it." George Hunt, Critterian theater, Medford, Oregon.

 "The Noose is a wonderful show. Work by superb cast. Pleased everybody." Hal Vaughn, Medford, Oregon.

"Silken Shackles" featuring Irene Rich will be the attraction at the Elsinore theater for one day, March 10.

Oregon Theater

The stirring days which followed the United States acquisition of California from Spain, are depicted in "Don Mike," Fred Thomson's latest starring vehicle for F. O. B. which shows at the Oregon theater today and tomorrow, March 9 and 10. Among the highlights of the picture is the raising of the Bear State flag on Don Mike's rancho by the marauders who have stolen it, and the ride to the young Don's aid by General Fremont and his troopers.

"Silken Shackles" will be the special attraction at the Oregon theater for one day, March 11.

"For Wives Only" featuring Charles Gerrard and Marie Prevost will show at the Oregon theater March 12, 13 and 14.

Capitol Theater

After directing pictures for more than six years, and rising in that time from a comedy director to one of the best known producers of big features in the industry, Edward Sedgwick, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer director, worked again with the cameraman who filmed the first picture he directed. Ben Reynolds filmed Sedgwick's first production, and when the director was placed under contract to direct "Tin Hats," his own story of the Army of Occupation, Ben, who was also under contract to M-G-M, was assigned to do the photography. Reynolds has photographed several Von Stroheim, Clarence Brown and Hobart Henley productions, and also went to Europe with "Ben Hur." "Tin Hats" will show at the Capitol theater for three days, March 9, 10 and 11.

KEIZER COMMUNITY CLUB HARD AT WORK

Patriotic Program Staged at School. Excellent Work Done by Pupils

KEIZER, March 8.—(Special.) The Keizer community club will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday evening, March 11, at 8 o'clock. This club, which was organized in the early fall under the leadership of Chas. Weathers, has done much for the betterment of the community. It has brought the people closer together and a splendid community spirit has been shown. It has made it possible for the school children to have hot lunches during the cold winter months. Money has been raised to purchase a large range and cooking utensils for the school, without taxing any body. Mr. Weathers has used many different and successful methods of raising money to meet the expenses, thus making it unnecessary to tax the district.

All enjoyed a splendid program Friday evening, February 11. Apple pie, ice cream, cake and coffee were served. At the meeting Friday, March 11 we expect another good time. Mr. Cook Patton of the Patton Book Store and other assistants have been secured for this meeting. Mr. Patton has many new stunts to add to his already amusing list. Come prepared to laugh if you don't you will have to laugh anyway. Don't miss it. It will be an evening well spent.

All are welcome who come to the meetings. If anyone would like to know just what is being done at the meetings come the second Friday evening in each month. The school put on an interesting patriotic program on Washington's birthday. Rev. Ernest H. Shanks Pastor of the First Baptist church gave an inspiring talk to the school and the many parents that were present.

This is a very good country school with four large rooms. Teachers are Mrs. McAllister, principal, Mrs. Rortir, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Jones. There are 126 pupils.

At a recent meeting of the school board it was seen fit to hire all four of the teachers for another year. During the past year the patrons have been very much pleased with the cooperative spirit they have shown.

BASKET SOCIAL DUE FRUITLAND SCHOOL

Benjamin Wodzerwoda Is Elected Manager of School Baseball Team

FRUITLAND, March 8.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gardner went to Portland on business Monday, March 7.

Mrs. H. E. Evans has recovered from a slight attack of influenza. A program will be held at the Fruitland school house Saturday evening, March 12, starting at 8 o'clock. Following the program there will be a basket social. An admission of 25 cents will be charged. Ladies bringing baskets will be admitted free and any men bringing baskets will have their admission charge refunded.

Alvin Gardner burned his hand quite badly last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ford and family, Fred Fagg and, Leon W. Girod motored to Mt. Angel last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cade and family of Albany visited with the J. J. Cade family of Fruitland.

Word has been received that Mrs. E. B. Gilmore of Salem, former Fruitland storekeeper, is ill with an attack of influenza and pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerig and family visited with Mr. LeRoy Slocum last Sunday.

The Fruitland school elected Benjamin Wodzerwoda as manager of the baseball team for the coming year; and elected Leon W. Girod as captain. Benjamin announced that he intended to get his game schedule drawn up immediately.

Mr. Stanley Fagg of Fruitland visited with friends on the Santiam river near Stayton.

Clarence Lansing has laid the foundation for his new house; and is now working on the structure. Don't forget Sunday school at 10 o'clock this Sunday.

 Miss Maud Gwynn

They will leave Thursday morning for California.

Miss Gwynn is a very attractive brunette, is 19 years old and a graduate of Salem high school. She won the caravan contest held at the Oregon theater recently after a close race with many other contestants.

Twenty contestants will be included in the trip and of that number only one is a boy, he being the winner at Albany. Visitors here tonight with the caravan will be entertained at the Mellow Moon dance pavilion in West Salem, following their appearance at the Oregon theater.

While in Hollywood, Miss Gwynn will be introduced to many popular film stars and will witness the filming of several pictures in the Paramount studios. She will write letters which will be printed in The Statesman, telling of her trip and the many good times which are scheduled for the entire group.
