Chemeketa Chapter Will Sponsor Annual Loan Tea
One of the most significant social events of the year is always the annual scholarship loan tea of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. The tea this year will be held next Monday afternoon, March 14, at the home of Mrs. U. G. Shipley, 158 East Washington street. Calling hours will be from 3 to 5 o'clock.

The hostesses for the affair include Mrs. Roy H. Mills, Mrs. Louis Griffith, Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Mrs. John Orr, Mrs. F. H. Speers, Mrs. Seymour Jones and Mrs. U. G. Shipley.

The announcement of the tea was one of the most important business considerations of the March meeting of Chemeketa chapter which was such a delightful event of Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. B. Thielsen on Court street.

Those who entertained with Mrs. Thielsen were Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. C. C. Best, Mrs. E. D. Dent, Mrs. Ivan Putnam and Miss Nell Thielsen.

Mrs. O. P. Hoff, a former member of the chapter, was a guest.

Mrs. S. L. Minard, Mrs. J. Lyman Steed and Mrs. F. S. Sherwin are recent new members of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Particularly pleasing musical numbers were given during the program, hour by Miss Nancy Thielsen, Miss Gretchen Thielsen and Miss Iva Claire Love.

Miss Nancy Thielsen sang "Silver Ring" (Chanticleer) and "The Elf" (Wells), with Miss Gretchen Thielsen accompanying. Both young girls are granddaughters of the hostess.

Miss Iva Claire Love, violinist, played Torgensen's "Nocturne" and "Country Dance," by Weber.

Miss Gretchen Thielsen played the Berceuse from "Joselyn," by Godard, and "Melody," by Dawes.

At the tea hour Mrs. C. C. Best and Mrs. W. V. Johnson presided at the urns. An exquisite cloth of Philippine linen covered the table which was centered with daffodils and fern in a silver bowl.

The hostesses were assisted in the serving by Miss Frances M. Richards, Miss Nancy Thielsen and Miss Gretchen Thielsen.

The next meeting of the Daughters will be held at the home of Governor and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson at Eola.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauterman Entertain With Ten-Cover Dinner
One of the most attractive dinners of last week was the ten-cover dinner party which Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lauterman entertained at their home on the first day of March. A centerpiece of early spring flowers was used on the table. Green tapers burned in silver holders.

Portland Matrons Will Attend Old Timers' Reunion Tonight

On the motion of Dr. J. O. Mathis at the recent meeting of the Lincoln-McKinley parent-teacher association of Salem, it was voted for the Lincoln-McKinley association to affiliate with the Oregon congress, which brings the association in state and national membership. Officers of this association are Dr. F. L. Utter, president; Dr. B. F. Pound, vice president; and Mrs. J. A. Krebs, secretary and treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Shipley Return From California
Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Shipley are home from a several weeks' absence in California. They spent the greater part of their time in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Junior "Prom" at College Is Spanish Affair
A bit of old Spain was transported to Oregon Agricultural college campus Saturday night when the Junior "Prom" introduced a Spanish motif as a surprise decorative scheme. The men's gymnasium, in which the major function was held, was changed by extensive decorations to a scene in Spain, with balconies and splashes of vivid color the predominant feature.

President and Mrs. W. J. Kerr attended as guests of honor. Governor and Mrs. I. L. Patterson, the guest-honor guests, were unable to attend. Deans of all schools, with their wives, were patrons and patronesses.

Story Telling Section Is Postponed
The story telling section of the Salem Arts League will not meet tonight as scheduled. The meeting has been postponed indefinitely.

When you BUILD or REMODEL specify a GE WIRING SYSTEM

for lifetime service

THE G-E Wiring System is a system of house wiring, embodying adequate outlets, conveniently controlled and using G-E materials throughout.

By asking your architect or builder to specify this system when you build or remodel, you are certain of the comfort and convenience of a modern electrical installation and the satisfaction, economy and resale value of electrical wiring which will last as long as the building stands.

And make sure of quality workmanship by telling your architect or builder to employ a "CHECK" SEAL Electrical Contractor to do the wiring. He can always be identified by the "CHECK" SEAL reproduced in this advertisement.

Remember, before he can use the "Check" Seal to secure your confidence, he has proved to us by his standards of workmanship and by the quality of materials he uses, that he deserves this confidence.
