

SIDE LIGHTS OF THE STAGE and SCREEN

Capitol Theater

A double bill is to be at the Capitol this afternoon and evening, the Levy New York Vaudeville consisting of five good acts, and on the screen George Walsh in "His Rise to Fame." George Walsh demonstrates anew his athletic wizardry. He becomes the champion of the squared circle, a prize fighter without a peer. At home in every form of athletic activity, Walsh is in his element with the padded gloves. The boxing ranks lost one of the most promising contenders when this star forsok his opportunities for those of the silver sheet.

On the stage "The Three Brothers From Arkansas" are headlined, having a well-arranged program of music, songs and dances. Five other good acts complete this wonderful bill.

The Capitol theater is offering for Sunday and Monday a program of comedy. Bonnie Lloyd and her Four Red Hots top the bill in a "Melange of Music and Song and Dance." Miss Lloyd is a pleasing young lady and she is backed by four dapper and talented young men in one of the peppiest revues to be seen here this season. Lester and Vincent have a pleasing comedy vehicle entitled "Community Service" which is a sure laugh producer and shows this charming pair of performers off to a good advantage, giving them ample opportunity to display their versatility. Jewel Floyd, that dashing musical comedy comedienne, presents "Smiles, Songs and Surprises" which is really a clever bit of character impersonations bright and full of good clean laughs. Her costuming is attractive and correct for each character. "The Dancing Kennedys" are a fast pair of hoofers and their offering is one of their own original ideas and one has to be agile in the extreme to out step these nimble footed dancers. Mates Brothers, those "up and down boys" are real athletes and good examples of what careful care of oneself coupled with proper exercise will do in developing a commanding physique. On the screen the Capitol will present "Sporting Chance" a fast racing picture.

Elsinore Theater

A very clever, entertaining and beautifully costumed musical sketch given by The Schubert Octette, under direction of Miss Minnette Mager, and assisted by Miss Fay Wassam, Elizabeth Waters and a trio of male singers known as The Chanticleers will be staged at the Elsinore both matinee and evening shows Saturday as a prologue to the picture "The Great Gatsby," a fascinating mystery play.

The Schubert Octette a professional organization for the past five years has appeared on Chautauque, at the Oregon State Fair, at the opening of the local Elks Temple with the Cherrian Band, and on several occasions at the Portland Auditorium in full concert and on the same program with the Nevil Octette, a program arranged Oregon Composers.

Miss Fay Wassam and Miss Elizabeth Waters are from the White School of Dancing. Miss Wassam will appear in a dance number as "La Spangola," the favorite dancer of Spain. Miss Waters will appear in a truly beautiful dance number "The Little Beggar Dancer."

The Chanticleers, a trio of local boys who are making good in this line. The featured number of the trio will be "In a Little Spanish Town." Kenneth Allen, Collos Marsters and Ed Burnside compose the personnel of the trio.

How satisfyingly the Chinese people incorporate beauty and art in their living is shown by the colors in the costumes, embroideries and hangings which make the Honorable Wu Revue, coming to the Elsinore theater, March 13-14, a wonderful kaleidoscope of color. No race of people has the exquisite sense of color as the Chinese.

The revue stars Harry Gee Haw, a gifted youth, who sings in perfect English and in a musically pleasing voice. He dances with a light grace doing the Merry Widow waltz and the Cake Walk with Miss Lily Lowe, one of the Lotos Blossoms. His easy versatility is further shown in his impersonations of Eddie Cantor doing his famous Sister Gussie song and of Al. Jolson and his manner of singing the Lullaby Rock A Bye Days. He adds an imitation of Frisco, the famous jazz dancer.

The Revue, under the carefully selective hand of its producer, Erwin Connolly, not only sparkles with color, gold and silver embroidery, but glitters with genuine entertainment values. Seven Chinese chorus men open with a native song. The act against an elaborate background then presents an oriental orchestra which gives a sample of jazz as it was played in China thousands of years ago, and the jazz of today. The lotus blossom sisters dance prettily, the jazz orchestra by a change of costume and instrument becomes a hawaiian chorus.

A Chinese tenor in a well enunciated english and occidental understanding of the melody he sings gives "In The Garden of My Heart," and the act closes with the entire company doing the Shanghai hop.

Harry Gee Haw contributes much to the act. He brings to his work that very rare quality which emanates from his own keen appreciation of the beauty of living and from the joy of what he is doing. One other act possesses the same quality, he is Henry Santry. Harry Gee Haw does his impersonations songs and dances with all the enthusiasm of a debut performance. To the audience this is refreshing and conveys to them the impression that they have witnessed a premiere performance.

Richard Dix in "The Quarterback" will be the picture at the Elsinore theater for two days, March 13 and 14.

Oregon Theater

One of the most charming comedies presented here in many a month is "For Wives Only," starring Marie Prevost and featuring Victor Varconi, who made such a hit in Cecil B. De Mille's production, "The Volga Boatman," which will show at the Oregon theater for three days, March 12, 13 and 14.

Miss Prevost is delightful and quite artistic as the wife of a physician of Vienna who, compelled to leave town on a business trip, leaves his bride in the care of three of his best friends. They at once abuse their trust but never offensively, so that subsequent happenings provoke laughter rather than hostility. Miss Prevost plays with her amorous admirers as a cat does with a mouse and never loses control of herself. There are numerous comedy scenes, all of which keep the audience in good humor to the close.

Mr. Varconi, as the husband, is manly and thoroughly convincing. He has magnetism and evinces stellar talents of the highest order.

Six Youths Detained For Investigation

Hearing Held Before Judge Hunt; Denials Made By Boys

Three more Salem boys, Alfred Ambrose, 18, Wilbur Grimes, 16, and Pearl Hansen, 16, have been detained along with Jake Reschke, Elmer Lennon, and Clyde Johnson, on the charge of breaking into the Willamette gymnasium, while the tournament was in progress Thursday evening. All boys were arrested by specially deputized officers in charge of the tournament crowds.

Grimes, Hansen, and Johnson denied that they were involved in the disappearance of numerous articles of wearing apparel and fraternity pins left in the dressing rooms at their questioning before Judge Hunt yesterday afternoon, in juvenile court. Ambrose, the oldest boy arrested, admits that he took some cigarettes out of one of the pockets and then put them back but this was discredited by further evidence.

None of those arrested deny that they broke into the building by way of the roof but none except Ambrose admitted taking anything. All state that there were other boys around, and that they were only trying to get into the game without paying admittance.

They will be held for further investigation.

LOCALS TRIUMPH OVER LA GRANDE IN GAME

It was inevitable that fouls should be frequent, and they were.

The only other scores in the first quarter were a long shot by Lyman of La Grande and two free throws by Olinger, and Salem led 4 to 3 at the end of the period.

In the second quarter the red and black began to steady. Slegmund and Lyons each got a field basket, and two more converted free throws by Olinger and Duffy brought the score at the half-up to 10 to 5, La Grande's two points in the second quarter being contributed by Lyman.

Things began happening with a rush at the opening of the second half. Lyman was fouled in the act of making a successful shot, and he converted two free throws as a result. Zundell poked in a long one, and La Grande was ahead, 11 to 10.

Then Duffey, who had been having bad luck with his shots, suddenly recovered his accuracy and began rolling in points almost as fast as they could be chalked up on the score board.

And as for La Grande's attack, the thing happened that always happens to a team that relies on long shots; they wouldn't go in when they were needed. This team had used a fast breaking offense the night before, and its unfortunate change of tactics could only be explained by a psychologist, so the use of that term in sports is vindicated after all.

The score at the end of the third quarter was 20 to 11, and Salem added nine more points and held the eastern Oregon team scoreless in the final period.

TWO GANGSTERS KILLED

Chicago Underworld Men Shot to Death By Rival Gunmen

CHICAGO, March 11.—(AP).—Frank "Lefty" Koncil, chief henchman of the Salts liquor band, and Charles "Big Hayes" Rubeck, another member of the clique were shot to death tonight on the West Side, in a burst of bullets that riddled their big sedan.

The police supposition was that the two were slain by rival gangsters on suspicion that they were informers who gave the police and secret service agents word last week that led to the capture of four leaders of a liquor ring as they were siphoning whisky from a government warehouse on the West Side.

SALEM, EUGENE MEN TO TANGLE IN FINAL TILT

ratic start against La Grande But the strain of that game was a lesson from which the red and black warriors are expected to profit, and if they play the game of which they are capable, are believed to be Eugene's equal.

The evening program will start at 7:30, with the consolation finals. Five strong teams are still in the running for this honor, and it is difficult to predict what two teams will play.

Tillamook is favored to win from La Grande in the first semifinal game at 2 p. m. Astoria and Medford will play at 9:30 in the forenoon, and the winner of that game will play Marshfield at 3 in the afternoon.

Indications are that although the crowd tonight will set a new record for attendance at an indoor contest in Salem, there will be seats for all who attend, as there was plenty of room Friday night for those who attended.

The tournament is already a financial success, the receipts Friday night reaching a mark equal to the estimated expenses.

LIONS CLUB HOST FOR SCOUT TROOP

Scouts of Salem troop number four entertained the Salem Lions at their regular luncheon yesterday noon with a group of scouting stunts and exhibitions of craftsmanship under the direction of Scoutmaster Harold Ware and Troop Leader Charles Hudkins.

The program started with every one repeating the scout oath, followed by a presentation of scout laws by Allen Earle. Horace Stewart explained the significance of scout badges and their uses as a stimulant to higher activities.

The entire troop sang a favorite song, preceding Max Langford's demonstration of first aid work. Langford and Stewart exhibited the different methods of signaling used by the troop. Paul Laferty and Horace Stewart showed the Lions the system used when they run out of matches on their field trips by making fire by friction in nearly record time.

Scouts taking part in the highly pleasing exhibition were Arthur Oppen, Sam Earle, Russell Shipman, Robert Carpenter, Jesse L. Lampkin, Lawrence Stoddard, Ralph Ennor, Robert Wygant, Leland Brown, Robert Wood, Clinton Vincent, Win Jink, Bud Hoff-nell, Dalton McPheeters, Guyles George, Allan Earle, Paul Vermilion, Horace Stewart, Max Langford, J. Darby, Paul Laferty, Charles Barnard, Rodney Quisenberry, and Donald Chapel.

All service clubs in the city have now been hosts to various scout troops who have given skillful exhibitions of their work under the direction of scoutmaster Ware.

CHINESE, REDS DRAWING NEAR TO HOSTILITY

Grave Situation Brews as Result of Pekingese Seizure of Envoys

SHIP SELLS AT AUCTION

Russian Government Warns That Extreme Measures Will Be Taken in Case Mischance Befalls Prisoners

SHANGHAI, March 11.—(AP).

A grave situation is brewing between the Chinese government at Peking and Soviet Russia over the seizure of the soviet vessel, Pamiat Lenina, a week ago, and the arrest of Mme. Borodin, wife of the adviser to the Cantonese government, and three Russian couriers.

The soviet officials clearly mistrust the assurances of the Chinese authorities as to the safety of the captives and fear that Mme. Borodin, and her fellow prisoners will meet short shrift should they fall into the hands of white Russians attached to the northern army.

Accordingly the soviet government has sent a second, and sterner note to Peking, warning that the soviet government will take extreme measures should mischance befall the Russians.

The note calls attention to lack of definite information regarding the fate of the Russians and says in conclusion:

"The embassy of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics hereby declares that the Chinese government will bear full responsibility for the safety of the couriers and other persons detained and warns the Chinese government that any violation of their safety might certainly bring most serious consequences and compel the soviet government to appeal to exceptional measures."

Foreign Minister Wellington Koo at Peking assured the soviet charge d'affaires, M. Chernyck, that he had nothing to fear for the safety of the prisoners who are being detained at Tsinan. Meanwhile Great Britain and the United States are concerned over the disorders in the city of Wuhu, which recently was captured by the Cantonese. Riots broke out there Tuesday and Wednesday and the customs house was looted.

American Minister MacMurray has directed the American consul general at Hankow to draw up a protest for presentation to the Cantonese authorities against the looting of American mission property at Wuhu, while the British government has made representations to Foreign Minister Eugene Chen regarding the disorders there, and asking him to protect British lives and property.

A Chinese general has arrived at Wuhu and was stated to have taken the necessary measures to preserve order. The British gunboat Emerald also is on the spot. Meanwhile fighting, which may have a decisive effect on China's civil war, is going on in Honan province and numbers of wounded have been reaching Peking.

An idea + Action = profit

A progressive coffee distributor devised a new container with the brand name appearing on one side and the word "sugar," "salt," or some other household commodity for which the can could later be used, on the other side. The idea would appeal to housewives and quick distribution was needed. Nineteen Long Distance calls to dealers in nine states resulted in eighteen orders—total 27,128 pounds of coffee. Telephone sales efficiency, 94.7%.

When your business demands quick action, depend upon Long Distance telephone service to accomplish results speedily and at low cost.

Among the many new and practical uses of Long Distance you will no doubt find some applicable to your business. These will be cheerfully discussed with you upon request to the business office of the Telephone Company.
