Special Musical Numbers Will Be Heard at Club

Two groups of delightful musical numbers will be featured at the regular meeting of the Salem Woman's club this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the club house. Miss Helen Bridgeman will play "Over the Steppes" (Schutte) and "Waltz in A Flat." (Brahms). Miss Dorothy Ryan, pupil of Miss Lucile Ross, will play "Romance" (Sibelius), and "Crashshooters' Dance." (Eastwood Lane), from "Five American Dances."

The speaker of the afternoon will be Fred W. Park of Portland, state director of Americanization, who will take "Americanization" as his subject.

W. R. C. Names Committees for Benefit Dinner at Y. M. C. A. March 17

Mrs. Bertha Loveland was hostess to 33 members and friends of the Ladies' Aid society of the Woman's Relief corps on Thursday afternoon when complete arrangements were made for the dinner which will be served on March 17, from 11 to 2 o'clock at the city YMCA.

Visitors at the meeting were Mrs. Jennie Woolery, Mrs. Walter Eberhard, Mrs. McDurby and Mrs. Train of Helena, Mont., who is spending the winter in Salem.

The proceeds from the benefit dinner will go to defray expenses of the GAR state encampment which will be held in Salem in June.

The following committees were appointed to take charge of the affair:

Dining room: Mrs. Mary Ackerman, Mrs. Myrtle Collins, Miss Ada Simpson, Mrs. Anna Simmons, Mrs. J. N. Robertson, Mrs. Catherine Low, Mrs. Rose Voris, Mrs. Ida Tragilo, Mrs. Pearl Harris, Mrs. Gertrude Remington, Mrs. Charity Gamble, Mrs. Louise King, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Lulu Boring and Mrs. Bertha Loveland.

Kitchen: Mrs. Laura McAdams, Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mrs. Pauline Clark, Mrs. Louise Koon, Mrs. Antoinette Bennett, Mrs. Marie Kaup, Mrs. Clara Ryan, Mrs. Hattie Cameron and Mrs. Bessie Martin.

The rooms were decorated for the afternoon with cala lilies and other spring flowers.

Refreshments were served with St. Patrick's day favors. Mrs. Loveland was assisted by Mrs. Bessie Martin, Mrs. Florence Shipp, Mrs. Rose Voris, Mrs. Clara Adams, Mrs. Jennie F. B. Jones and Mrs. Anna Simmons.

All Relief corps members are asked to attend the GAR memorial services at the armory on Sunday at 2 o'clock.

The committee in charge of the wreaths includes Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mrs. Mary Ackerman, Mrs. Gertrude Remington, Mrs. Hattie Cameron, Mrs. Louise King, Mrs. Jennie Martin and Mrs. Bertha Loveland.

Regional Secretary of Voters' League Speaks in Portland

Governmental topics were the subject of a talk given Friday by Mrs. Elsie Taarp of San Francisco, secretary of the seventh region of the League of Women Voters, in the league headquarters at the Heathman hotel at 3 p. m.

Mrs. Taarp was a practicing attorney in San Francisco before her marriage and has long been identified with affairs of the league in California. Her subject, "Governmental Topics," included an outline of the government of the United States and federal aid for the states. Under the latter subject Mrs. Taarp spoke on the Shepard-Towner act, which has, perhaps, received the support of more women than any other bill. The bill is based on education and assistance to safeguard women in child birth, and was evolved after the children's bureau published a paper by Dr. Meigs in 1917 on "Maternal Mortality." In that paper Dr. Meigs stated that child-birth caused more deaths among women between the ages of 15 and 44 than any disease except tuberculosis. The League of Women Voters has been ardent supporters of the Shepard-Towner bill and officials state that public opinion applied persistently and intelligently was unmistakably the force that brought renewal of the Shepard-Towner maternity and infancy act for another two years.—Portland Telegram.

Play at Boys' Training School Decided Success

The play, "An Old Fashioned Mother," which was presented by the institutions department of the Salem Woman's club, and which was directed by Perry Reigelman Tuesday evening at the boys' training school, was a complete success. In fact, the play proved to be one of the most appreciated entertainments the department has ever sponsored.

Mrs. Frank E. Turner sang a group of appreciated vocal solos, including "Pal of My Cradle Days." Floyd Hain played the accompaniments.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Endicott motored to the school to attend the program.

Mrs. Kells Will Entertain Writers' Section

in an interesting musical sketch presented under the direction of Miss Minnie Magers. The octette will be assisted by a trio of young men, "The Chanticleers," and by two talented young girls from Mrs. White's dancing academy.

The following synopsis gives an idea of the feature: It is twilight, and a few friends have gathered to enjoy the evening in conversation and song. They sing the beautiful melody from Moszkowsky, arranged for ladies' voices by Mildenburg. A beggar who has slyly crept in unobserved is then noticed by the hostess and commanded to dance. She replies that she is weak from hunger and begs alms. None believe her, and command her to dance. She gives a short dance and falls exhausted. While she is being revived someone passes her money and she runs away to buy food. Determined to see the party, she again creeps in unobserved and finishes her lunch. La Spagnola, the favorite dancer of Madrid, has been engaged to dance for the party, and is now discovered entering. All hail her and sing "La Spagnola," during which she gives two short dances, followed by her special dance which is everywhere the favorite. When she finishes "The Chanticleers" are asked to sing the popular song, "In a Little Spanish Town." The entire company joins in the chorus, two of the sopranos taking an obbligato. The finale is a four-part chorus of "Carmen."

The feature is given in costume, the costumes having been obtained from the Hollywood and Portland costume houses of Portland. The personnel of the octette includes Jean Percy, Eleanor Moore, Hilda Amster and Dorothy Grant, sopranos; Arbutus Rudie, Elaine Chapin, Myra Gleason, Ruth Swart, contraltos. Miss Grace Fawk, who has recently returned from California and who is a character member of the octette, is also assisting.

Elizabeth Waters appears in the role of "The Spanish Beggar," while Faye Wassam is "La Spagnola." The three members of the Chanticleers are Kenneth Allen, Collas Marsters and Edward Burnside. The accompanists are Florence Bush and Mrs. James Teed.

Royal Neighbors Plan for Convention

At the regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors camp on Wednesday the time was spent in drill work preparatory to the convention which will be held in Silverton on April 29. The Salem camp will put on the initiatory work. Due to the inability of both the president and the vice president of the club to be present, the secretary, Mrs. Bertha Loveland presented the banners, staffs and the altar cloth, received by the sewing club, to the society. Mrs. Rose Abbott gave the response.

Mrs. Prael Is Honored

Mrs. W. I. Northrup was hostess this afternoon at a luncheon of 25 covers at her home on Portland Heights, in compliment to Mrs. Rudolph Prael, who is leaving soon for a trip abroad. Bridge was the diversion after lunch.

Film at First Congregational Church

Next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock the "Transgressors" will be shown as the feature of the evening worship at the First Congregational church. This picture was produced by Rev. James K. Shields, author of "The Stream of Life," "A Maker of Man," "Lest We Forget," "Hell and the Way Out," etc.

This is an absorbing, vivid and dramatic appeal to the American people to be loyal to the laws and constitution of our country. Both the "bar" of yesterday and the "bootlegger" of today are dealt with in a wonderful story, true and timely that will not soon be forgotten. Children must be accompanied by their parents.

Right Now Is BUYING TIME!

Make, model and lineage, motor, tires, paint and price—tell your Want Ad readers these things and draw the best prospects for your car.

Many a radio fan would like to change his set every week—just for the novelty. You can easily find a different radio in the Want Ads.

WHEN that soft, mellow smell of stirring earth and unborn flowers wafts down the first spring breeze, a strange metamorphosis takes place in the breast of Mr. Average Citizen. He ceases to be hardboiled about money and decides to loosen up a little.

If you have real estate for sale, advertise it now. If you want to sell your summer home, sell it now. Also, used cars, used furniture, books that are no longer read, objects d'art which no longer charm. A Want Ad will rent your furnished room or apartment, or sell your services to an appreciative employer. If what you have to sell is either useful or valuable, or capable of rendering a service you can turn it into cash through the magic of a Want Ad.

Many friendly pets will find good homes this Spring through our columns.

Vacancies in stores and offices, which are bound to come from time to time are easily filled by telling our Want Ad readers what you have to offer.

Ordinarily, to obtain the best results your Want Ad should state in the following order:—the object to be bought or sold, a definite description as to size, color, uses, an idea as to the price, and should wind up with a clear statement of where you may be located, by giving your name and address or phone number, reserving to the blind box number only when an open address would prove definitely embarrassing.
