KIMBALL TRUSTEES

Dean McCormick's Request for "Leave" to Make Tour Meets Approval

Approval of a recommendation that the present faculty be retained for next year was given at a meeting of the Kimball School of Theology board of trustees in Portland yesterday afternoon, according to President John M. Canse. Dr. Edward L. Mills, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, who is president of the board, acted as chairman. There is a possibility that an additional Argentins, and for at least the time $25,000 instructor will be added to the staff later, said President Canse.

A request by Dean John D. Mc-Cormick that he be released from administrative duties during next summer in order that he might tour was also approved. Dean Suit cases, valises, portfolios, brief make his contemplated European McCormick plans to include a visit to the holy land while he is over
