One Hundred Women Attend Meeting of First Methodist General Aid Society

The general aid society of the First Methodist church held the regular business and social meeting on Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors. A large group of women, probably 100 in all, enjoyed the meeting.

A number in the group had the distinction of having passed their 75th birthday anniversary. This group was particularly honored during the afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Vandevort, president of the society, presided.

Mrs. Carl G. Doney had charge of the devotions. She read from the book of Luke, chapter 10, verses 28-43. The story of Mary and Martha proved to be a most helpful one. Mrs. Doney gave a valuable talk on the necessity of shouldering responsibility in vital places, and the eternal importance of putting "first things first." A group of prayers closed the service, the concluding one by Mrs. Doney.

The Southeast circle, of which Ada Miller is president, will be the hostess group for April. The president named the South Central circle, with Mrs. J. R. Carruthers in charge, to take charge of the pulpit decorations for the following month.

Committees were appointed to take charge of numerous activities within the society. The sum total of calls made by the members will mount into the hundreds.

An especially attractive table, centered with bowls and baskets of spring blossoms, a birthday cake, and brightly lighted golden tapers was arranged for the eight guests of honor of the day—the women of the society who have celebrated their 75th birthday anniversary. Covers at the table were placed for a group of eight, including Mrs. Mary Littler, who is 86; Mrs. Arletta M. Page, who is 83; Mrs. W. H. Byars, who is also 83; Mrs. M. Heisler, who is 80; Mrs. Pauline Leabo, who is 80; Mrs. F. B. Southwick, who is 79; Mrs. E. T. Witter, who is 77, and Mrs. B. P. Salmon, who is also 77.

After the honor guests were seated, the remaining members formed a large circle around the smaller group. All joined hands and sang "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds."

Dr. D. H. Leach closed the service with an impressive prayer. Members of the Yew Park circle had charge of the social hour, with Mrs. Ida F. Shade, the president, in charge.

During the refreshment period Miss Bing Tsai, a young Chinese student at Willamette university, played a piano solo.

A bowl of daffodils centered the tea table. Mrs. Ida Shade, president, and Mrs. Cecil Hawley, secretary of the Yew Park circle, presided at the urns.

Assistants for the afternoon were Mrs. Josephine Davis, Mrs. M. Kirshner, Mrs. J. J. Mickey, Mrs. Etha M. Martin, Mrs. D. H. Cox, Mrs. J. O. Grimes, Mrs. D. W. Waterman, Mrs. E. E. Gilliam and Mrs. Lena F. Lisle.

Neighborhood Party Honors Mrs. Arthur Holden on Birthday Anniversary

The birthday anniversary of Mrs. Arthur Holden was delightfully celebrated Wednesday evening when the neighborhood group planned a surprise party in her honor. A handkerchief shower was a feature of the evening which was spent in games, with Miss Wilma Fensler in charge.

At a late hour delicious birthday refreshments were served. Those participating in the pleasure of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holden and daughter Eileen, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Eilers, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Beardsley, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Fensler, Miss Wilma Fensler, Mrs. L. M. Braden and daughter Lorraine, and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Enell.

Mr. and Mrs. Holden plan to leave at the end of this week for Myrtle Point where they will spend several days.

Miss Miller Is Guest in Salem

Miss Pauline Miller, who is a member of the faculty of the Springfield high school, is spending her spring vacation in Salem at her home.

Card Party at Parish House Is Successful

Twenty-eight ladies were guests at the benefit card party on Monday at St. Paul's parish house which the Royal Neighbors' society sponsored. Five hundred was the diversion of the afternoon.

Mrs. A. H. Cleveland won the first prize, while the second award went to Mrs. W. J. Johnson.

The benefit was managed by Mrs. Pearl Lickis, Mrs. Azzle Hixson and Mrs. Mildred Nash.

Another similar affair is being planned for later in the season. Mr. and Mrs. Marsters Motor to South Bend motored to South Bend, Wash., earlier in the week to meet their daughter, Miss Beryl Marsters who is teaching school at that place. Miss Marsters will spend a brief spring vacation in Salem before resuming her teaching.

Mrs. Bunn and Mrs. Nash Entertain Sewing Club

The Royal Neighbors' Sewing club was delightfully entertained the first of the week by Mrs. A. H. Bunn and Mrs. Mildred Nash. An all-day meeting was enjoyed, with 23 members in attendance. Visitors were Mrs. Whittig, Mrs. Geiser and Mrs. Harold Bunn. Little four-year-old Eldon McCullen, the mascot of the group, was also present. The day was spent with bazaar work.

Stockton Home Is Scene of Delightful Afternoon of Bridge and Tea

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Jas. Lee Stockton and Miss Zoe Stockton were hostesses at a delightful eight-table bridge tea at their home on North Summer street.

Early spring blossoms—lovely bowls of almond, daphne and wild currant—were used in the rooms.

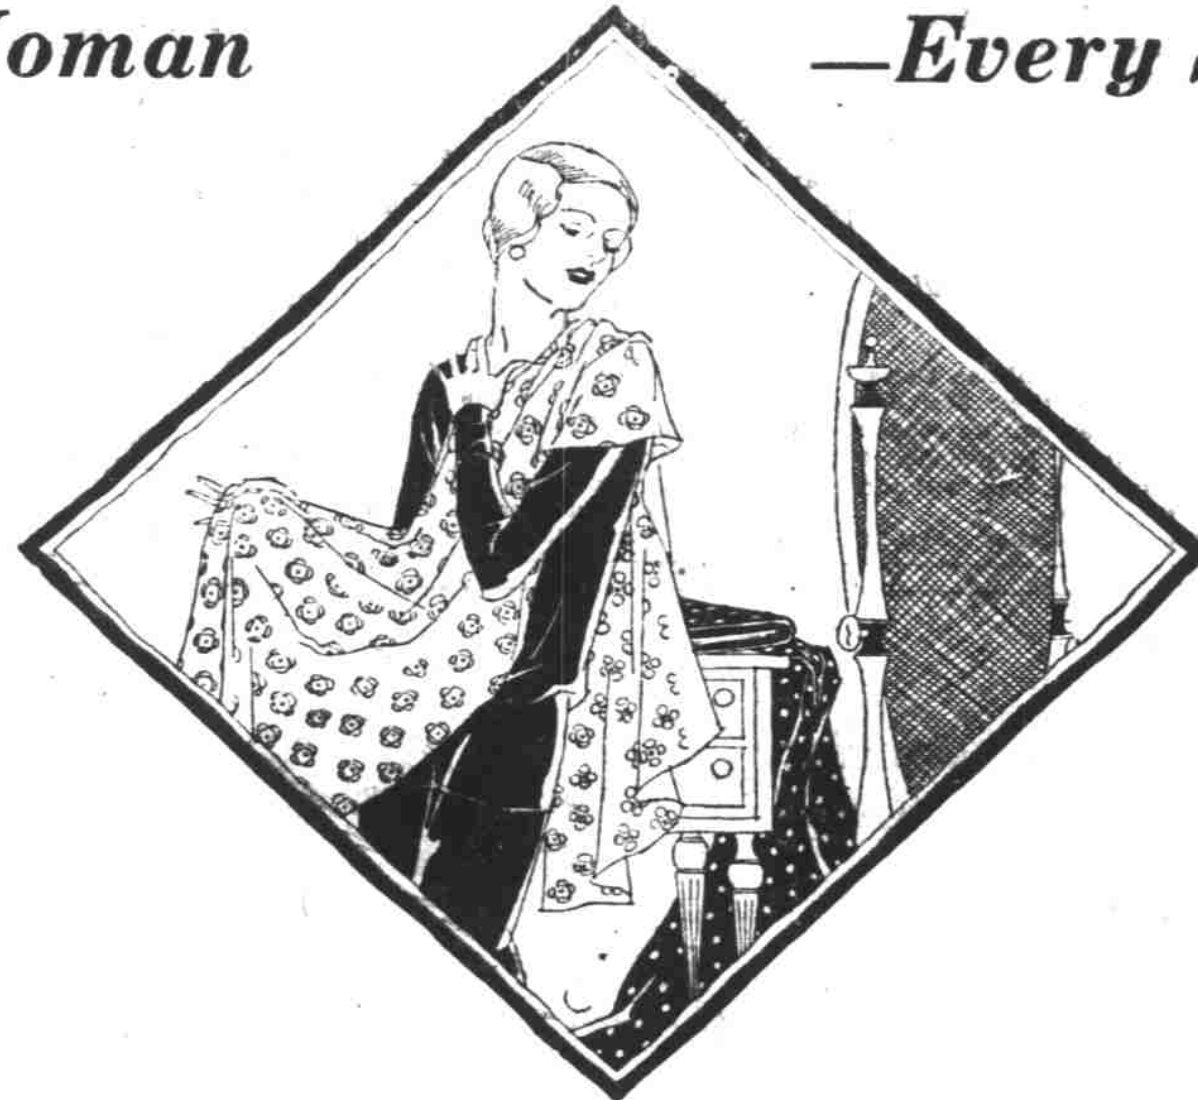

High and second high honors were won by Mrs. S. P. Kimball and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Frank G. Myers and Mrs. Paul V. Johnson.

The guests were Mrs. Thomas Kay, Mrs. Henry J. Bean, Mrs. Harry H. Belt, Mrs. Louis Leete and Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding.
