LAIS TO APHRODITE (Plato)

When I, poor Laïs, with my crown Of Beauty could laugh Hellas down, Young lovers crowded at my door, Where now my lovers come no more.

So, Goddess, you will not refuse A mirror that has now no use; For what I was I cannot be, And what I am I will not see.

Edwin Arlington Robinson, From: "Variations of Greek Themes."

Dean Kate W. Jamieson Gives Inspiring Address at Meeting of Woman's Club

Of unbounded inspiration to mothers of girls was the talk yesterday afternoon at the Salem Woman's club which Dean Kate W. Jamieson, dean of women at Oregon Agricultural college, gave at the regular March tea meeting.

Dean Jamieson, taking a quotation from Tennyson as her keynote, spoke on "The Partnership of Parents and Children," specifically, the partnership between mothers and their daughters. The necessity of complete understanding was particularly stressed.

Dean Jamieson expressed herself in favor of the creation of the office of "dean of social conditions" in the public school system. According to this plan, a woman to advise young people in a social way, would be as indispensable to the teaching staff as any of its present members.

Dean Jamieson does not hold either the institution or the home or the school responsible for the present type of American youth. They, like all else, are a product of our civilization,—with personalities that are a reaction to the environment in which they live.

A call to the county federation which will be held in Woodburn on April 29 was made at the business session.

A resolution of regret was expressed at the death of Mrs. M. E. Brewer, one of the most recent, but also one of the most active, members of the club.

Mrs. Frank M. Erickson gave the report of the American Home department institute which was held in Portland on March 18.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott announced the state public health institute which will be held in Portland on April 15. The morning session will be held at the Heathman hotel, after which the delegates will pay an official visit to the Doehrnbecher hospital. Mrs. Elliott made a special call for volunteers in the county health work in the public schools—117 are needed in all. Those who will respond are asked to call Mrs. Elliott.

The musical numbers of the afternoon were given by two talented pupils of Miss Elma Weller, Virginia Bright played "The Parting," by Burgmuller; Arthur Boeschens gave two numbers, "To the Rising Sun," (Torjussen) and "Country Gardens," (Grainger).

The audience was delighted with the manner in which the young musicians played.

Mrs. J. C. Perry was in charge of the tea committee for the afternoon. She was assisted by Mrs. Ralph Cooley.

The table was lovely with daffodils and spirea, around which yellow tapers glowed in crystal sticks.

Mrs. W. H. Steusloff and Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh presided at the urns.

On the committee were Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mrs. W. H. Steusloff, Mrs. S. W. Thompson, Mrs. R. L. White, Mrs. C. A. Kells, Mrs. Merle Rosecrans, Mrs. Rollin K. Page, Mrs. E. M. Page, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Alma Pohle, Mrs. Morton E. Peck, Mrs. W. A. Marshall, Mrs. W. A. Mullen, Mrs. W. C. Kantner, Mrs. R. M. McDonald, Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh, Mrs. Ralph Cooley, Mrs. Frank Power and Mrs. George W. Cleveland Jr.

Young Son of Former Salem Pastor Wins Honors in Musical Field

There are many Salem friends of Rev. and Mrs. James Elvin, formerly of the First Congregational church, who will be interested in the news that their 13-year-old son, Thomas Elvin, won first place in a vocal contest conducted recently in Helena, Mont., where the Elvins are located.

This honor entitles the young singer to compete in a state-wide contest which will be held in Livingston, Mont., on April 1 and 2.

Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist Jr. Arrive Home Last Night

Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist Jr., after an eight months' tour around the world, arrived home last night on the 8:30 train.

Miss Eleanor Eakin Becomes Bride of Donald Le Bosquet Sweeney in Astoria

The many Salem friends of Mrs. Donald Le Bosquet Sweeney

hostess, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert. On Friday Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wilcox, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert from Hancock, Minn., were honor guests at an attractive dinner party at the Gilbert home. The guests were all former Minnesotans folk.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taplin of Forest Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Charles of Hancock, Minn., the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wilcox, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert.

Minnesota Folk, Who Are Home, Are Honored Guests at Monroe Gilbert

Mrs. F. W. Wilcox was the inspiration of a delightful tea on Thursday afternoon when her daughter, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, entertained for her pleasure. Guests called at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert for the tea, which was held from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Daffodils, jonquils and narcissi were lovely in the rooms. Miss Sarah Lansing assisted the hostess.

Those invited included Mrs. F. D. Thielson, Miss Helen Hope Rodolf, Mrs. S. M. Endicott, Mrs. R. E. Cartwright, Mrs. Karl Heinlein, Mrs. Elmo S. White, Miss Sarah Lansing, Mrs. B. O. Schuck, Mrs. A. N. Gilbert, Mrs. John F. Law, Mrs. E. I. Doan, the honor guest, Mrs. F. W. Wilcox, and the

(Eleanor Eakin) who have been eager to hear the details of her wedding will be interested in the following account from the Astoria Evening Budget:

"At a beautiful and impressive ceremony at 8:30 o'clock Monday evening Miss Jerusha Eleanor Eakin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Eakin, became the bride of Donald Le Bosquet Sweeney. The service was read at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. W. S. Gilbert of Portland. A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance from Portland, Salem and Eugene, as well as Astoria.

"Immediately preceding the ceremony Miss Nancy Thielson of Salem sang "Because." Mrs. William H. Burghardt Jr., also of Salem, played the wedding march.

"The service was read before the fireplace in the living room, which was banked with Japanese plum blossoms and greens, flanked with tall altar candles. The bride, who was given away by her father, was lovely in a gown of ivory satin, ornamented with rare old lace which had been worn as a bridal dress by her two sisters, Mrs. F. C. Fulton and Mrs. C. T. McClean. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, lilies of the valley, and orchids. Miss Priscilla Eakin, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of blue satin ornamented with pink. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds. Little Miss Mary Ada Fulton, in a dainty frock of pink organdy, was an irresistible flower girl.

"Carl Washburn of Eugene, a cousin of the bride, attended the groom as best man.

"Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held honoring the young people.

"The dining room was effectively decorated with pink tulips and tall candles. In the living room, lacy plum bloom was used. Mrs. C. W. Fulton of Portland and Mrs. Albert Dunfer cut the ices and presided at the urns.

"Those assisting in the dining room were Miss Helen Laidlaw, Miss Mary Herbert Gwynne, Miss Martha Shull, Miss Marjorie Daly, Miss Marion Bowen, Miss Peggy Wood and Miss Betty Higgins.

"Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney left following the reception for Seaside. The following afternoon they left for their home in Boston, going by way of San Francisco, to New Orleans and then on to Washington and Massachusetts.

"The bride, who is a member of one of the most prominent families of Oregon, attended the University of Oregon where she was a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She has traveled extensively both in America and in Europe.

"Mr. Sweeney is a graduate of Harvard, and has also spent much time in Europe. He is now connected with the banking firm of Kidder & Peabody in Boston.

"Among the number of out-of-town guests in attendance at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Washburn of Eugene, Mrs. Ada Strong, Mrs. George F. Rodgers, Mrs. William H. Burghardt Jr., Miss Nancy Thielson, Miss Gertrude Eakin and Harold Eakin, all of Salem; Miss Martha Shull, Miss Betty Higgins and Miss Helen Laidlaw of Portland, and Miss Peggy Wood of Seattle."

Mrs. Harry Weis Entertains Luncheon and Bridge

An unusually delightful affair of Friday afternoon was the 1 o'clock luncheon, followed by an afternoon of cards, at which Mrs. Harry Weis was hostess at her home.

Bowls of golden daffodils were used in decorating the rooms.

Mrs. Clarence Byrd won the afternoon's highest score, while the second prize went to Mrs. Laban Steeves. Mrs. Weis was assisted by Mrs. J. E. Law and Mrs. Ray Hartman.

Covers at the luncheon tables were placed for Mrs. F. C. Myers, Mrs. Carl Webb, Mrs. J. E. Law, Mrs. Laban Steeves, Mrs. Max Page, Mrs. Lester Barr, Mrs. Elmer Dae, Mrs. Fred Delano, Mrs. Clarence Byrd, Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. Harold M. Brown, Mrs. G. L. Arbuckle, Mrs. H. R. Worth, Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Mrs. S. J. Butler, Mrs. George Simmons and the hostess, Mrs. Harry Weis.

Unique Puppet Show Will Open on Tuesday Afternoon at Parrish School

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of this week, beginning promptly at 4 o'clock, a puppet show will be given at the Parrish junior high school in room 23—the art room—by the A class of the eighth grade. The novel entertainment will be sponsored by Miss Vivian Hargrove, instructor of art at Parrish junior high.

The puppets and the stage sets have, without exception, been exquisitely constructed—the former by the girls of the class; the latter by the boys. The little creatures are surprisingly life-like—particularly the queen, with her sophisticated eyes.

In the play, "Dwarts," Elaine McCarroll will take the Snow-White's part.

The queen puppet's speaking part will be taken by Pansy Slavens. Wava Williams will represent the prince; Orville Hale will be Redbeard, the Huntsman. The three dwarfs will be George Williams, Seviter Horn and John Barker. An admission fee of 5 cents will be charged.

Mrs. Stewart Visits Portland

Mrs. Josephine Stewart, house-mother at the Gamma Phi Beta sorority at the University of Oregon, spent the spring vacation in Portland as the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. A. Stevens.

Junior Choir of Thirty Voices Will Give Vesper Concert Today at 3:30

One of the interesting musical events of the Lenten season will be the vesper concert at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church in Salem which the junior choir of the First Presbyterian church in Corvallis will give. Byron D. Arnold, of the OAC conservatory of music, is the conductor of the chorus, in which 30 voices are enrolled.

The public is cordially invited to attend the musicale. There will be no admission charge.

Organ numbers by Ronald Hall, 13-year-old musician; an instrumental trio for violin, piano and pipe organ; a solo on the French horn, and a concerto for two violins will be among the special features.

The complete program will be as follows:

Before going to Corvallis three years ago, Mr. Arnold held organ positions at the First Congregational church and at the First Presbyterian church.

Salem Shrine Club Will Sponsor Formal Ball Tomorrow Night

The Salem Shrine club will welcome its members at a formal ball tomorrow evening, March 28, in Derby hall.

The committee in charge includes C. S. Pratt, Gus Erickson and Fred Sample.

Golden Wedding Will Be Celebrated in House Where Ceremony Was Performed

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Ohmart will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, April 3, with open house for all of their friends at their home on the Pacific highway just south of Salem. No formal invitations will be issued, but this means is taken to ask those interested to call from 1 to 4 o'clock on the above date.

An interesting fact in connection with the anniversary is that it will take place in the home where the marriage was solemnized 50 years ago.

Mrs. Ohmart is a native daughter of Salem, her parents being Fabritus R. Smith and Virginia Pringle, well known pioneers of 1846. Mr. Ohmart is a native of Indiana, but came to Salem in 1875.

Beethoven Program Will Be Inspirational Event of Tomorrow at Waller Hall

The celebration of the centennial of the death of Ludwig van Beethoven, which is taking place all over the world, will have its culmination in Salem tomorrow night at Waller Hall, under the sponsorship of the Salem MacDowell club.

In recognition of the genius of this internationally loved master, all music on the program will be by Beethoven.

The Beethoven address will be the contribution of Miss Frances Virginia Melton, head of the piano and theory departments of the Willamette university school of music.

The participants on the program, which will open at 8 o'clock will be Miss Melton, Beethoven lecturer, Miss Dorothy Pearce and Miss Lucille Ross, pianists; Miss Lena Belle Tartar, contralto soloist; and Iva Clare Love and Helen Seig O'Neil, violinists.

The program of Beethoven composition will be given in the following order:

Piano — Sonata Pathetique.

The Easter Parade

As the annual parade is seen promenading along the boulevard Easter morn it takes on a lighter step, as though all the world's cares had been left behind. As every woman knows, a new frock or Wilson coat is most inspiring and the new Easter costumes doubtless go a long way toward putting that lighter step into the Easter promenade.

Seeing Easter from the Fashion Angle

—then, lies uppermost in the thoughts of the smart world at this time. Among the best dressed in the parade this year will walk those who have chosen their wardrobes from among Wilson Fashion Shop's outstanding modes.
