Upper left: Miss Fay Irvine, talented young violinist of Independence, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Irvine. Miss Irvine, who is a pupil of Miss Elizabeth Levy, will be presented in recital in the near future. Miss Irvine was a soloist at Freshman Glee.

Upper right: Jeanne (standing) and Marie (seated) Patton, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Patton. Jeanne is eleven years of age, while Marie is twelve years old.

Lower left: Mr. and Mrs. George Ward De Beck of Vancouver, B. C., who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mayor and Mrs. T. A. Livesley, on Saturday, March 19. Mr. and Mrs. De Beck are both Canadians, though their marriage was solemnized on American soil, — at Port Townsend in 1877. Mrs. De Beck has the distinction of being one of the first white children born in New Westminster.

Lower right: Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, daughter of Attorney General I. W. Van Winkle, who is state president of the Oregon conference of Girl Reserves. Last week-end a large group of local girls attended the state conference at The Dalles. They were accompanied by Mrs. L. W. Gleason, chaperon, and Miss Elizabeth Baker, secretary of the city YWCA.

LINES FOUND ON A HOSPITAL WALL

(Anonymous)

The cry of man's anguish went up unto God:
'Lord, take away pain, the shadow that darkens
The world Thou hast made; the close-fitting chains
That strangle the heart; the burden that weighs
On the wings that would soar. Lord, take away pain
From the world Thou hast made, that it love Thee the more.'

Then answered the Lord to the cry of the world:
'Shall I take away pain and with it the power of the soul
To endure, made strong by the strain?
Shall I take away pity, that knits heart to heart?
And sacrifice high? Will you lose all your heroes
That lift from the fire white brows to the sky?
Shall I take away love that redeems with a price
And smiles at its loss? Can you spare from your lives
That would cling unto Mine the Christ on the Cross?'

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey Invite All Friends to Assist in Celebration

Each and every friend of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey, who will observe their golden wedding anniversary tomorrow morning and tomorrow night, is invited to share in the celebration. No invitation is needed other than that issued through the press. Friends will be equally welcome to the mass which Father J. R. Buck will read at 9 o'clock at St. Joseph's church and to the golden jubilee reception which will take place in the evening at St. Joseph's auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Davey are exceedingly prominent Oregon citizens. Their lives have been linked in an unusually influential way with the progress of Salem.

For many years Mr. Davey was city editor of The Oregon Statesman. Formerly, he was a speaker of the house.

In a special communication from Silverton, the following facts are interesting:

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Domogalla of Silverton are anticipating a most enjoyable time next Sunday and Monday, when Mrs. Domogalla's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey, who were married on April 4, 1877, are expected to celebrate their golden wedding with them.

On Sunday afternoon a family dinner and reunion will be enjoyed. On Monday morning the party will go to Salem to attend services in St. Joheph's church, where the family held membership for many years. Returning to Silverton an informal reception for the meeting of any old friends who may wish to call, will be held at the Domogalla home, on the Salem road in the west end of the city, during the afternoon. In the evening the party will be guests at a reception which has been arranged for the "bride and groom" at St. Joseph's auditorium, Salem.

Mrs. J. C. Bowen, another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davey, with her husband, daughter and son will arrive from Baker during this week to be present during the anniversary celebration, as will also the only son of the family, Robt. E. Davey, his wife and son, of Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Davey came to Oregon over 40 years ago and the greater part of that time has been spent in Salem, which they have called their home, even when living for a time in other parts of Oregon. Though they are at present located in Portland, they were easily persuaded to come to Silverton and Salem for this important event.

Socolofsky's Are House Guests in Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Socolofsky and little daughter, Sonia, of Seattle, are guests of their parents for the week-end. Mr. Socolofsky is here to attend the Older Boys' conference where he will have charge of the singing and the devotionals.

Salem MacDowell Club Chorus Will Appear With Alfred Keller on Friday

A noteworthy program will be given in Salem on Friday of this week by the Salem MacDowell club chorus, with Professor W. H. Boyer, of Portland, conducting. The program will take place in Waller Hall at 8 o'clock. A brilliant violinist, Alfred Keller, concert master of the Portland symphony orchestra, has been engaged to assist on the program.

The following interesting comments have been made concerning Mr. Keller's playing:

The press of Prague and Budweis (Bohemia) said, in part: "Keller unraveled a veritably stunning finger and bow technique in a Paganini-like movement."

Portland Telegram, November 3, 1925: "This young violinist plays with spontaneity and fire. He has in himself that something which makes music what it is—without which music becomes merely sound."—Susie Smith.

Oregon Journal, November 3, 1925: "Keller draws a lovely tone with a clean sweeping tone."

Oregonian, February 16, 1926: "The notable feature of the performance of the Scheherezade by the Portland symphony orchestra was the splendid solo playing by Alfred Keller, the concert master."

Oregonian, November 3, 1925: "Mr. Keller is a polished player . . . . has a splendid technical equipment . . . . gave masterful rendition of Wieniawski's 'Scherzo-Tarantelle'."

Portland News, February 16, 1926: "The successful rendition of the suite (The Schererezade) was largely due to the playing of Alfred Keller, concert master."

The personnel of the MacDowell club chorus includes: First sopranos, Mrs. James Fitzgerald, Mrs. E. H. Hobson, Mrs. Leonard Nelson, Mrs. Phil L. Newmyer, Miss Vivian Whistler, Miss Hulda Hammond; second sopranos, Mrs. H. C. Findley, Miss Alpha Williams, Mrs. Helen McHirron, Mrs. J. W. Nash, Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mrs. Richard Robertson; first altos, Mrs. J. E. Law, Mrs. Thomas Galloway, and Mrs. Charles Sherman; second altos, Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn, Mrs. George Allen, Mrs. Merle Rosecrans, and Miss Inez Wood.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Darby Entertain With 36-Cover Dinner Last Night at the Spa

The first week of April inspired a particularly delightful dinner and bridge party last night when Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Darby entertained in the Green Gate room at the Spa with a 7 o'clock dinner, with covers placed for thirty-six, followed with a nine-table bridge party at their home.

The three dinner tables were exceedingly lovely wth baskets of April flowers, in pastel shades, hyacinths, jonquils, narcissi, tulips, and spirea,—arranged with tall lighted tapers, in shades of rose, in green-lacquer holders. Place-cards and score cards were chosen in harmony.

In the group for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Leland S. Geer, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills, Dr. and Mrs. Laban Steeves, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramp, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duncan of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., and the hosts, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Darby.

Salem Garden Club Will Meet Tomorrow Night for Important Meeting

An important meeting of the Salem Garden club will be held tomorrow night, April 4, in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Miss Edith Hazard, who returned last week from California where she spent the winter, will give a talk on Wild Flowers and California gardens." Special Music has been planned in addition.

On account of the sudden illness of her father, it was necessary for Mrs. Monroe Gilbert to cancel the program scheduled.

Interesting plans will be made for the work of the club during the spring.

The public will be especially interested in two plantings which the Salem Garden club has recently supervised, the first at the entrance of the Salem Hospital and the second at the entrance of the Odd Fellows Cemetery.

The first planting consists of English and Portuguese laurels, red currant, sprea and forsythia. The second planting includes cut-leaf birth, red English hawthorn, and English laurel.

Salem Artists Will Bing Season of Notable Attractions to Elsinore

The Elsinore Theatre, which was the scene of a memorable list of attractions during the season that has just closed, will again offer the setting for a second brilliant series. The attractions scheduled for the second year of the Salem Artist Series are available through the Wolfsohn bureau of New York, and promise to be comparable with the glorious Ukrainian Chorus, Cecelia Hansen, violinist, Ernst Von Dohanyi, pianist, and Reinald Werrenrath, baritone.

The 1927-28 season will comprise four engagements. The first will be by Edward Johnson, Metropolitan Opera Company tenor,, John McCormick has chosen to designate as "the greatest living tenor."

A second Metropolitan star, Mary Lewis, 23-year-old soprano, will be available for a brilliant performance.

The famous London String Quartet, with its perfect ensemble, will present a third program bound to go down as artistic histofy in Salem.

While the fourth artist has not been definitely selected, it will probably Alexander Brailowsky, sensational pianist, who was received clamorously in Portland on March 15.

Mrs. Chloe Nero, advance agent for the Bureau, was a guest in Salem last week to make arrangements. She left on the Shasta yesterday morning for California and will return again in ten days.

Mrs. Nero acknowledges fine support on the part of many outlying towns. Her greatest concern comes within Salem, itself. She anticipates, however, the keenest cooperation as soon as the local citizenship realizes the significant attractions that are available.

Mrs. Nero expressed particular appreciation to the Beethoven club of Willamette University, for their undiminished enthusiasm during the season just past. The Salem MacDowell club was mentioned as another cooperative unit.

A partial list of guaranters, which will be augmented later, is as follows: Paul B. Wallace, T. A. Livesley, Miss Sally Bush, A. N. Bush, F. S. Lamport, L. Lunsford, Miller Mercantile Co., Sherman Clay Co., Giese Powers Furniture Co., Moore's Music House, Geo. C. Will, Albert Gille, Mrs. Frank Spears, Salem Men's Chorus, Otto K. Paulus, Frank Neer, Harry W. Scott, Ed Schunke, Otto Hillman, Mrs. W. E. Anderson.

Dr. Rowland Will Entertain Writers' Club

The Writers' club will meet on Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. Mary C. Rowland at 407 Court street.

Dedication of O. A. C. Woman's Building Will Be Event of Mother's Week End

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Ore., April 2—(Special)—Dedication of the women's building has been definitely set for May 6 and 7 to be held in conjunction with Mothers' week-end, an annual affair. The building, which was opened for occupancy in January, required a year and a half to complete.

J. F. Williams, M. D., professor of physical education at Columbia University Teachers' college, New York, will be the principal speaker. He is a noted authority on women's physical education and author of numerous text books, one of which is used here. Dr. Williams will speak to physical education teachers in convention during his stay at OAC.

Alpha Psi Delta Fraternity Annual Festival Takes Place at Schindler's Pavilion

The Alpha Psi Delta fraternity entertained at their annual formal festival at the Temple of Buddha on Friday evening, April 1. The setting for the affair,—one of the most elaborate any group of Willamette University students has ever sponsored,—was the attractive new Schindler's Pavilion west of town.

The guests were received at the door by Miss Buneva Culbertson and Mr. Earl Lawton, costumed as Hindus of the Temple of Buddha. They were introduced to the receiving line by Charles Redding.

In the line were: Clare Geddes, Miss Ruby Delk, Miss Frances M. Richards, Professor and Mrs. Florian Von Eschen, Coach and Mrs. Roy S. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Smith, and Professor and Mrs. Roy L. Harding. Favors were given out by Theodora Boussleur,—each a gift program with the Buddha motif on the cover. Small, carved white elephants were additional favors.

Following the introductions each couple was led into a small side room and requested to kneel before the altar of the Buddha.

The ball-room was beautifully lighted with candles in attractive candelabra and by the light in the two fire places,—one at each end of the auditorium. Buddhas, here and there exhaled the fragrance of incense.

The pastel frocks and flowers worn by the girls made the continually shifting scene a delightful one.

The entire program was in keeping with the chosen theme,—that of a Temple of Buddha.

Willis Hathaway gave "On the Road to Mandalay," as a vocal solo, with Miss Louise Findley accompaning at the piano. Dean Lobaugh gave a vivid Oriental reading, entitled, "At Howli Thana." A Hindu rhapsody, played with dash and charm, followed by Miss Helen Bridgeman. The fourth number on the program was an interpretative Oriental danc, by Miss Edna Wentz.

The Alpha Psi Delta quartette sang two Oriental songs, "Kashmiri Song" and "Where My Caravan Has Rested."

The special role of Hindu mind reader was assigned to Charles Redding, as "Hoodoo-Dini." Many of the problems of the college students were "solved" during the course of the evening.

The orchasera played "That Night in Araby," and "Moonlight in the Ganges."

The evening was concluded with the grand march led by Clare Geddes and Miss Ruby Delk.

Ice cream, molded in elephant shapes, and cookies bearing the Alpha Psi Delta insignia, were featured at the refreshment hour. As the refreshments were served, Helen Selig O'Neil played delightful violin numbers.

The guests of the evening were: Misses Elizabeth Atkinson, Esther Palmer, Frances McGilvra, Katherine Everett, Emily Brown, Lois Morris, Margaret Bolt, Marjory Miller, Camilla Gates, Evelyn Lindberg, Helen Baird, Edna Ledbetter, Edna Wentz, Buneva Culbertson, Sadie Jo Read, Mildred Tomlinson, Lillian Scott, Beatrice Hartung, Evelyn Hartung, June Gaines, Madge Reed, Gaynelle Beckett, Helen Campbell, Lenore Dyer, Rose Huston, Bonnie Zeller, Dorothy Taylor, Nancy Savage, Genevieve Junk, Mary Louise Aiken, Ruth Ross, Helen Marcus, Reva McLaughlin, Eleanor Merewether, Virginia Merle Crites, Helen Bridgeman, Margaret Lewis, Dorothy Ferrier, Marvel Rhine, Beulah Launer, Willeta Leever, Ruby Delk, Elizabeth Silver, Margaret Raught, Margaret Arnold, Phoebe Smith, Louise Findley, Florence Emmons, Iva Dell Crozier, Evelyn Enyeart, Frances M. Miss Ulrich is Hostess at Delightful 12-Cover Dinner

Miss Maxine Nye Ulrich was a charming hostess at a twelve cover dinner, recently, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Ulrich, 1475 Saginaw street. Daffodils and narcissis were correspondingly arranged with yellow tapers to carry out the color plan of yellow and white about the rooms and the tables. Rook was the diversion of the evening. High scores were won by Pauline Hart and Leland Medlar.

Covers were laid for the following guests: Margaret Morehouse, Henrietta Bishop, Pauline Hart, Lena Medlar, Frances Laws, Donald Baker, Paul DeYoe, Curtis French, Leland Medlar, Gould Morehouse, and the hostess, Maxine Ulrich.

Main Spring

Everyone knows what the shank of a shoe is; but few realize its importance. It's the standard bearer of a shoe, to be sure.

In Main Spring* Arch, Walk-Over has patented a shank piece of highly tempered steel with resilient flexibility aided by a rubber cushion, under the ball of the foot. This construction imparts a firm upward thrust that supports with ease and restfulness obtained only in Main Spring* equipped shoes.

Many style models as well as conservative types of WALK-OVERS are now constructed with the Main Spring* Arch.
